The Levant History And Archaeology In The Eastern Mediterranean:

The Levant Olivier Binst, Pierre-Louis Gatiér, E. Gubel, Philippe Marquis, 2000 about the archaeology of the Levant which here means more specifically the region east of the Mediterranean between Turkey in the north and Egypt in the west the historical and once greater Syria Page 7 Unearthing the Wilderness: Studies on the History and Archaeology of the Negev and Edom in the Iron Age Juan Manuel Tebes, 2014 This volume comprises all but one of the papers presented at the workshop Unearthing the Wilderness Workshop on the History and Archaeology of the Negev and Edom in the Iron Age held at the W F Albright Institute of Archaeological Research Jerusalem on 12 December 2010 It is supplemented with studies from scholars who were unable to attend the conference but were eager to contribute to this book Preface The Church of the East Christoph Baumer, 2016-09-05 The so called Nestorian Church officially known as the Apostolic Assyrian Church of the East with its See in Baghdad was one of the most significant Christian communities to develop east of the Roman Empire In its heyday the Church had 8 million adherents and stretched from the Mediterranean to China Christoph Baumer is one of the very few Westerners to have visited many of the most important Assyrian sites and has written the only comprehensive history of the Church which now fights for survival in its country of origin Iraq and is almost forgotten in the West He narrates its rich and colorful trajectory from its apostolic beginnings to the present day and discusses the Church's theology christology and uniquely vigorous spirituality He analyzes the Church's turbulent relationship with other Christian churches and its dialogue with neighboring world religions such as Zoroastrianism Manichaeism Islam Buddhism and Taoism Richly illustrated with maps and over 150 full color photographs the book will be essential reading for those interested in a fascinating but neglected Christian community which has profoundly shaped the history of civilization in both East and West

A Short History of the Phoenicians Mark Woolmer, 2021-09-09 Offering new insights based on recent archaeological discoveries in their heartland of modern day Lebanon Mark Woolmer presents a fresh appraisal of this fascinating yet elusive Semitic people Discussing material culture language and alphabet religion including sacred prostitution of women and boys to the goddess Astarte funerary custom and trade and expansion into the Punic west he explores Phoenicia in all its paradoxical complexity Viewed in antiquity as sage scribes and intrepid mariners who pushed back the boundaries of the known world and as skilled engineers who built monumental harbour cities like Tyre and Sidon the Phoenicians were also considered especially by their rivals the Romans to be profiteers cruelly trading in human lives The author shows them above all to have been masters of the sea this was a civilization that circumnavigated Africa two thousand years before Vasco da Gama did it in 1498 The Phoenicians present a tantalizing face to the ancient historian Latin sources suggest they once had an extensive literature of history law philosophy and religion but all now is lost In this revised and updated edition Woolmer takes stock of recent historiographical developments in the field bringing the present edition up to speed with contemporary understanding A Companion to the Environmental History of Byzantium, 2024-03-04 How did humans and the

Ancient Western Asia Beyond the Paradigm of Collapse and Regeneration (1200-900 BCE) Maria Grazia Masetti-Rouault, Ilaria Calini, Robert Hawley, Lorenzo d'Alfonso, 2024-05-07 New results and interpretations challenging the notion of a uniform macroregional collapse throughout the Late Bronze Age Eastern Mediterranean Ancient Western Asia Beyond the Paradigm of Collapse and Regeneration 1200 900 BCE presents select essays originating in a two year research collaboration between New York University and Paris Sciences et Lettres The contributions here offer new results and interpretations of the processes and outcomes of the transition from the Late Bronze Age to the Iron Age in three broad regions Anatolia northern Mesopotamia and the Levant Together these challenge the notion of a uniform macroregional collapse throughout the Eastern Mediterranean followed by the regeneration of political powers Current research on newly discovered or reinterpreted textual and material evidence from Western Asia instead suggests that this transition was characterized by a diversity of local responses emerging from diverse environmental settings and culture complexes as evident in the case studies collected here in history archaeology and art history The editors avoid particularism by adopting a regional organization with the aim of identifying and tracing similar processes and outcomes emerging locally across the three regions Ultimately this volume reimagines the Late Bronze Iron Age transition as the emergence of a set of recursive processes and outcomes nested firmly in the local cultural interactions of western Asia before the beginning of the new unifying era of Assyrian imperialism
