The Light of the Mind Ronald H. Nash,1989      The Essential Augustine Saint Augustine (Bishop of Hippo.),Vernon Joseph Bourke,1974-01-01 The Essential Augustine contains selected passages from about forty key works by St Augustine of Hippo nearly half of which were specifically translated for this collection The table of contents provides precise references to the source treatises A bibliography and glossary of key terms are included along with appendixes containing a list of all Augustine s known writings alphabetized by standard English titles      The Mirror of Language (Revised Edition) Marcia L. Colish,1983-01-01 Early Christianity faced the problem of the human word versus Christ the Word Could language accurately describe spiritual reality The Mirror of Language brilliantly traces the development of one prominent theory of signs from Augustine through Anselm of Canterbury Thomas Aquinas and Dante Their shared epistemology validated human language as an authentic but limited index of preexistent reality both material and spiritual This sign theory could thereby account for the ways men receive know and transmit religious knowledge always mediated through faith Marcia L Colish demonstrates how the three theologians used different branches of the medieval trivium to express a common sign theory Augustine stressed rhetoric Anselm shifted to grammar including grammatical proofs of God s existence and Thomas Aquinas stressed dialectic Dante the one poet included in this study used the Augustinian sign theory to develop a Christian poetics that culminates in the Divine Comedy The author points out not only the commonality but also the sharp contrasts between these writers and shows the relation between their sign theories and the intellectual ferment of the times When first published in 1968 The Mirror of Language was recognized as a pathfinding study This completely revised edition incorporates the scholarship of the intervening years and reflects the refinements of the author s thought Greater prominence is given to the role of Stoicism and sharper attention is paid to some of the thinkers and movements surrounding the major thinkers treated Concerns of semiotics philosophy and literary criticism are elucidated further The original thesis still controversial is now even wider ranging and more salient to current intellectual debate      Six Modern Authors and Problems of Belief Patrick Grant,1979-06-17      Reason, Authority, and the Healing of Desire in the Writings of Augustine Mark J. Boone,2020-01-14 In Reason Authority and the Healing of Desire in the Writings of Augustine Mark Boone explains Augustine s theology of desire in a cross section of his writings He shows that Augustine s writings consistently teach a Platonically informed yet distinctively Christian theology of desire      The Gift of Seeing J. Alexander Rutherford,2021-09-24 Throughout the history of the Church Christian theology has been waged on the battlefield of ontology Ontology touches on nearly every aspect of intellectual engagement and so our conclusions in this area are far reaching Ontology is usually considered the study of being or reality Yet even this definition presupposes a non Christian view of reality Rather ontology investigates the connection between our thoughts and reality between what we believe and truth and between language and the things to which it refers The Bible has much to say on these topics retrieving a Biblical perspective on these matters is essential if we are going to rightly understand theology the Bible and the world we live in We will see that only the Bible can offer a coherent vision of reality and a way of appropriately understanding God history and the world around us      Access to God in Augustine's Confessions Carl G. Vaught,2012-02-01 This is the final volume in Carl G Vaught s groundbreaking trilogy reappraising Augustine s Confessions a cornerstone of Western philosophy and one of the most influential works in the Christian tradition Vaught offers a new interpretation of the philosopher as less Neoplatonic and more distinctively Christian than most interpreters have thought In this book he focuses on the most philosophical section of the Confessions and on how it relates to the previous more autobiographical sections A companion to the previous two volumes which dealt with Books I IX this book can be read either in sequence with or independently of the others Books X XIII of the Confessions begin after Augustine has become Bishop of Hippo and they are separated by more than ten years from the episodes recorded in the previous nine books of the text This establishes the narrative in the present and speaks to the believing sons of men Augustine explores how memory time and creation make the journey toward God and the encounter with God possible Vaught analyzes these conditions in order to unlock Augustine s solutions to familiar philosophical and theological problems He also tackles the frequently discussed problem of the alleged disconnection between the earlier books and the last four books by showing how Augustine binds experience and reflection together      The Spiritual Language of Art: Medieval Christian Themes in Writings on Art of the Italian Renaissance Steven F.H. Stowell,2014-11-13 Analyzing the literature on art from the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries The Spiritual Language of Art explores the complex relationship between visual art and spiritual experiences during the Italian Renaissance Though scholarly research on these writings has predominantly focused on the influence of classical literature this study reveals that Renaissance authors consistently discussed art using terms concepts and metaphors derived from spiritual literature By examining these texts in the light of medieval sources greater insight is gained on the spiritual nature of the artist s process and the reception of art Offering a close re readings of many important writers Alberti Leonardo Vasari etc this study deepens our understanding of attitudes toward art and spirituality in the Italian Renaissance      The Unified Operations of the Human Soul Jeffrey C. Waddington,2015-07-24 This book endeavors to examine and critically assess the theological anthropology of Jonathan Edwards with a view to considering how this anthropology coheres with his apologetic methodology Specifically the question has been raised whether Edwards doctrine of man is consistent with the picture painted of Jonathan Edwards by John Gerstner that he was the epitome of the classical apologist It is argued that Edwards practiced an eclectic apologetic sans apologetic self awareness In other words Edwards was a child of his training and time      Christian Philosophy Craig G. Bartholomew,Michael W. Goheen,2013-10-15 This third book in a series of successful introductory textbooks by Craig Bartholomew and Michael Goheen builds on their previous projects The Drama of Scripture and Living at the Crossroads to offer a comprehensive narrative of philosophical thought from a distinctly Christian perspective After exploring the interaction among Scripture worldview theology and philosophy the authors tell the story of philosophy from ancient Greece through postmodern times positioning the philosophers in their historical contexts and providing Christian critique along the way The authors emphasize the Reformed philosophical tradition without neglecting other historical trajectories and show how philosophical thought relates to contemporary life

