Culture as Soft Power Elisabet Carbó-Catalan,Diana Roig

Sanz,2022-09-06 This book contributes to bridge the gap between different scholarly communities interested in the entanglements of culture and politics in the international arena It sheds light on existing connections in their parallel evolution with a thorough literature review complemented by several case studies showing the fruitful character of their interdisciplinary mobilisation Through the notions of cultural relations intellectual cooperation and cultural diplomacy the book draws on a soft power perspective to offer a shared novel and interdisciplinary theoretical framework to approach cultural institutions and organisations that have been previously examined as isolated objects for example cultural institutes international organisations literary magazines and literary contests The interdisciplinary nature of this volume justifies the relevance of its content for scholars working in the history of international relations international cultural relations and intellectual history comparative literature sociology of literature and global literary studies Gender and Diplomacy Elise Stephenson,Khushi Singh Rathore,2025-05-09 This edited collection aims to bring new contexts and research innovations to study the changing nature of gender in diplomacy Whilst historically most diplomats were men in the twenty first century the proportion of women and others of diverse backgrounds has increased markedly and in select cases surpasses men Digital diplomacy glass cliffs diplomatic gatekeeping nation branding queer and critical race studies and more have begun to be studied in the context of gender and diplomacy raising new questions in new contexts and driving new innovations in diplomacy How is diplomacy responding to these changes How does gender sexuality and race intersect to reproduce diplomatic relations This edited collection unpacks the queering of diplomacy the security diplomacy nexus gender and West non West distinctions in diplomacy gender and foreign policy and women in MFAs and foreign service Women of the Mafia Felia Allum,2024-07-15 Winner of the International Association for the Study of Organized Crime Book Award Women of the Mafia dives into the Neapolitan criminal underworld of the Camorra as seen and lived by the women who inhabit it It tells their life stories and unpacks the gender dynamics by examining their participation as active agents in the organization as leaders managers foot soldiers and enablers Felia Allum shows that these women are true partners in crime The author offers an innovative interdisciplinary analysis that demystifies the notion that the Camorra is a sexist male centric organization She links her analysis of Camorra culture within the wider Neapolitan context to show how mothers and women act and are treated in the private sphere of the household and how the family helps explain the power women have found in the Neapolitan Camorra It is civil society and law enforcement agencies that continue to see the Camorra using traditional gender assumptions which render women irrelevant and lacking independent agency in the criminal underworld In Women of the Mafia Allum debunks these assumptions by revealing the power and influence of women in the Camorra Kinship, Patriarchal Structure and Women's Bargaining with Patriarchy in Rural Sindh, Pakistan Nadia Agha,2021-11-29 The book provides insights into the prevailing patriarchal system in rural Pakistan It elaborates on the kinship system in rural Sindh and explores how young married women strategize and negotiate with patriarchy Drawing on qualitative methodologies the book reveals the strong relationship between poverty and the perpetuation of patriarchy Women s strategies help elevate their position in their families such as attention to household tasks producing children and doing handicraft work for their well being These conditions are usually seen as evidence of women s subordination but these are also strategies for survival where accommodation to patriarchy wins them approval The book concludes that women s life long struggle is in fact a technique of negotiating with patriarchy In so doing they internalize the culture that rests on their subordination and reproduce it in older age in exercising power by oppressing other junior women
