Bunn, 2018-10-24 The unquiet dead gather around a crumbling island mansion drawn to a quiet young girl who is trapped within the dreary old house The girl's father has come to bring her home but a sinister family with dark and murderous plans stands in his way Cold Spots Cullen Bunn, 2019-02-27 Spine tingling horror psychological fright the undead and the bitter cold of a supernatural winter come together in this tale of mounting dread Ten years ago Dan Kerr turned his back on his wife and unborn daughter Now both mother and child have gone missing and Dan will have to pull out all the stops to bring them home Because ghosts stir when Dan's estranged daughter is near and as the dead grow restless the cold deepens Collects COLD SPOTS 1 5 How We Read Now Naomi S. Baron, 2021-02-19 An engaging and authoritative guide to the impact of reading medium on learning from a foremost expert in the field We face constant choices about how we read Educators must select classroom materials College students weigh their textbook options Parents make decisions for their children The digital revolution has transformed reading and with the recent turn to remote learning onscreen reading may seem like the only viable option Yet selecting digital is often based on cost or convenience not on educational evidence Now more than ever it is imperative to understand how reading medium actually impacts learning and what strategies we need in order to read effectively in all formats In How We Read Now Naomi Baron draws on a wealth of knowledge and research to explain important differences in the way we concentrate understand and remember across multiple formats Mobilizing work from international scholarship along with findings from her own studies of reading practices Baron addresses key challenges from student complaints that print is boring to the hazards of digital reading for critical thinking Rather than arguing for one format over another she explains how we read and learn in different settings shedding new light on the current state of reading The book then crucially connects research insights to concrete applications offering practical approaches for maximizing learning with print digital text audio and video Since screens and audio are now entrenched and invaluable platforms for reading we need to rethink ways of helping readers at all stages use them more wisely How We Read Now shows us how to do that Il secolo dei media Peppino Ortoleva, 2022-01-14 A partire dagli anni novanta complice la diffusione di Internet e l'avvento di smartphone e social network la nostra società ha subito trasformazioni radicali Ma per comprendere il ruolo che i media hanno nel presente e come gestire le sfide che ci pongono dobbiamo distinguere cosa sia realmente inedito e cosa invece non somigli più a un ricorso storico e soprattutto osservare ciò che abbiamo ereditato dal secolo dei media il Novecento Peppino Ortoleva ricostruisce la storia dei media dal secolo scorso a oggi e analizza i cambiamenti che questi hanno portato nel modo in cui comunichiamo Muovendosi tra storiografia e antropologia si sofferma tanto sulle scelte politiche implicite nel progresso tecnologico quanto sulle loro ripercussioni in campi non direttamente connessi con il mondo della comunicazione come la caduta di tab che sembravano incrollabili il diffondersi della pornografia

e il ruolo delle abitudini d acquisto nella costruzione di una comunit Ogni nostro atto comunicazione perfino subire il continuo flusso di messaggi cui siamo sottoposti se non ne comprendiamo le implicazioni il rischio di esserne agiti inconsapevolmente Il secolo dei media nel solco della tradizione di maestri quali Marshall McLuhan e Umberto Eco Roland Barthes e Susan Sontag ci guida attraverso il paradosso della comunicazione umana essa si fonda sulla possibilit di entrare in contatto con l altro in virt delle somiglianze che intercorrono con lui e al contempo resa necessaria dall irriducibile diversit tra individui E se la comunicazione a livello di massa i paradossi diventano un mare Un mare in moto perpetuo da affrontare con gli strumenti adeguati

Articulate Objects Aura Satz, Jon Wood, 2009 How do objects speak to us What happens to authorship when voice is projected into inanimate objects How can one articulate an object into speech Is the inarticulate body necessarily silent These are just some of the questions brought up by this unique and unusual collection of essays which presents subjects and categories often overlooked by the disciplines of art history visual culture theatre history and comparative literature Drawing from and expanding upon the Performing Objects Animating Images academic session run by the Henry Moore Institute at the Association of Art Historians conference held in London in 2003 this book presents thirteen essays that bring together a multidisciplinary approach to the animated object Contributions range from literal accounts of magic lanterns tableaux vivants puppets and ventriloquist dummies to the more abstract notions of voice displacement in audio art and authorship projection in writing machines The contributors come from diverse backgrounds in art history cultural history comparative literature and artistic theatrical and curatorial practice and all tackle the issue of articulate objects from a range of lively and unexpected perspectives
