The Legend Of Hammiedownz:

A Thousand Miles from Nowhere John Gregory Brown, 2017-10-24 You have lost everything yes Everything Henry thought he considered the word Had he lost everything Fleeing New Orleans as Hurricane Katrina approaches Henry Garrett is haunted by the ruins of his marriage a squandered inheritance and the teaching job he inexplicably quit He pulls into a small Virginia town after three days on the road hoping to silence the ceaseless clamor in his head But this quest for peace and quiet as the only guest at a roadside motel is destroyed when Henry finds himself at the center of a bizarre and violent tragedy As a result Henry winds up stranded at the ramshackle motel just outside the small town of Marimore and it is there that he is pulled into the lives of those around him Latangi the motel's recently widowed proprietor who seems to have a plan for Henry Marge a local secretary who marshals the collective energy of her women's church group and the family of an old man a prisoner who dies in a desperate effort to provide for his infirm wife For his previous novels John Gregory Brown has been lauded for his compassionate vision of human destiny as well as his melodic haunting and rhythmic prose With A Thousand Miles From Nowhere he assumes his place in the tradition of such masterful storytellers as Flannery O'Connor and Walker Percy offering to readers a tragicomic tour de force about the power of art and compassion and one man's search for faith love and redemption John Gregory Brown is a writer I've long admired and this new novel is his best book yet A

Outside and Inside Reva Marin, 2020-10-16 Outside and Inside Representations of Race and Identity in White Jazz Autobiography is the first full length study of key autobiographies of white jazz musicians White musicians from a wide range of musical social and economic backgrounds looked to black music and culture as the model on which to form their personal identities and their identities as professional musicians Their accounts illustrate the triumphs and failures of jazz interracialism As they describe their relationships with black musicians who are their teachers and peers white jazz autobiographers display the contradictory attitudes of reverence and entitlement and deference and insensitivity that remain part of the white response to black culture to the present day Outside and Inside features insights into the development of jazz styles and culture in the urban meccas of twentieth century jazz in New Orleans Chicago New York and Los Angeles Reva Marin considers the autobiographies of sixteen white male jazz instrumentalists including renowned swing era bandleaders Benny Goodman Artie Shaw and Charlie Barnet reed instrumentalists Mezz Mezzrow Bob Wilber and Bud Freeman trumpeters Max Kaminsky and Wingy Manone guitarist Steve Jordan pianists Art Hodes and Don Asher saxophonist Art Pepper guitarist and bandleader Eddie Condon and New Orleans style clarinetist Tom Sancton While critical race theory informs this work Marin argues that viewing these texts simply through the lens of white privilege does not do justice to the kind of sustained relationships with black music and culture described in the accounts of white jazz autobiographers She both insists upon the value of insider perspectives and holds the texts to rigorous scrutiny while embracing an expansive interpretation of white involvement in black culture Marin opens new paths for study of race relations and racial ethnic and gender identity formation in jazz studies

Post-Agreement Northern Irish Literature Birte Heidemann, 2016-06-23 This book uncovers a new genre of post Agreement literature consisting of a body of texts fiction poetry and drama by Northern Irish writers who grew up during the Troubles but published their work in the aftermath of the Good Friday Agreement In an attempt to demarcate the literary aesthetic parameters of the genre the book proposes a selective revision of postcolonial theories on liminality through a subset of concepts such as negative liminality liminal suspension and liminal permanence These conceptual interventions as the readings demonstrate help articulate how the Agreement's rhetorical negation of the sectarian past and its aggressive neoliberal campaign towards a progressive future breed new forms of violence that produce liminally suspended subject positions

Johnson, 2012-01-03 In olden times an alien craft crashed in the sea not far from Edinburgh. Its only surviving passenger burrowed into the ground and took up permanent residence. This deadly parasite from outer space controls all it surveys while the human population its food is unaware of the creature's existence. In modern times a small self-appointed team of ne'er-do-wells take on the impossible task of saving the world. Unknown to almost all of humanity this horror resides in subterranean darkness beneath a Scottish moor. Armed only with guts, wits and a peculiar device called the PXI the human heroes try to unravel a centuries-old mystery. Is it possible for a mere human to penetrate the dark secrets of an alien being? Can man overcome the stupendous odds? Living on a diet of dissolved human flesh the alien creature blinds its victims to reality by using a mind-bending psycho-control. Inevitably there are people who are immune to the hypnotic influence of the alien; they have to be eliminated or at least neutralized. The Dop Doctor Richard Dehan, 2020-07-30 Reproduction of the original The Dop Doctor by Richard Dehan.

The Cellulite Myth Ashley Black, 2017-02-07 Presents exercises intended to rid the body of cellulite by manipulating fascia. Greta Garbo David Bret, 2012-06-25 In the male-oriented studio system Greta Garbo wielded a power no other actress has ever possessed before or since. Be it producer, director, lover or journalist Garbo called the shots and when she decided that she was done with the whirlwind of life as Hollywood's darling she withdrew completely leaving her public begging for an encore that never came. Though there have been numerous biographies of Garbo this is the first to investigate fully the two so-called missing periods in the life of this most enigmatic of Hollywood stars: the first during the late 1920s forcing MGM to employ a lookalike to conceal what was almost certainly a pregnancy; the second during World War II when Garbo was employed by British Intelligence to track down Nazi sympathisers. It also analyses in detail the original uncensored copies of Garbo's films with the exception of The Divine Woman of which no complete print survives and offers substantial evidence that John Gilbert was not in fact the great love of her life. Rather her true affections lay with the gay Sapphic and Scandinavian members of her very intimate inner circle. Using previously unsourced material along with anecdotes from friends and colleagues that have never before been published David Bret paints a rounded portrait of Garbo's childhood in Sweden, her rise to stardom and her all too brief reign as queen of MGM. Hers is a truly remarkable story.
