Laurentians - Painters in a Landscape Art Gallery of Ontario. Extension Department, 1978 The Laurentians Mela Constantinidi, Helen Duffy, 1977 Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner, Mary F. Williamson, 1991-01-01 Identifies and summarizes thousands of books article exhibition catalogues government publications and theses published in many countries and in several languages from the early nineteenth century to 1981 Literature and Painting In Quebec William J. Berg, 2013-02-04 This unique study explores how Quebec s landscapes have been represented in both literature and visual art throughout the centuries from the writing of early explorers such as Cartier and Champlain to work by prominent contemporary authors and artists from the province William J Berg traces recurrent images and themes within these creations through the most significant periods in the development of a Quebecois identity that was threatened initially by the wilderness and indigenous populations and later by the dominance of British and American influences Focusing on the interplay between nature and culture in landscape representation Literature and Painting in Quebec contends that both have reflected and fashioned the meaning of French Canadian nationhood As such Literature and Painting in Quebec presents a new perspective to approach the notion of national identity a quest that few groups have engaged in more persistently than the Quebecois The Women of Beaver Hall Evelyn Walters, 2005-11-12 Ten women artists counterparts of the Group of Seven are finally being given their due Long overlooked by critics and historians they are today amongst the most sought after Canadian painters The Beaver Hall Group ventured into a male dominated art world lived remarkable lives and produced exceptional work This beautifully produced book portrays the life and work of Emily Coonan Nora Collyer Prudence Heward Mabel Lockerby Mabel May Sarah Robertson Anne Savage and Ethel Seath Long lost catalogues old newspaper reviews and personal papers document their story and more than 60 reproductions bring to light paintings that have lain hidden for more than fifty years André Biéler Frances K. Smith, 2006 An exceptionally well illustrated biography of Swiss born Canadian artist Andr Bi ler 1896 1989 who is remembered for his paintings of rural Quebec portraits of people and the organizations he founded Painting in Canada J. Russell Harper, 1977-01-01 Since its first appearance in 1967 Russell Harper s classic study of Canadian painting has been recognized as the outstanding authority on the subject This edition provides a comprehensive survey generously illustrated of three centuries of Canadian painting from its beginnings in the seventeenth century Through a lively combination of entertaining anecdotes descriptions of the cultural background biographical accounts and critical judgement the reader comes to know intimately the artists their paintings and their environments Included are 173 reproductions 45 added since the first addition They all ow the reader to see representative works from all periods and provide a visual record of the cultural and social history of Canada The Beaver Hall Group and Its Legacy Evelyn Walters, 2017-02-11 An exploration into Montreal s Beaver Hall Group and its legacy of women

painters who now rank among Canada's most outstanding artists. Today it is difficult to imagine that the art of Montreal's Beaver Hall Group was once shocking. As these Modernists struggled against academic art critics such as Samuel Morgan Powell, ranted rough, meaningless, blatant plastering and massing of unpleasant colours in weird landscapes and likened their paintings to the cacophonous riot of metallic yowlings of jazz that was invading the city. Moreover, unlike their contemporaries, the Group of Seven, the Beaver Hall Group dared to break with tradition and accept women members. The result was a legacy of some of the finest women painters Canada has so far produced. In 2005, Evelyn Walters gave them deserved attention in her acclaimed book The Women of Beaver Hall: Canadian Modernist Painters. Now a follow-up, The Beaver Hall Group and Its Legacy, delves into the engrossing life stories of the twenty-five artists who belonged to the Beaver Hall Group and the Women of Beaver Hall. Over seventy-five images gleaned from museums and private collections highlight the work of these pioneering artists who changed the course of Canadian art. Written for student and scholar alike, The Beaver Hall Group and Its Legacy is a must for every art lover's library.

Lawren Stewart Harris' artistic career began in the first decade of our century. Well known for the nationalist-inspired landscapes that he painted between 1908 and 1932, Harris turned resolutely in 1934 to the painting of abstractions. He continued to create works that reflected his own modernist and mystical developments until the end of his life. Canadians praise Harris' landscapes and admire him as a planner of innovative and heroic-sounding sketching trips into the North. He is also recognized as the chief organizer of the Group of Seven. A long list of younger artists he considered creative greatly benefited from Harris' encouragement and often generous practical help; many of them have been interviewed for this book. In the lives of some Canadians, Harris still functions as a guru-like guide; a role he was quite content to take on during his own lifetime because of the spiritual content of his art and aesthetic writings and the example of his optimistic, vigorous, and apparently untroubled life. But Harris was not an untroubled life, and Light for a Cold Land examines his personal crises and difficulties, some of which caused important changes in his art. The book also uncovers the painting styles, artistic tensions, and cultural dynamics of the German milieu in which Harris received his only formal art education. His student years in Berlin profoundly influenced not only his art but also his artistic politics and his philosophy. It is ironic that in the art of this most articulate of Canadian nationalist painters, there are extensive German influences. Light for a Cold Land is the first art historical study of Lawren Harris that attempts to explore his life and all aspects of his career. It is based on extensive work in archives, libraries, public art galleries, and private collections in Canada, as well as research in Germany and interviews with members of Harris' family and many of his friends, acquaintances, colleagues, and critics.

