community Loot Sharon Waxman, 2008-10-28 Indhold Pharaohs and emperors Tomb robbers of Fifth Avenue Lord Elgin's legacy Rough justice Archaeology, Artifacts and Antiquities of the Ancient Near East Oscar White Muscarella, 2013-06-15 Archaeology Artifacts and Antiquities of the Ancient Near East follows the evolution of the author's scholarly work and interests and is divided into several categories of interrelated fields The first part deals primarily with excavations and associated artifacts issues in ancient geography and the identification of ancient sites in northwest Iran the author's research involving the culture and chronology of the Phrygian capital at Gordion in Anatolia and the chronology and Iranian cultural relations of a site in the Emirate of Sharjah Part two is wide ranging and includes chapters on Aegean and ancient Near Eastern cultural and political interconnections the role of fibulae in revealing cultural and chronological matters and the gender determined usage of parasols and their recognition in excavated contexts There are also articles specifically concerned with Plunder Culture and the forgery of both objects and their alleged proveniences At 1 088 pages this volume provides a wonderful sample chosen by Muscarella himself of forty papers spanning the author's career and many interests This volume is so rich that it contains something for everyone D T Potts NYU Bibliotheca Orientalis lxxIII n 3 4 mei augustus 2016 Saxa judaica loquuntur, Lessons from Early Jewish Inscriptions Pieter W. van der Horst, 2014-10-23 In Saxa judaica loquuntur Jewish stones speak out Pieter W van der Horst informs the reader about the recent boom in the study of ancient Jewish epigraphy and he demonstrates what kinds of new information this development yields After sketching the status quaestionis this book exemplifies the relevance of early Jewish inscriptions by means of a study of Judaism in Asia Minor on the basis of epigraphic material It also highlights several areas of research for which this material provides us with insights that the Jewish literary sources do not grant us Furthermore the book contains a selection of some 50 inscriptions in both their original languages and English translation with explanatory notes The End of Biblical Studies Hector Avalos, 2010-08-05 In this radical critique of his own academic specialty biblical scholar Hector Avalos urges his colleagues to concentrate on educating the broader society to recognize the irrelevance and even violent effects of the Bible in modern life The Shaping of Persian Art Yuka Kadoi, Iván Szántó, 2014-07-18 While the impact of the Persian style is undeniably reflected in most aspects of the art and architecture of Islamic Central Asia this Perso Central Asian connection was chiefly formed and articulated by the Euro American movement of collecting and interpreting the art and material culture of the Persian Islamic world in modern times This had an enormous impact on the formation of scholarship and connoisseurship in Persian art for instance with an attempt to define the characteristics of how the Islamic art of Iran and Central Asia should be viewed and displayed at museums and how these subjects should be researched in academia This important historical fact which has attracted scholarly interest only in recent years should be treated as a serious subject of research accepting that the abstract image of Persian art was not a pure creation of Persian civilization but that it can be the manifestation of particular historical times and charismatic individuals Attention should therefore be given to various factors that resulted in the shaping of Persian imagery across the globe not only in terms of national ideologies but also within the context of several protagonists such as scholars collectors and dealers as well as of the objects themselves This volume brings together Islamic Iranian and Central Asian art experts from diverse disciplinary and professional backgrounds and intends to offer a novel insight into what is collectively known as Persian art Museums and the Ancient Middle East Geoff Emberling, Lucas P. Petit, 2018-09-06 Museums and the Ancient Middle East is the first book to focus on contemporary exhibit practice in museums that present the ancient Middle East Bringing together the latest thinking from a diverse and international group of leading curators the book presents the views of those working in one particular community of practice the art archaeology and history of the ancient Middle East Drawing upon a remarkable group of case studies from many of the world's leading museums including the British Museum the Louvre the Metropolitan Museum of Art the Ashmolean Museum and the Vorderasiatisches Museum in Berlin this volume describes the tangible actions curators have taken to present a previously unseen side of the Middle East region and its history Highlighting overlaps and distinctions between the practices of national art and university museums around the globe the contributors to the volume are also able to offer a unique insight into the types of challenges and opportunities facing the twenty first century curator Museums and the Ancient Middle East should be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of museums and heritage archaeology the ancient Near East Middle Eastern studies and ancient history The unique insights provided by curators active in the field ensure that the book should also be of great interest to museum practitioners around the globe The Elamite World Javier Álvarez-Mon, Gian Pietro Basello, Yasmina Wicks, 2018-01-29 Amongst the civilizations to participate in the dynamic processes of contact and interchange that gave rise to complex societies in the ancient Near East Elam has remained one of the most obscure at times languishing in the background of scholarly inquiry In recent years however an increasing body of academic publications have acknowledged its relevance and suggested that its legacy was more considerable and long lasting than previously estimated The Elamite World assembles a group of 40 international scholars to contribute their expertise to the production of a solid lavishly illustrated English language treatment of Elamite civilization It covers topics such as its physical setting historical development languages and people material culture art science religion and society as well as the legacy of Elam in the Persian empire and its presence in the modern world This comprehensive and ambitious survey seeks for Elam hardly a household name a noteworthy place in our shared cultural heritage It will be both a valuable introductory text for a general audience and a definitive reference source for students and academics Critical Approaches to Ancient Near Eastern Art Brian A. Brown, Marian H. Feldman, 2013-12-13 This volume assembles more than 30 articles focusing on the visual material and environmental arts of the Ancient Near East Specific case studies range temporally from the fourth millennium up to the Hellenistic period and geographically from Iran to the eastern Mediterranean Contributions apply innovative theoretical and methodological approaches to archaeological evidence and critically examine the historiography of the discipline itself Not intended to be comprehensive the volume instead captures a cross section of the field of Ancient Near Eastern art history as it stands in the second decade of the twenty first century The volume will be of value to scholars working in the Ancient Near East as well as others interested in newer art historical and anthropological approaches to visual culture Shaky Ground Elizabeth Marlowe,2013-10-10 The recent crisis in the world of antiquities collecting has prompted scholars and the general public to pay more attention than ever before to the archaeological findspots and collecting histories of ancient artworks This new scrutiny is applied to works currently on the market as well as to those acquired since and despite the 1970 UNESCO Convention which aimed to prevent the trafficking in cultural property When it comes to famous works that have been in major museums for many generations however the matter of their origins is rarely considered Canonical pieces like the Barberini Togatus or the Fonseca bust of a Flavian lady appear in many scholarly studies and virtually every textbook on Roman art But we have no more certainty about these works archaeological contexts than we do about those that surface on the market today This book argues that the current legal and ethical debates over looting ownership and cultural property have distracted us from the epistemological problems inherent in all ostensibly ancient artworks lacking a known findspot problems that should be of great concern to those who seek to understand the past through its material remains Herodotus: Volume 1 Rosaria Vignolo Munson,2013-08-29 A collection of scholarship on Herodotus Vol 1 discusses his historical method sources narrative art literary antecedents intellectual background and political ideology Vol 2 focuses on his description of foreign lands and peoples and the theoretical issues it raises including the extent to which the ethnographic portrayals conform to a conventional Greek construct of barbarian otherness or derive from direct contact with native sources

