The Latest News A Native New Yorkers Journey To Sept 11:

Bagels with the Bards The Bards, 2008-04-28 Bagel Bard noun 1 A poet that is glazed and ring shaped whose poetry has a tough chewy texture usually made of leavened words and images dropped briefly into nearly boiling conversations on Saturday mornings often baked to a golden brown 2 verb To come together in writership over breakfast To laugh so hard at an irreverent statement that the sesame seeds of the bagel you ve just eaten explode from your mouth like grenade shrapnel Welcome to the third Bagelbard Anthology As some of you know or can guess from the above definition the Bagel Bards meet every Saturday morning at a designated spot We breakfast in the original sense of eating but also because most of us are so busy working on our writing careers that we often find ourselves starved for great conversation Well the Bagel Bards breakfast hang is not only a place in which to do the aforementioned but also to observe characters who themselves could be the subjects of poems and fiction

Global Radical Islamist Insurgency: AL QAEDA AND ISLAMIC STATE NETWORKS FOCUS Dave Dilegge and Robert J. Bunker, 2016-02-11 This anthology the second of an initial two volume set specifically covers Small Wars Journal writings on Al Qaeda and the Islamic State spanning the years 2012-2014. This set is meant to contribute to U.S. security debates focusing on radical Islamist global insurgency by collecting diverse SWJ essays into more easily accessible formats. Small Wars Journal has long been a leader in insurgency and counterinsurgency research and scholarship with an emphasis on practical applications and policy outcomes in furtherance of U.S. global and allied nation strategic interests. The site is able to lay claim to supporting the writings of many COIN counterinsurgency practitioners. This includes Dr. David Kilcullen whose early work dating from late 2004. Countering Global Insurgency helped to lay much of the conceptual basis focusing on this threat and as a result greatly helped to facilitate the writings that were later incorporated into these Al Qaeda and Islamic State focused anthologies. This volume is composed of sixty-six chapters divided into sections on a radical Islamist OPFORs, opposition forces and context and b. U.S. allied policy and counter radical Islamist strategies. The work also contains a preface by Matt Begert, a foreword by Dr. Daveed Gartenstein-Ross and Bridget Moreng, an introduction, a postscript, an extensive notes section, and editor and contributor biographies on sixty-four individuals as well as an acronyms listing and an initial About SWJ and foundation section.

Thunder in the Mountains Daniel J. Sharfstein, 2017-04-04 Beautifully wrought and impossible to put down Daniel Sharfstein's Thunder in the Mountains chronicles with compassion and grace that resonant past we should never forget. Brenda Wineapple, author of Ecstatic Nation, Confidence Crisis, and Compromise. 1848-1877 After the Civil War and Reconstruction a new struggle raged in the Northern Rockies. In the summer of 1877 General Oliver Otis Howard, a champion of African American civil rights, ruthlessly pursued hundreds of Nez Perce families who resisted moving onto a reservation. Standing in his way was Chief Joseph, a young leader who never stopped advocating for Native American sovereignty and equal rights. Thunder in the Mountains is the spellbinding story of two legendary figures and their epic clash of ideas about the meaning of freedom and the role of government in American life.

Henry Knox and the Revolutionary War Trail in Western Massachusetts Bernard A. Drew, 2012-01-23 During the winter of 1776 in one of the most amazing logistical feats of the Revolutionary War, Henry Knox and his teamsters transported cannons from Fort Ticonderoga through the sparsely populated Berkshires to Boston to help drive British forces from the city This history documents Knox s precise route dubbed the Henry Knox Trail and chronicles the evolution of an ordinary Indian path into a fur corridor a settlement trail and eventually a war road By recounting the growth of this important but under appreciated thoroughfare this study offers critical insight into a vital Revolutionary supply route Healing Haunted Histories Elaine Enns,Ched Myers,2021-02-01 Healing Haunted Histories tackles the oldest and deepest injustices on the North American continent Violations which inhabit every intersection of settler and Indigenous worlds past and present Wounds inextricably woven into the fabric of our personal and political lives And it argues we can heal those wounds through the inward and outward journey of decolonization The authors write as and for settlers on this journey exploring the places peoples and spirits that have formed and deformed us They look at issues of Indigenous justice and settler response ability through the lens of Elaine s Mennonite family narrative tracing Landlines Bloodlines and Songlines like a braided river From Ukrainian steppes to Canadian prairies to California chaparral they examine her forebearers immigrant travails and trauma settler unknowing and complicity and traditions of resilience and conscience And they invite readers to do the same Part memoir part social historical and theological analysis and part practical workbook this process invites settler Christians and other people of faith into a discipleship of decolonization How are our histories landscapes and communities haunted by continuing Indigenous dispossession How do we transform our colonizing self perceptions lifeways and structures And how might we practice restorative solidarity with Indigenous communities today

