The Life And Death Of Peter Wade:

The Life and Death of Peter Wade Dudley Barker, Lionel Black, 1973 Life and Death Peter Wade Black, Dudley Barker, 1973 The Life and Death of Peter Wade Dudley Barker, Lionel Black, 1974 The Life and Death of Peter Sellers Roger Lewis, 2025-07-17 A fascinating tragic and instructive story vividly told Sunday Telegraph Roger Lewis in his no holds barred biography exposes a Peter Sellers the world little knows Recognized as the greatest British comic since Charlie Chaplin Sellers was the grand master of fifty five films from Dr Strangelove to Being There and the Pink Panther hits But shadowing his phenomenal career was a history of increasingly bizarre behaviour involving psychotic violence compulsive promiscuity drug abuse and humiliating self destructive obsessions with people including Princess Margaret Sophia Loren Liza Minnelli and each of his four wives Ann Hayes Britt Eklund Miranda Quarry and Lynne Frederick He alternately showered his wives and children with gifts and then threatened to kill them Sellers fluidity as an actor made for a terrifying madness that grew like a slow metastasizing cancer throughout his adult life The Life and Death of Peter Sellers concludes with his premature death at the age of 54 sick at heart and alone in those sunless hotel rooms so recoiled from intimacy that no one really knew him anymore PRAISE FOR THE LIFE AND DEATH OF PETER SELLERS It is a mad book but then the subject is a madman I love Lewis s passion I recommend it Sunday Times Reinventing the genre as well as reassessing its subject with formidable intelligence this book is a remarkable achievement Literary Review Telling the Untold Story Steve Weinberg, 1992 Author of his own controversial unauthorized biography of Armand Hammer Steve Weinberg here shows how a new generation of biographers is revealing the lives of powerful individuals in dramatic and important new ways Trained as investigative journalists today s writers have entered a domain once dominated by university scholars Unlike their more academic predecessors who often wrote nonjudgmental books on the public lives of long dead individuals these new biographers are willing to tackle such powerful living subjects as Nancy Reagan Henry Kissinger Hugh Hefner Pete Rose and Fidel Castro Few of these books are adoring Without cooperation from their subjects and sometimes under threat of lawsuit these writers are probing into private lives and enabling readers to make up their own minds about public figures Tracing the evolution of the craft of biography up to the present day Weinberg draws on interviews with some of today s best biographers as well as his own experience with the Hammer biography to highlight the careers of some of the writers whose work exploded the boundaries of traditional biography When Robert Caro became the first journalist to win a Pulitzer Prize for Biography for his book on Robert Moses it marked the dawn of a new approach to the craft Weinberg also explores the techniques of Philadelphia Inquirer journalists Donald Barlett and James Steele whose jointly authored biographies of Howard Hughes and Nelson Rockefeller mark another sign of how far the genre of biography has come The book is enriched by samples of investigative biography at its best including a scathingly honest profile of the reigning queen of unauthorized biography Kitty Kelley and Calvin Trillin s fascinating New Yorker profile of the Miami Herald s inimitable

police reporter Edna Buchanan The living of a life is more difficult than the chronicling of it but the chronicling is certainly no simple task writes Weinberg Telling somebody else s life fully fairly and compellingly is probably an impossible task But it is important to keep pushing the limits of the possible For writers reviewers publishers and general readers Telling the Untold Story is a fascinating look at how a new kind of biographer has forever changed our expectations of the genre and continues to push biography to exciting new limits Twentieth Century Crime & Mystery Writers NA NA,2015-12-25

