Sojourner Truth A Voice For Freedom Great African Americans Series:

Sojourner Truth Pat McKissack, Fredrick McKissack, 1992 Born a slave in the State of New York Sojourner Truth escaped to freedom in 1826 and then traveled throughout the Northeast preaching in a tireless fight against slavery and the oppression of women Give your readers a powerful story to remember Sojourner Truth Geoffrey Michael Horn, 2009-08 Examines the life of the woman born into slavery who became a well known abolitionist and crusader for the rights of African Americans in the United States Literature Connections to American History K6 Lynda G. Adamson, 1997-09-15 Identifying thousands of historical fiction novels biographies history trade books CD ROMs and videotapes this book helps you locate resources on American history for students Each book presents information in two sections In the first part titles are listed according to grade levels within eras and further organized according to product type The books cover American history from North America Before 1600 and The American Colonies 1600 1774 to The Mid Twentieth Century 1946 1975 and Since 1975 The second section has annotated bibliographies that describe each title and includes publication information and awards won The focus is on books published since 1990 and all have received at least one favorable review Some books with more illustration than text will be valuable for enticing slow or reticent readers An index helps users find resources by author title or biographical subject Sojourner Truth Kristal Leebrick, 2002 Profiles the life of Sojourner Truth the African American abolitionist from her childhood as a slave through her freedom and change of name later in life to her adult career as a speaker against slavery and supporter of women s rights Rewriting Eve Ronna J. Detrick, 2025-07-30 We wouldn t consider letting Isis Medusa Pandora or Persephone slip from our lexicon To somehow forget the legend of Harriet Tubman Anne Frank or Mother Teresa would never cross our minds And yet when it comes to the stories of Eve and other biblical characters they are rarely known barely appreciated and ostensibly lost by most of us not deeply entwined within organized religion Trapped in patriarchy and theological argument dismissed as irrelevant or viewed as unchangeable even as times change these women s voices desires and hearts have too often been silenced through misunderstanding and neglect As result we are as well But when they are reimagined deconstructed disentangled from doctrine and dogma and heard on their own terms these stories become powerful inspiration and a source of discernment that reconnects us to a feminine lineage and a sovereign sense of self we ve never known to call on or trust In Rewriting Eve Rescuing Women s Stories from the Bible and Reclaiming Them As Our Own Ronna Detrick invites us into the presence and power of ten sacred women revealing the endlessly relevant ways in which they speak today and showing how they can heal embolden and transform our stories Sojourner Truth Jeri Cipriano, 2020-01-01 Sojourner Truth was born to slaves She had no choice But when she grew to be a young mother herself she ran away with her child looking for freedom She used her voice to speak for all slaves wanting to be free Children's Biographies of African American Women Sara C. VanderHaagen, 2018-11-15 A study of how rhetoric has shaped the life stories of African American role models in children s literature In Children's Biographies of African American Women: Rhetoric, Public Memory, and Agency Sara C. VanderHaagen examines how these biographies encourage young readers to think about themselves as agents in a public world. Specifically, VanderHaagen illustrates how these works use traditional means to serve progressive ends and thereby examines the rhetorical power of biography in shaping identity and promoting public action. Drawing on scholarship in rhetoric, memory studies, and children's literature, VanderHaagen presents rhetorical analyses of biographies of three African American women: poet Phillis Wheatley, activist Sojourner Truth, and educator turned politician Shirley Chisholm, published in the United States during the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. VanderHaagen begins by analyzing how biographical sketches in books for black children published during the 1920s represent Wheatley and Truth. The study then shifts to books published between 1949 and 2015. VanderHaagen uses a concept adapted from philosopher Paul Ricoeur, the idea of the agential spiral, to chart the ways that biographies have used rhetoric to shape the life stories of Wheatley, Truth, and Chisholm. By bringing a critical rhetorical perspective to the study of biographies for children, this book advances the understanding of how lives of the past are used persuasively to shape identity and encourage action in the contemporary public world. VanderHaagen contributes to the study of rhetoric and African American children's literature and refocuses the field of memory studies on children's biographies, a significant but often overlooked genre through which public memories first take shape.

To Reach the Nation's Ear Richard W. Leeman, 2022-11-15 Throughout much of American history, African Americans have been denied easy access to most of the traditional modes of effective reform, such as newspapers, legislative assemblies, unions, and political parties. Public speaking has thus been one of the most critically important means by which leaders and individuals have reached an audience, enacted or prevented change, and created community. Dating from the earliest days of American history, the African American community has produced many notable and eloquent speakers and has demonstrated a vibrant oral tradition. The volume will follow a chronological organization, tracing the history of African American public speaking from colonial times to the present.

A Companion to American Fiction, 1780 - 1865 Shirley Samuels, 2008-04-15 This Companion presents the current state of criticism in the field of American fiction from the earliest declarations of nationhood to secession and civil war. It draws heavily on historical and cultural contexts in its consideration of American fiction. It relates the fiction of the period to conflicts about territory and sovereignty and to issues of gender, race, ethnicity, and identity. It covers different forms of fiction, including children's literature, sketches, polemical pieces, historical romances, Gothic novels, and novels of exploration. It considers both canonical and lesser-known authors, including James Fenimore Cooper, Hannah Foster, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Herman Melville, and Harriet Beecher Stowe. It treats neglected topics such as the Western novel, science and the novel, and American fiction in languages other than English.

William Lloyd Garrison William David Thomas, 2009-08 Profiles the life and work of the abolitionist and journalist who published his beliefs about antislavery.