Picturing the Land Marylin J. McKay, 2011-04-12

Emphasizing the ways in which social, economic, and political conditions determine representation, Marylin McKay moves beyond canonical images and traditional nationalistic interpretations by analyzing Canadian landscape art in relation to different concepts of territory. Taking an expansive and inclusive perspective on Canadian landscape art, McKay depicts this tradition in all its diversity and draws it into the larger body of Western landscape art broadening the horizon of future study appreciation and criticism Richly illustrated and filled with sophisticated and innovative commentary Picturing the Land provides new and distinct histories of the landscape art of French and English Canada Canadian Art in the Twentieth Century Joan Murray,1999-11-01 Canadian Art in the Twentieth Century is a survey of the richest most controversial and perhaps most thoroughly confusing centuries in the whole history of the visual arts in Canada the period from 1900 to the present Murray shows how beginning with Tonalism at the start of the century new directions in art emerged starting with our early Modernists among them Tom Thomson and the Group of Seven Today Modernism has lost its dominance Artists critics and the public alike are confronted by a scene of unprecedented variety and complexity Murray discusses the social and political events of the century in combination with the cultural context movements ideas attitudes and styles the important groups in Canadian art and major and minor artists and their works Fully documented well researched and written with clarity and over four hundred illustrations in both black and white and colour Murray s book is essential for understanding Canadian art of this century As an introduction it is excellent in both its scope and intelligence

Lawrence,Kamloops Art Gallery,2000-10 Literacy is broadly understood to refer to the ability to read and write But the term is heavily value laden and is often used to elevate print at the expense of other forms of communication In PhotoGraphic Encounters the authors challenge this reductive notion of literacy and propose instead an integrated span of literacies reaching across disciplinary boundaries to discover a text that draws upon both the visual and the verbal PhotoGraphic Encounters discusses Canadian writers like Margaret Atwood George Bowering Robert Kroetsch and Daphne Marlatt and Canadian artists like Fred Douglas Ernie Kroeger Brenda Pelkey and Michael Snow then looks at the cross fertilization of visual and verbal processes in their works The authors present a new narrative practice one that fully engages lived experience The vernacular they argue is vital to our participation as readers and viewers of high art Making the connection between the vernacular and high culture creates an enabling moment in artistic production and reception and in teaching learning and talking about art and literature PhotoGraphic Encounters offers a compelling perspective on questions of literacy in a postmodern culture Artists writers scholars and critics alike will want this volume in their libraries Includes more than 120 B W photographs 20 colour plates index bibliography Fashioning the Canadian Landscape John Irvine Little,2018-04-13 Interpretations of Canada s emerging identity have been largely based on a relatively small corpus of literary writing and landscape paintings overlooking the influence of the British and American travel writers who published hundreds of books and articles that did much to fix the image of Canada in the popular imagination In Fashioning the Canadian Landscape J I Little examines how Canada much like the United States came to be identified with its natural landscape Little argues that in contrast to the American identification with the wilderness sublime however Canada s image was strongly influenced by the picturesque convention favoured by British travel writers This amply illustrated volume includes chapters ranging from Labrador to British Columbia some of which focus on such notable British authors as Rupert Brooke and Rudyard Kipling and others on talented American writers such as Charles Dudley Warner Based not only on the views of the landscape but on the racist descriptions of the Indigenous peoples and the romanticization of the Canadian folk Little argues that the national image that emerged was colonialist as well as colonial in nature

The Beaver Hall Group 2-Book Bundle Evelyn Walters,2017-02-25 From the vanguard of Modernism in Montreal the Beaver Hall Group included painters who are now ranked among Canada s most distinguished artists Evelyn Walters brings her extensive knowledge of the group to paint a picture of the artists lives and their works in this two book bundle More than 130 reproductions bring to light paintings that have lain hidden for more than fifty years Includes The Beaver Hall Group and Its Legacy The Women of Beaver Hall Painting the Past with a Broad Brush David L.
