Paul's Letter to the Philippians Gordon D. Fee, 1995-07-14 Gordon Fee's study on Paul's letter to the Philippians is a contribution to The New International Commentary on the New Testament Prepared by some of the world's leading scholars the series provides an exposition of the New Testament books that is thorough and fully abreast of modern scholarship yet faithful to the Scriptures as the infallible Word of God      The Letter of Paul to the Philippians Pat Edwin Harrell, 1969

Friendship and Finances in Philippi Ben Witherington (III), 1994-11 Presents an exposition of Paul's letter following an introduction to the background and foreground of Paul and the Philippine letter Applies insights from the social sciences and from Greco Roman rhetoric to Philippians distilling the benefits of these new disciplines for the study of this letter

The Price of Partnership in the Letter of Paul to the Philippians Mark A. Jennings, 2018-01-25 Mark A Jennings challenges the consensus that there is no clear single purpose that shapes the entire epistle to the Philippians instead arguing that there is significant evidence for Paul to have written the letter with the sole intent of persuading the church to maintain its exclusive partnership with him and his gospel mission Jennings examines each section of Philippians with standard historical critical methods rhetorical criticism and social scientific methods Establishing that Paul's argument is rooted in three fundamental tenets emphasis is first placed on koinonia and the agreement that Paul and the Philippians had entered into regarding his apostolic mission Second Jennings looks at the repeated proofs that Paul offers that simultaneously affirm the ordained superiority of his apostolic mission and repudiate the claims of his rivals Third Jennings analyses the issue of finances in the epistle discussing how Paul rhetorically transforms the Philippians financial support into a salient indicator that they esteem his gospel mission authentic Finally whereas other scholars have argued that Paul entreats the Philippians to be steadfast in their commitment to the gospel of Christ Jennings proposes that Paul urges the church to be steadfast in their commitment to his gospel of Christ Jennings then considers how this seemingly small distinction has profound ramifications for understanding the letter and shows the gap between these interpretations      A Handbook on Paul's Letter to the Philippians I-Jin Loh, Eugene Albert Nida, 1995      Commentary on Paul's Letter to the Philippians Zack Meaders

Guess, 2017-10-17 Pastor Guess has been preaching for over fifty years and considers it a great privilege that God called him into the ministry During this time he has had a love affair with the Word of God Early in his ministry he was drawn to Paul's Epistle to the Philippians This church was extremely generous and helpful to Paul It was obviously a favorite church of Paul Brother Guess began to study the book and eventually memorized it He has preached through it several times He wrote this commentary as a labor of love He also loves the Koine Greek that the Lord used in the inspiration of the New Testament In writing this commentary he has heavily drawn from many of the divinely inspired grammatical constructions that cast much light on this epistle Also he has done extensive Greek word studies that provide a spiritual gold mine Any New Testament assembly that wants to please the Lord would do well to study and emulate this delightful church that caused the beloved
