The Law Of Compensation And Eternal Goodness:

The Christian Science Journal, 1917 Death and the Life Beyond James Reed, Henry Clinton Hay, 1906 The Seventy's Course in Theology, Second Year B. H. Roberts, 2022-06-03 It is a series of forty four lessons on the The Outline History of the Dispensations of the Gospel This sacred literature shares some ideas that are essential for unity It focuses on the idea that there is but One Gospel that will exist forever with numerous generations of men The Pacific Unitarian, 1909 The Rotarian, 1944-05 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Good Health, 1899 The Forever All: A Philosophical and Spiritual Guide, 2nd Ed Guyus Seralius, 2014-05-21 In my pantheistic view the entire universe is the Supreme Being an infinite purposeful system of positive and negative forces which has always existed and always will and each of us is that eternal being of light and darkness In this book I discuss the importance of balance and how it is the heart of the All and the secret of life I discuss the needed balance between the atheists and the theists between the capitalists and the socialists between the Democrats and the Republicans and between the government and the governed I also discuss how neither science nor religion independent of the other can adequately explain the world and how ultimate truth will only arise when the scientific thinkers join forces with the spiritual thinkers I created this book as a philosophical and spiritual guide for all those seeking truth Inside you will find my views on pantheism metaphysics science technology politics and religion along with samples of my artwork 30 illustrations included

Know Thyself Richard Lynch, 1954 The Architecture of Law Brian M. McCall, 2018-05-30 This book argues that classical natural law jurisprudence provides a superior answer to the questions What is law and How should law be made rather than those provided by legal positivism and new natural law theories What is law How should law be made Using St Thomas Aquinas s analogy of God as an architect Brian McCall argues that classical natural law jurisprudence provides an answer to these questions far superior to those provided by legal positivism or the new natural law theories The Architecture of Law explores the metaphor of law as an architectural building project with eternal law as the foundation natural law as the frame divine law as the guidance provided by the architect and human law as the provider of the defining details and ornamentation Classical jurisprudence is presented as a synthesis of the work of the greatest minds of antiquity and the medieval period including Cicero Aristotle Gratian Augustine and Aquinas the significant texts of each receive detailed exposition in these pages Along with McCall s development of the architectural image he raises a question that becomes a running theme throughout the book To what extent does one need to know God to accept and understand natural law jurisprudence given its foundational premise that all authority comes from God The separation of the study of law from knowledge of theology and morality McCall argues only results in the impoverishment of our understanding of law He concludes that they must be reunited in order for jurisprudence to flourish This book will appeal to academics students in law philosophy and theology and to all those interested in legal or political philosophy The Medium and Daybreak ,1876 often there is more in it than the profane is prepared to understand or the learned mystic to explain It is an invisible secret but very potential influence that every name carries about with it and leaveth wherever it goeth Carlyle thought that there is much nay almost all in names Could I unfold the influence of names which are the most important of all clothings I were a second great Trismegistus he writes The name or title of a magazine started with a definite object is therefore all important for it is indeed the invisible seedgrain which will either grow to be an all over shadowing tree on the fruits of which must depend the nature of the results brought about by the said object or the tree will wither and die These considerations show that the name of the present magazine rather equivocal to orthodox Christian ears is due to no careless selection but arose in consequence of much thinking over its fitness and was adopted as the best symbol to express that object and the results in view Now the first and most important if not the sole object of the magazine is expressed in the line from the 1st Epistle to the Corinthians on its title page It is to bring light to the hidden things of darkness iv 5 to show in their true aspect and their original real meaning things and names men and their doings and customs it is finally to fight prejudice hypocrisy and shams in every nation in every class of Society as in every department of life The task is a laborious one but it is neither impracticable nor useless if even as an experiment Home and Country ,1893 Religious Bodies: 1936: pt. 1.
