

LENNY BRUCE PERFORMANCE FILM

A Film by John Magnuson

This is the only film ever made of a complete nightclub performance of this celebrated American satirist. Unedited and unexpurgated, the film captures Bruce examining the perennial concerns of America—sex, race, patriotism, the bathroom, the police department, and Hollywood films. Transcript in hand, Bruce also discusses the record of his New York obscenity trial then in its closing and most desperate phase. Bruce called this performance "maybe the best thing I've ever done."

"This film is an absolutely priceless document. It shows Bruce involved in the most brilliant analysis of the American society and its legal system I ever expect to hear. It is hysterically funny. The impact of Bruce's personality, his throwaway lines, his flashing mind, the clarity of his perception, build through the film to an overwhelming final impact."—RALPH GLEASON, ROLLING STONE

"Here is Lenny in a devastating recapitulation of his New York obscenity trial. . . bursting with an indignation that remains freshly irreverent and blackly funny."—VINCENT CANBY, NEW YORK TIMES

"Pertinent, personal, outrageous, the most poignant comedy of the decade."—PLAYBOY

"A 65-minute record of one of the most misunderstood and tragic figures in show business history. . . With his remarkable talent for mimicry, Bruce used a sulfurous stream of words to drive home stinging social criticism, to reveal to us our frustrations, fears, and prejudices."—LOS ANGELES TIMES
