Sofonisba Anguissola Cecilia Gamberini, 2024-04-02 Sofonisba Anguissola ca 1532 1625 an Italian Renaissance painter born in Cremona to a relatively poor noble family was one of the first women artists to establish an international reputation during her lifetime This stunningly illustrated monograph explores the evolution of Anguissola s art from her youth in Cremona through her service as a lady in waiting to the Spanish queen Elisabeth of Valois to her later years as a married woman in Sicily and Genoa Alongside discussions of Anguissola and her work author Cecilia Gamberini offers a tantalizing exploration of Renaissance court life detailing how the circles of influence and power operated This volume highlights the social political and cultural preconditions surrounding Anguissola s role in the court of King Philip II of Spain and her ascent to becoming an internationally acclaimed painter Gamberini draws on archival documentation as well as her own original research to shine a new light on Anguissola s life career and work in this tribute to a truly groundbreaking artist Lavinia Fontana's Mythological Paintings Liana De Girolami Cheney, 2020-08-18 This volume investigates emblematic and art historical issues in Lavinia Fontana s mythological paintings Fontana is the first female painter of the sixteenth century in Italy to depict female nudes as well as mythological and emblematic paintings associated with concepts of beauty and wisdom Her paintings reveal an appropriation of the antique a fusion between patronage and culture and a humanistic pursuit of Mannerist conceits Fontana s secular imagery provides a challenging paragone with the male tradition of history painting during the sixteenth century and paves the way for new subjects to be depicted and interpreted by female painters of the seventeenth century Musical Voices of Early Modern Women Thomasin LaMay, 2017-05-15 Recent scholarship has offered a veritable landslide of studies about early modern women illuminating them as writers thinkers midwives mothers in convents at home and as rulers Musical Voices of Early Modern Women adds to the mix of early modern studies a volume that correlates women s musical endeavors to their lives addressing early modern women s musical activities across a broad spectrum of cultural events and settings The volume takes as its premise the notion that while women may have been squeezed to participate in music through narrower doors than their male peers they nevertheless did so with enthusiasm diligence and success They were there in many ways but as women s lives were fundamentally different and more private than men s were their strategies tools and appearances were sometimes also different and thus often unstudied in an historical discipline that primarily evaluated men s productivity Given that many of these stories will not necessarily embrace a standard musical repertoire even as they seek to expand canonical borders The contributors to this collection explore the possibility of a larger musical culture which included women as well as men by examining early modern women in many headed ways through the lens of musical production They look at how women composed assuming that compositional gender strategies may have been used differently when applied through her vision how women were composed or represented and interpreted through music in a larger cultural context and how her presence in that dialog situated her in social space Contributors also trace how women found music as a means for communicating for establishing intellectual power for generating musical tastes and for enhancing the quality of their lives Some women performed publicly and thus some articles examine how this impacted on their lives and families Other contributors inquire about the economics of music and women and how in different situations some women may have been financially empowered or even in control of their own money making This collection offers a glimpse at women from home stage work and convent from many classes and from culturally diverse countries including France Spain Italy England Austria Russia and Mexico and imagines a musical history centered in the realities of those lives

Women Artists in the Early Modern Courts of Europe Tanja L. Jones, 2025-10-01 Women Artists in the Early Modern Courts of Europe c 1450 1700 presents the first collection of essays dedicated to women as producers of visual and material culture in the Early Modern European courts offering fresh insights into the careers of among others Caterina van Hemessen Sofonisba Anguissola Luisa Rold n and Diana Mantuana Also considered are groups of female makers such as ladies in waiting at the seventeenth century Medici court Chapters address works by women who occupied a range of social and economic positions within and around the courts and across media including paintings sculpture prints and textiles Both individually and collectively the texts deepen understanding of the individual artists and courts highlighted and more broadly consider the variety of experiences of female makers across traditional geographic and chronological distinctions The book is also accompanied by the Global Makers Women Artists in the Early Modern Courts digital humanities project www.globalmakers.ua.edu extending and expanding the work begun here
