The People Of Aloam:

The People of Aloam Dale Erickson,2002-05-01 The People's Tycoon Steven Watts,2009-03-04 How a Michigan farm boy became the richest man in America is a classic almost mythic tale but never before has Henry Ford's outsized genius been brought to life so vividly as it is in this engaging and superbly researched biography The real Henry Ford was a tangle of contradictions He set off the consumer revolution by producing a car affordable to the masses all the while lamenting the moral toll exacted by consumerism He believed in giving his workers a living wage though he was entirely opposed to union labor He had a warm and loving relationship with his wife but sired a son with another woman A rabid anti Semite he nonetheless embraced African American workers in the era of Jim Crow Uncovering the man behind the myth situating his achievements and their attendant controversies firmly within the context of early twentieth century America Watts has given us a comprehensive illuminating and fascinating biography of one of America's first mass culture celebrities despot In 1953 Iranian monarch Mohammad Reza Shah Pahlavi emerged victorious from a power struggle with his prime minister Mohammad Mosaddeq thanks to a coup masterminded by Britain and the United States Mosaddeq believed the Shah should reign not rule but the Shah was determined that no one would make him a mere symbol In this meticulous political history Ali Rahnema details Iran's slow transition from constitutional to despotic monarchy He examines the tug of war between the Shah his political opposition a nation in search of greater liberty and successive US administrations with their changing priorities He shows how the Shah gradually assumed control over the legislature the judiciary the executive and the media and clamped down on his opponents activities By 1968 the Shah's turn to despotism was complete The consequences would be far reaching Introduction.
