The Leach Legacy St Ives Pottery And Its Influence:

The Leach Legacy Marion Whybrow,1996 The Art of Contemporary American Pottery Kevin A. Hluch,2001-08-01
Beauty will always reside in the eye of the beholder but what about the fine line between beauty and functionality Can a purely utilitarian form such as a simple pot vase or plate truly be considered a great work of art In The Art of Contemporary American Pottery author Kevin A Hluch takes up the challenge of addressing this debate Hluch who examines pottery from a unique perspective as historian scholar and connoisseur finds as much meaning and nobility in a thoughtfully crafted clay vessel as he does in a masterpiece painting There are many reasons why a good pot is a good pot Some reasons are obvious Some are subtle Some only reveal themselves when you know how to look With the help of more than 200 beautiful color photos featuring the world of the country's best utilitarian potters and a lengthy list of artists and galleries Hluch does more than just talk about how great pottery is made He talks about what makes great pottery Japanese Modernisation and Mingei Theory Yuko Kikuchi,2004-07-31 Conceptualised in 1920s Japan by Yanagi S etsu the Mingei movement has spread world wide since the 1950s creating phenomena as diverse as Mingei museums Mingei connoisseurs and collectors Mingei shops and Mingei restaurants The theory at its core and its adaptation by Bernard Leach has long been an influential Oriental aesthetic for studio craft artists in the West But why did Mingei become so particularly influential to a western audience And could the Orientalness perceived in Mingei theory be nothing more than a myth This richly illustrated work offers controversial new evidence through its cross cultural examination of a wide range of materials in Japanese English Korean and Chinese bringing about startling new conclusions concerning Japanese modernization and cultural authenticity This new interpretation of the Mingei movement will appeal to scholars of Japanese art history as well as those with interests in cultural identity in non Western cultures The Potter's Art Henry Glassie,1999 Coming into being the work of art this very pot creates relations relations between nature and culture between the individual and society between utility and beauty Governed by desire the artist's work answers questions of value Is nature favored or culture Are individual needs or social needs more important Do utilitarian or aesthetic concerns dominate in the transformation of nature from the Introduction The Potter's Art discusses and illustrates the work of modern masters of traditional ceramics from Bangladesh Sweden various parts of the United States Turkey and Japan It will appeal to anyone interested in pottery and the study of folklore and folk art Henry Glassie is College Professor of Folklore and Co director of Turkish Studies at Indiana University He has been a Guggenheim Fellow and a Fellow of the National Humanities Institute he has also served as President of the Vernacular Architecture Forum and of the American Folklore Society Material Culture Henry Glassie George Jevremovic and William T Sumner editors Note there is an accent egue on the c Jevremovic Contents The Potter's Art Bangladesh Sweden Georgia Acoma Turkey Japan Hagi Work in the Clay Acknowledgments Notes Bibliography Index The History of Anglo-Japanese Relations 1600-2000 G. Daniels,C. Tsuzuki,2002-10-02 This pioneering collection of essays by Japanese

British and Canadian scholars demonstrates how individuals government agencies and non governmental organizations have confirmed and challenged the ideas of diplomats and statesmen Case studies of mutual perceptions feminism ceremonial theatre economic and social thought fine arts broadcasting labour and missionary activity all illustrate how varieties of nationalism and internationalism have shaped the development of Anglo Japanese relations Furthermore it reveals the British admiration of Japan and a desire to emulate Japanese efficiency as a recurring theme in debates on the condition of Britain in the twentieth century

Daniel Johnston Henry Glassie, 2020-03-03 DANIEL JOHNSTON raised on a farm in Randolph County returned from Thailand with a new way to make monumental pots Back home in North Carolina he built a log shop and a wheel of a kiln for wood firing Then he set out to create beautiful pots grand in scale graceful in form and burned bright in a blend of ash and salt With mastery achieved and apprentices to teach Daniel Johnston turned his brain to massive installations First he made a hundred large jars and lined them along the rough road that runs past his shop and kiln Next he arranged curving clusters of big pots inside pine frames slatted like corn cribs to separate them from the slick interiors of four fine galleries in succession Then in concluding the second phase of his professional career Daniel Johnston built an open air installation on the grounds around the North Carolina Museum of Art where 178 handmade wood fired columns march across a slope in a straight line 350 feet in length that dips and lifts with the heave while the tops of the pots maintain a level horizon In 2000 when he was still Mark Hewitt's apprentice Daniel Johnston met Henry Glassie who has done fieldwork on ceramic traditions in the United States Brazil Italy Turkey Bangladesh China and Japan Over the years during a steady stream of intimate interviews Glassie gathered the understanding that enabled him to compose this portrait
