Research in Education ,1973 Contemporary Task-Based Language Teaching in Asia Michael Thomas,Hayo Reinders,2015-02-26 Over the last decade task based approaches to language learning and teaching TBLT have become a global focus of increased levels of research Governments around the world have turned to TBLT as a potential solution for curricula that lack authentic and meaningful engagement with language learning and are failing to motivate students as a result This book focuses on Asia where this shift has been particularly in evidence TBLT has often been implemented in top down approaches to curriculum development which presents a huge range of challenges at the cultural as well as the pedagogic level Contemporary Task Based Language Teaching in Asia looks at the drivers stakeholders and obstacles across the region Some countries have adapted TBLT to deal with the local constraints others have found it hard to apply and many are still in the process of investigating its implementation in their specific contexts This collection is important to all involved in language development from curriculum reform to materials development It assists from programme evaluation to the setting of assessment standards The chapters cover all aspects of language education across Asia from primary to tertiary private and public education as well as innovations at local regional and national levels Intra- and Interlingual

Translation in Flux Višnja Jovanović, 2023-02-17 This book extends new lines of inquiry on intra and interlingual translation building on Jakobson's classification of translational relations to take into account the full complexity of language and the role of social dimensions in fostering linguistic unity and identity Jovanović argues that intra and interlingual translation do not form a stable relationship but in fact are both contingent on how languages and their borders are defined Chapters unpack the causes and effects of this instability through the lens of Serbo-Croatian literature where the impact of sociopolitical pressure on language over time can be keenly observed Drawing on work from translation studies sociolinguistics close reading distant reading and discourse analysis Jovanović charts how linguistic fluidity where linguistic borders are challenged at both the macro and the micro level as a result of sociopolitical change in turn shapes literary and cultural circulation In its examination of the intersection of the linguistic and social in translational relations in the Serbo-Croatian context the book can offer wider insights into better understanding the literary and translational landscape of analogous sociolinguistic and geographic milieus This volume will be of interest to scholars in literary translation translation theory sociology of translation comparative literature and multilingualism Resources in Education, 2001
