Soil Erosion in a Coastal River Basin Random DuBois,1990 The Geography of Southeast Asia Thomas A.

Rumney,2010-04-07 In The Geography of Southeast Asia Rumney discusses an area that has long been of interest to geographers and other academics As interest in Southeast Asia has grown particularly over the past forty years the volume and variety of scholarly publications on the varied geographical aspects of the region have also increased This collection is an attempt to identify organize and present as many of these works as possible The region as a whole and each individual country of the area are covered in individual chapters Each chapter is further systematically organized by topic including general works cultural social geography economic geography historical geography physical geography political geography and urban geography This book presents a myriad of sources such as atlases books chapters articles dissertations and theses are included as well as works written in English French German and other languages providing the reader with a thorough view of Southeast Asian geography Sustainable Forestry Challenges for Developing Countries Matti Palo,G.

Mery,2012-12-06 This book is an outcome of a research project on Sustainable Forestry and the Environment in Developing Countries The project has been run by Metsantutki muslaitos METLA the Finnish Forest Research Institute since 1987 and will be completed this year A major output by this project has so far been a report in three volumes on Deforestation or development in the Third World The purpose of our multidisciplinary research project is to generate new knowl edge about the causes of deforestation its scenarios and consequences More knowledge is needed for more effective efficient and equitable public policy both at the national and intemationallevels in supporting sustainable forestry in develop ing countries Our project has specifically focused on 90 tropical countries as one group and on three subgroups by continents as well as the three case study countries the Philippines Ethiopia and Chile The University of Joensuu has been our active partner in the Philippine study We have complemented the three cases by the analyzes of Brazil and Indonesia the two largest tropical forest owning countries Some other interesting country studies were annexed to complement our book both by geography and expertise The United Nations University World Institute for Development Economics Research UNUIWIDER in Helsinki Finland has also been partly engaged Most of the results from its project on The Forest in the South and North in Context of Global Warming will however be published later in a separate book Calvinists Incorporated Anne Kelly

Knowles,1997-02 Bringing immigrants onstage as central players in the drama of rural capitalist transformation Anne Kelly Knowles traces a community of Welsh immigrants to Jackson and Gallia counties in southern Ohio After reconstructing the gradual process of community building Knowles focuses on the pivotal moment when the immigrants became involved with the industrialization of their new region as workers and investors in Welsh owned charcoal iron companies Setting the southern Ohio Welsh in the context of Welsh immigration as a whole from 1795 to 1850 Knowles explores how these strict Calvinists responded to the moral dilemmas posed by leaving their native land and experiencing economic success in the United States Knowles draws on a wide variety of sources including obituaries and community histories to reconstruct the personal histories of over 1 700 immigrants The resulting account will find appreciative readers not only among historical geographers but also among American economic historians and historians of religion Deforestation in the Postwar

Philippines David M. Kummer,1992-06 The only quantitative deforestation study to focus on one country this case analysis of the Philippines since 1946 yields more concrete data than previous cross national studies David Kummer s close examination of the interactions among political economic and cultural factors and their environmental consequences sheds light on similar situations in other countries After a California Earthquake Risa Palm,Michael E. Hodgson,1992-04-15

Shortly before the Loma Prieta earthquake devastated areas of Northern California in 1989 Risa Palm and her associates had surveyed 2 500 homeowners in the area about their perception of risk from earthquakes After the quake they surveyed the homeowners again and found that their perception of risk had increased but that most respondents were fatalistic and continued to ignore self protective measures those who personally experienced damage were more likely to buy insurance A rare opportunity to analyze behavior change directly before and after a natural disaster this survey has implications for policy makers insurance officials and those concerned with risk management Sport Fishery Abstracts ,1991

Fisheries Review ,1991 Feminist Political Ecology Dianne Rocheleau,Barbara Thomas-Slayter,Esther Wangari,2013-04-15 Feminist Political Ecology explores the gendered relations of ecologies economies and politics in communities as diverse as the rubbertappers in the rainforests of Brazil to activist groups fighting racism in New York City Women are often at the centre of these struggles struggles which concern local knowledge everyday practice rights to resources sustainable development environmental quality and social justice The book bridges the gap between the academic and rural orientation of political ecology and the largely activist and urban focus of environmental justice movements