Ernst Herzfeld and the Development of Near Eastern Studies 1900-1950 Ann Gunter,Stefan Hauser,2005-02-01 Studies in the history and archaeology of the ancient and Islamic Near East greatly expanded and matured during the first half of the 20th century Ernst Herzfeld 1879 1948 a pioneer in the archaeology art history and Persian language studies significantly shaped this development He excavated such key sites as Samarra Paikuli and Persepolis and helped to define prehistoric and Islamic art He became the world's first professor for Near Eastern archaeology in Berlin adviser to Persia's government and a member of the Institute for Advanced Study Princeton Scholars from a variety of disciplines reassess Herzfeld's wide ranging contributions and situate them in their intellectual academic and political frameworks The book provides new insights into the historiography of archaeological and historical interpretations of the Near East especially Iran the German academic political milieu of the first half of the 20th century and the controversial figure of Ernst Herzfeld

Life-writing in the History of Archaeology Gabriel Moshenska,Clare Lewis,2023-07-10 Life writing is a vital part of the history of archaeology and a growing field of scholarship within the discipline The lives of archaeologists are entangled with histories of museums and collections developments in science and scholarship and narratives of nationalism and colonialism into the present In recent years life writing has played an important role in the surge of new research in the history of archaeology including ground breaking studies of discipline formation institutionalisation and social and intellectual networks Sources such as diaries wills film and the growing body of digital records are powerful tools for highlighting the contributions of hitherto marginalised archaeological lives including many pioneering women hired labourers and other hidden hands This book brings together critical perspectives on life writing in the history of archaeology from leading figures in the field These include studies of archive formation and use the concept of dig writing as a distinctive genre of archaeological creativity and reviews of new sources for already well known lives Several chapters reflect on the experience of life writing review the historiography of the field and assess the intellectual value and significance of life writing as a genre Together they work to problematise underlying assumptions about this genre foregrounding methodology social theory ethics and other practice focused frameworks in conscious tension with previous practices

Art and Cultural Heritage Barbara T. Hoffman, 2006 Art and Cultural Heritage is appropriately but not solely about national and international law respecting cultural heritage It is a bubbling cauldron of law mixed with ethics philosophy politics and working principles looking at how cultural heritage law policy and practice should be sculpted from the past as the present becomes the future Art and cultural heritage are two pillars on which a society builds its identity its values its sense of community and the individual The authors explore these demanding concerns untangle basic values and look critically at the conflicts and contradictions in existing art and cultural heritage law and policy in its diverse sectors The rich and provocative contributions collectively provide a reasoned discussion of the issues from a multiplicity of views to permit the reader to understand the theoretical and philosophical underpinnings of the cultural heritage debate Editing the Image Mark Cheetham, Elizabeth Legge, Catherine M. Soussloff, 2008-11-29 The editing process is a vital part of virtually every form of media. Primarily associated with texts and written language, editing is equally essential if less examined in regard to visual media. Editing the Image looks at the editing of visual media as both a series of technical exercises and as an allegory. It touches on concerns that are crucial to the history of art and visual culture as well as those media and institutions that produce and disseminate the visual arts in our society. Featuring contributors from a wide range of disciplines, Editing the Image considers editing in the context of academic journals, art historical texts, illustrated books, museum displays and exhibitions. It is an inclusive analysis of visual forms commonly associated with the process of editing: photography, film and video as well as some that are not intrinsically linked to editing: painting, sculpture and architecture. In addition to wide-ranging academic considerations, this collection includes discussions of moving picture media and studio art by practitioners, giving the study a practical focus. For anyone who has considered the implications of the editorial process, this work will be of significant interest.
