The Letter of Peter to Philip Marvin W. Meyer, 1981-01-01 The Letter of Peter to Philip (NHC VIII,2) Marvin W. Meyer, 1979 Philip: Apostle and Evangelist Christopher R. Matthews, 2002-07-01 This study investigates the history of the traditions that coalesced around the name Philip in the New Testament and other early Christian literature It proposes that all of this material ultimately owes its genesis to one historical and literary figure Philip the apostle This proposition is explored through a wide ranging examination of the evidence Luke's redactional employment of traditional materials about Philip the apostle in Acts 8 4 25 and 8 26 40 the evidence of the canonical Gospels the second century perspective on Philip as an apostolic authority figure invoked to legitimate various Christian practices Philip's apostolic authority in gnostic documents for the transmission of the revelatory teaching of Jesus and the Acts of Philip as a witness to the formation of Christian culture in the earliest centuries While historical issues are considered where possible the focus is on the life of the traditions and their reception Nag Hammadi Texts and the Bible C.A. Evans, Webb, R.A. Wiebe, 2019-07-01 This volume places in synoptic form parallel texts from Nag Hammadi and from the Bible This will enable scholars of Coptic Gnosticism as well as scholars concerned with early Christian biblical interpretation to make the comparisons necessary to determine relationships and what dependence if any there may be between these two bodies of material This volume should facilitate the discussion concerning the origin antiquity and relationship of Gnosticism to Christianity The volume also contains an extensive bibliography of materials relevant to this topic Finally a Scripture index will make it possible for the reader to find quickly any desired passage New Testament Apocrypha Wilhelm Schneemelcher, Robert McLachlan Wilson, 2005-07-28 Translation of Neutestamentliche Apokryphen Dialogues and Debates from Late Antiquity to Late Byzantium Averil Cameron, Niels Gaul, 2017-01-20 Dialogues and Debates from Late Antiquity to Late Byzantium offers the first overall discussion of the literary and philosophical dialogue tradition in Greek from imperial Rome to the end of the Byzantine empire and beyond Sixteen case studies combine theoretical approaches with in depth analysis and include comparisons with the neighbouring Syriac Georgian Armenian and Latin traditions Following an introduction and a discussion of Plutarch as a writer of dialogues other chapters consider the Erostraphus a philosophical dialogue in Syriac John Chrysostom's On Priesthood issues of literariness and complexity in the Greek Adversus Iudaeos dialogues the Trophies of Damascus Maximus Confessor's Liber Asceticus and the middle Byzantine apocryphal revelation dialogues The volume demonstrates a new frequency in middle and late Byzantium of rhetorical theological and literary dialogues concomitant with the increasing rhetoricisation of Byzantine literature and argues for a move towards new and exciting experiments Individual chapters examine the Platonising and anti Latin dialogues written in the context of Anselm of Havelberg's visits to Constantinople the theological dialogue by Soterichos Panteugenos the dialogues of Niketas of Maroneia and the literary dialogues by Theodore Prodromos all from the twelfth century The final chapters explore dialogues from the empire's Georgian periphery and discuss late Byzantine philosophical satirical and verse dialogues by Nikephoros Gregoras Manuel II Palaiologos and George Scholarios with special attention to issues of form dramatisation and performance Dictionary of the Later New Testament & Its Developments Ralph P. Martin, Peter H. Davids, 2010-05-11 This one of a kind reference volume provides focused study on the often neglected portions of the New Testament Acts Hebrews the General Epistles and Revelation Expert contributors present more information than any other single work dealing exclusively with the theology literature background and scholarship of the later New Testament and the apostolic church The Gnostic Bible Willis Barnstone, Marvin W. Meyer, 2006 The most comprehensive collection of gnostic literature ever published this volume is the result of a unique collaboration between a renowned poet translator and a leading scholar of early Christian texts Dust of the Ground and Breath of Life (Gen 2:7) - The Problem of a Dualistic Anthropology in Early Judaism and Christianity J.T.A.G.M. van Ruiten, George van Kooten, 2016-09-27 Issues such as the immortality of the soul the debate about matter versus life and whether one was capable of knowing the outside world were all being extensively discussed in many religions and cultures in both East and West The present volume addresses the concept of an immortal soul in a mortal body and focuses on early Judaism and Christianity where this issue is often related to the initial chapters of the book of Genesis The papers are devoted to the interpretation of Gen 2 7 in relation to the broader issue of dualistic anthropology They show that the dualism was questioned in different ways within the context of early Judaism and Christianity The Gospel of Thomas and Plato Ivan Miroshnikov, 2018-06-12 In The Gospel of Thomas and Plato Ivan Miroshnikov offers the first systematic discussion of the Platonist impact on the Gospel of Thomas arguing that Platonism is indispensable to making sense of those sayings that have long remained exegetical cruxes The Doubt of the Apostles and the Resurrection Faith of the Early Church J. D. Atkins, 2019-08-02 Why do the Gospels depict the risen Jesus as touchable and able to eat J D Atkins challenges the common view that Luke 24 and John 20 are apologetic responses to docetism by re examining the redaction of the appearance stories in light of their reception among early docetists and church fathers Page 4 of cover

Christianity has found gnosticism compelling Yet the term gnosticism which often connotes a single rebellious movement against the prevailing religions of late antiquity gives the false impression of a monolithic religious phenomenon Here Michael Williams challenges the validity of the widely invoked category of ancient gnosticism and the ways it has been described Presenting such famous writings and movements as the Apocryphon of John and Valentinian Christianity Williams uncovers the similarities and differences among some major traditions widely categorized as gnostic He provides an eloquent systematic argument for a more accurate way to discuss these interpretive approaches The modern construct gnosticism is not justified by any ancient self definition and many of the most commonly cited religious features that supposedly define gnosticism phenomenologically turn out to be questionable Exploring the sample sets of gnostic teachings Williams refutes generalizations concerning asceticism and libertinism attitudes toward the body and the created world and alleged features of protest parasitism and elitism He sketches a fresh model for understanding ancient innovations on more mainstream Judaism and Christianity a model that is informed by modern research on dynamics in new religious movements and is freed from the false stereotypes from which the category gnosticism has been constructed

The Language of the Kingdom and Jesus Jacobus Liebenberg, 2011-05-02 This study interprets Jesus parables and the sayings tradition regarding the Kingdom of God from a cognitive linguistic understanding of metaphor It also shows what contribution the theory of metaphor can make when the parables and aphorisms are studied in research on the historical Jesus The metaphoric nature and polyvalency of the parables and aphorisms of the Jesus tradition undermine their value for research on the historical Jesus The author doubts whether the parables and sayings of the Jesus tradition can be employed to reconstruct the historical Jesus