Science Wars Steven L. Goldman, 2021-11-25 In this book Steven L. Goldman breaks down the barriers between these two groups to explain what scientists know how they know it why it is reliable and why the general public doesn't always know how to make sense of this Taking readers from Plato's perpetual battle to modern disagreements about vaccines Goldman's Science Wars provides a thought provoking analysis of the reliability of science

The Gall of Prophets Mary Boxley Bullington, 1993

Understanding Watchman Nee Dongsheng John Wu, 2012-04-01 This book situates Nee's view within the rich heritage of the Protestant Catholic and Eastern Orthodox spiritual traditions and thus renders Nee's thought more intelligible to Christians of both evangelical and more liberal persuasions In this book Dongsheng John Wu examines Watchman Nee's thought on the spiritual life focusing on the relationship between spiritual formation and spiritual knowledge Different ways of acquiring spiritual understanding are explored including the respective roles of divine illumination intellectual studies and life circumstances Understanding Watchman Nee begins by synthesizing strategic aspects of Nee's teachings as well as formative events and sources in the development of Nee's own spirituality and theology It then utilizes the critical work of contemporary theologian Mark McIntosh to bring Nee's voice into dialogue with some important figures in the history of Christian spirituality Such interactions reveal that Nee's crucial theological convictions exhibit strong parallels with related themes found in the church's spiritual or mystical treasures

Philosophy, Who Needs It? Jason D. Crowder, 2016-03-02 Too often skeptics charge Christians with having a blind faith Unfortunately believers have added fuel to the charges of skeptics by speaking of their faith illogically But the Christian faith is not a blind faith In fact biblical faith is never a blind irrational faith Christianity rests firmly on the stone that was rejected by the builders which has become the cornerstone Jesus Christ Acts 4:11 Living biblically requires thinking biblically just as to think biblically entails to live biblically as Winfried Corduan notes in the Foreword As followers of Christ believers cannot separate biblical thinking and biblical living These two behaviors are eternally connected not only in the person of Jesus Christ but they stem from the eternal being of God the Father and his eternal truth Christ mandates that his followers love God with their entire being heart soul mind and strength Mark 12:30 How are believers to go about living out this biblical mandate Christian faith is a warranted belief This is why it is so essential that Christians recognize the value and importance of philosophy and its proper place in Christendom and in the Christian's walk
