The Other Side of the Fence Cynthia Hudgins, 2023-01-31 Two people have written this book The first person was the child who was still hurting who hadn't reconciled the past with the present who didn't want to be what she was The other is the adult who has faced her demon and laid it to rest for once and for all This story moves along like a yo yo up and down forward and back It is a mishmash of what was begone with all these other voices added which I the obedient eager to please whatever I am frustrated artist dutiful daughter obsessive compulsive housekeeper possible lunatic mother grandmother great grandmother or tired old lady am slowly working my way through the pages the painful for me and probably boring for you story of my life I suppose there will be those who will fault me for writing this book Blacks will think What has she got to cry about She could have passed if she'd wanted to Whites will think whatever I got I deserved for being deceitful for hiding my ancestry behind a white facade as if

I could help it I can relate to both points of view If this book should be published some people my age who read it may say That s not the way I remember those times or That wasn t the way I was taught in my school This could very well be I ve written about my time and place These are my memories of the way things were in Coronado California from 1924 when I was three years old until I moved away in 1940 when I was nineteen and of things that I experienced after that The original draft of this story ended with my suicide The Other Side of the Tee Ed Kujolic,1994-11-01 MotorBoating ,1978-07