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1976 In the Darkness of the Night Clifford C. Moody,2020-09-14 Wade Montgomery never thought this would be a weekend he would never forget He was going to ask Jennifer to be his wife instead he got a weekend filled with facing off with creatures from another realm military cover ups and facing off with a spirit controlled nemesis for the hand of his bride to be All while trying to discover the real mystery of the disappearance of his father by the same military cover up It would take all of his will and faith in God to survive In The Darkness of the Night Anthropology, Art and Cultural Production Maruska Svasek,2007-02-20 This book provides an introduction to anthropological perspectives on art Svasek defines art as a social process We study not only the artefacts themselves and the values attributed to them but also the process of production and its wider context Providing a critical overview of various anthropological theories of art Svasek offers a new perspective which centres on the analysis of commoditisation aestheticisation and object agency She explores the process of collecting and exhibiting art works and how this relates to art s production distribution and consumption in an increasingly global market The book outlines the significance of art and aesthetics in everyday life and examines the shifting boundaries between art and other categories such as kitsch souvenirs propaganda and pornography Finally Svasek argues for an anthropological perspective that links the production and consumption of artefacts to political religious and other cultural processes Ideal as a teaching text this book gives a detailed overview of themes that are central to the fields of art history art sociology and cultural studies Writers Directory NA NA,2016-03-05 The Fine Art of Murder Edward Gorman,1995-10 Fair Trade and a Global Commodity Peter Luetchford,2007-11-20 Fair trade is widely regarded as a universal good This fascinating anthropological study takes a closer look at a coffee growing community and cooperatives in Costa Rica and subjects the fair trade movement to critical scrutiny As with conventional coffee Western demand for organic fair trade produce is largely met by more affluent individuals with larger landholdings As a result it is caught up in the conflicts of interest and resentments that are part of the coffee industry as a whole Ultimately fair trade fails to escape divisions that characterise other forms of production and consumption All growers are united in their criticism of the high margins accumulated by regional and transnational processors and exporters Sustainability just rewards and social cohesion have formed part of the world view of these agricultural communities for decades This book shows how there is much common ground between the worlds of the commodity grower and the priorities of the fair trade movement if not necessarily always in the ways we might suppose Rethinking Life and Death Peter Singer,1996-04-15 In a reassessment of the meaning of life and death a noted philosopher offers a new definition for life that contrasts a world dependent on biological maintenance with one controlled by state of the art medical technology The Armchair Detective ,1987 Humans and Other Animals Prof. Samantha Hurn,2012-04-20

What are our attitudes towards other animals and how does this affect our humanity This work of anthrozoology explores the myriad and evolving ways in which humans and animals interact the divergent cultural constructions of humanity and animality found around the world and individual experiences of other animals This book looks at case studies covering blood sports such as hunting fishing and bull fighting pet keeping and petishism eco tourism and wildlife conservation working animals and animals as food It addresses the idea of animal exploitation raised by the animal rights movements as well as the anthropological implications of changing attitudes towards animal personhood and the rise of a posthumanist philosophy in the social sciences more generally Border Watch Alexandra Hall,2012-07-06 Questions over immigration and asylum face almost all Western countries Should only economically useful immigrants be allowed What should be done with unwanted or illegal immigrants In this bold intervention Alexandra Hall shows that immigration detention centres offer a window onto society s broader attitudes towards immigrants Despite periodic media scandals remarkably little has been written about the everyday workings of this system or about the people responsible for setting immigration policy Detention particularly is a hidden side of border politics despite its growing international importance as a tool of control and security This book also looks at the social life and the relationships between officers and immigrants to explore broad social trends as well as resistance within the system and provides rare insights into the treatment of the other

A History of Anthropology Thomas Hylland Eriksen,Finn Sivert Nielsen,2013-05-10 This is a thoroughly updated and revised edition of a popular classic of modern anthropology The authors provide summaries of Enlightenment Romantic and Victorian anthropology from the cultural theories of Morgan and Taylor to the often neglected contributions of German scholars The ambiguous relationship between anthropology and national cultures is also considered The book provides an unparalleled account of theoretical developments in anthropology from the 1920s to the present including functionalism structuralism hermeneutics neo Marxism and discourse analysis There are brief biographies of major anthropologists and coverage of key debates including totemism kinship and globalisation This essential text on anthropology is highly engaging authoritative and suitable for students at all levels Community, Cosmopolitanism and the Problem of Human

Commonality Vered Amit,Nigel Rapport,2012-06-14 Do notions of community remain central to our sense of who we are or can we see beyond community closures to a human whole This volume explores the nature of contemporary sociality It focuses on the ethical organisational and emotional claims and opportunities sought or fashioned for mobilising and evading social collectivities in a world of mobile subjects Vered Amit and Nigel Rapport present an examination of the tensions and interactions between everyday forms of fluid fellowship culturally normative claims to identity and opportunities for realising

a universal humanity The Capability of Places Sandra Wallman, 2011-08-04 How can we assess the ability of a place to respond to challenges like migration recession and disease Places which seem similar can respond very differently and with varying degrees of success to external threats and to the interventions designed to manage them In this magisterial work drawing on decades of research Sandra Wallman explores how we can measure and compare the resilience of communities looking in detail at neighbourhoods in London Rome and Zambia Each locale is examined as a system which is more or less open or closed open systems tend to be more resilient when faced with external challenges As well as being a fascinating study in its own right the book includes detailed accounts of the research methods used as well as a user friendly typology for classifying local systems making it an invaluable tool for students researchers and policy makers The Hollywood Novel Anthony Slide, 1995 This reference book details over 1 200 English language works from a variety of genres such as historical novels romances mysteries and thrillers Arranged by author the entries include bibliographic information on the books a brief synopsis that sets the author s work in context and a critical examination