Cradle of Gold Neil B. Chambers,Christopher Heaney,2011-07-05 Christopher Heaney takes the reader into the heart of Peru s past to relive the dramatic story of the final years of the Incan empire the recovery of their final cities and the fight over their future Drawing on original research in untapped archives Heaney portrays both a stunning landscape and the complex history of a region that continues to inspire awe and controversy today from publisher description The Pall Mall Budget ,1880 Living in Indigenous Sovereignty Elizabeth Carlson-Manathara,2021-04-15T00:00:00Z In the last decade the relationship between settler Canadians and Indigenous Peoples has been highlighted by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls the Idle No More movement the Wet suwet en struggle against pipeline development and other Indigenous led struggles for Indigenous sovereignty and decolonization Increasing numbers of Canadians are beginning to recognize how settler colonialism continues to shape relationships on these lands With this recognition comes the question many settler Canadians are now asking what can I do Living in Indigenous Sovereignty lifts up the wisdom of Indigenous scholars activists and knowledge keepers who speak pointedly to what they are asking of non Indigenous people It also shares the experiences of thirteen white settler Canadians who are deeply engaged in solidarity work with Indigenous Peoples Together these stories offer inspiration and guidance for settler Canadians who wish to live honourably in relationship with Indigenous Peoples laws and lands If Canadians truly want to achieve this goal Carlson and Rowe argue they will pursue a reorientation of their lives toward living in Indigenous sovereignty living in an awareness that these are Indigenous lands containing relationships laws protocols stories obligations and opportunities that have been understood and practised by Indigenous peoples since time immemorial Collectively these stories will help settler Canadians understand what transformations we must undertake if we are to fundamentally shift our current relations and find a new way forward together Visit for more details <https://www.storiesofdecolonization.org> Watch the book launch video here Reinventing the Warrior Matthias André Voigt, 2024-09-01 On February 27 1973 a group of roughly 300 armed Indigenous men women and children seized the tiny hamlet of Wounded Knee South Dakota at gunpoint took hostages barricaded themselves in the hilltop church and raised an upside down American flag Taking place at the site of the infamous massacre in 1890 the highly symbolic confrontation spearheaded by the American Indian Movement AIM ultimately evolved into a prolonged seventy one day armed standoff between law enforcement officers and modern day Indigenous warriors Among these warriors were Vietnam War veterans armed with Vietnam era equipment and weaponry By organizing in defense of the newly proclaimed Independent Oglala Nation the AIM activists at Wounded Knee linked their nationalist quest for sovereignty and self determination with a warrior masculinity they constructed from a mix of Indigenous cultures and contemporary cultural elements including the Black civil rights movement the counterculture of the 1960s and early 1970s and the antiwar movement As Matthias Andr Voigt shows the takeover of Wounded Knee was only one moment among many in the complex interplay between protest activism gender race and identity within AIM While AIM is widely recognized for its militancy and nationalism Reinventing the Warrior is the first major study to examine the gendered transformation of Indigenous men within the Red Power movement and the United States more generally AIM activists came to regard themselves like their ancestors before them as warriors fighting for their people their lands and their rights They sought to remasculinize their Indigenous identity in order to confront hegemonic masculinities and by implication colonialism itself By becoming more manly Indigenous men challenged the disempowering nature of white supremacy Voigt traces the story of the reinvention of Indigenous warriorhood from 1968 to the takeover of Wounded Knee in 1973 and beyond His trailblazing work explores why and how Indigenous men refashioned themselves as modern day warriors in their anticolonial nation building endeavor thereby remaking both self and society Rural New Yorker ,1902 Moore's Rural New-Yorker ,1902
