Exploring Mormon Thought Blake T. Ostler, 2006-03-01 In volume 2 of the series Exploring Mormon Thought The Problems of Theism and the Love of God Blake Ostler explores issues related to soteriology or the theory of salvation He argues that the commitment that God loves us and respects our dignity as persons entails that God must leave us free to choose whether to have a saving relationship with him He explores the logic of love and argues that the LDS doctrine of a war in heaven embodies the commitment that God leaves us free to choose whether to enter into relationship with God He explores the nature of inter personal prayer and the contributions of LDS beliefs to a robust prayer dialogue He offers a view consistent with LDS commitments that makes sense out of asking God to assist others to alter the natural environment and to grow in relationship with God He then turns to the concept of grace and argues that the traditional views lead to insurmountable problems He argues that though God does not owe any obligation to us to give us grace God does so out of love However because divinity arises from loving relationships he argues that God could not fail to give sufficient grace to all persons and remain a loving God

Understanding Mormonism Eugene Seach, 2012-09-25 This book was written with the hope that it might be of use in explaining Mormonism and the restored Gospel of Christ to the members of other persuasions and in a way that will be both understandable and technically correct At the same time it should help Mormons to better comprehend their own doctrines and to refute the arguments of would be detractors that their beliefs are unbiblical and non Christian

Excavating Mormon Pasts Newell C. Bringhurst, Lavina Fielding Anderson, 2004-08-31 Winner of the Special Book Award from the John Whitmer Historical Association Excavating Mormon Pasts assembles sixteen knowledgeable scholars from both LDS and the Community of Christ traditions who have long participated skillfully in this dialogue It presents their insightful and sometimes incisive surveys of where the New Mormon History has come from and which fields remain unexplored It is both a vital reference work and a stimulating picture of the New Mormon History in the early twenty first century     Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997     Mormonism 2010 Handbook on Mormonism ,

Philanthropy and Voluntary Action in the First World War Peter Grant,2014-02-18 This book challenges scholarship which presents charity and voluntary activity during World War I as marking a downturn from the high point of the late Victorian period Charitable donations rose to an all time peak and the scope and nature of charitable work shifted decisively Far more working class activists especially women became involved although there were significant differences between the suburban south and industrial north of England and Scotland The book also corrects the idea that charitably minded civilians efforts alienated the men at the front in contrast to the degree of negativity that surrounds much previous work on voluntary action in this period Far from there being an unbridgeable gap in understanding or empathy between soldiers and civilians the links were strong and charitable contributions were enormously important in maintaining troop morale This bond significantly contributed to the development and maintenance of social capital in Britain which in turn strongly supported the war effort This work draws on previously unused primary sources notably those regarding the developing role of the UK s Director General of Voluntary Organizations and the regulatory legislation of the period     The Publishers Weekly ,1908

Metaphysics of Mystery Marijn de Jong,2020-02-06 How can we theologically reflect on universality in a world that increasingly focuses on particularities and differences Marijn de Jong argues that the question of universality calls for a reconceptualized form of metaphysical theology which he finds in the work of Karl Rahner and Edward Schillebeeckx Casting a new light on these theologians de Jong demonstrates that their methods contain a dialectical interrelation of hermeneutics and metaphysics an interrelation which seemingly has been lost in more recent hermeneutical theology Rahner and Schillebeeckx carefully balance particularity and universality without falling prey to relativist or absolutist ways of reasoning By analyzing fundamental themes such as experience and interpretation nature and grace faith and reason and intelligibility and mystery de Jong reveals the modest theological metaphysics that lies at the heart of their methods This critical retrieval demonstrates the enduring relevance of these thinkers and opens up new avenues of thought for theologians that do not want to shy away from the difficult question of the universality of God     The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record

,1929     Illustrated Catalogue and Classified Book List of the Northwestern Library Association ... Northwestern Library Association,1899     Twentieth-Century Theologians Philip Kennedy,2010-01-30 One needs to be a lunatic to become a Christian the 19th century Danish philosopher Soren Kierkegaard once observed Had he lived in the 20th century he might have discerned even more of an obstacle to faith For during the last century the human condition changed more rapidly than during any previous era taking that condition far away from the historical circumstances in which Christianity was born In his new book Philip Kennedy explores the ways Christian theologians of the 20th century tried to live a productive religious life in a world overtaken by massive upheaval and innovation The book is distinctive in a number of respects First it differs from other surveys of theology by adopting a biographical method examining the lives of its subjects in historical context Second it is more progressive than its competitors covering many theologians other than white male professors especially women who have worked outside the academy or on the margins of the churches Third it is international focusing on theologians in all the continents of the world rather than just Europe or North America Fourth it makes no assumptions that its readers are religious or that theology is uniquely credible There is a need for a sensitive new textbook reassessing the subject in the light of modern concerns and scepticism about religion This book meets that need Family History and Historians in Australia and New Zealand Malcolm Allbrook, Sophie Scott-Brown, 2021-06-27 Since the turn of the twenty first century family history is the place where two great oceans of research are meeting family historians outside the academy with traditionally trained often university employed historians This collection is both a testament to dialogue and an analysis of the dynamics of recent family history that derives from the confluence of professional historians with family historians their common causes and conversations It brings together leading and emerging Australian and New Zealand scholars to consider the relationship between family history and the discipline of history and the potential of family history to extend the scope of historical inquiry even to revitalise the discipline In Anglo Western culture the roots of the discipline s professionalisation lay in efforts to reconstruct history as objective knowledge to extend its subject matter and to enlarge the scale of historical enquiry Family history almost by definition is often inescapably personal and localised How then have historians responded to this resurgence of interest in the personal and the local and how has it influenced the thought and practice of historical enquiry The Reform Advocate , 1914 Sermons by Jonathan Edwards on the Matthean Parables, Volume I Kenneth P. Minkema, Adriaan C. Neele, Bryan McCarthy, 2012-05-09 This first volume of Sermons by Jonathan Edwards on the Matthean Parables contains a previously unpublished series by Edwards on Jesus Parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins as found in Matthew 25 Edwards preached these sermons in 1737 38 in the lull between the Connecticut Valley Revival of 1734 35 and the Great Awakening which started in Massachusetts in late 1740 Not only does this series have significance for its place in the Protestant evangelical awakening of the eighteenth century but it is also an important index of Edwards developing thought on the nature of sainthood and related topics of theoretical and practical Christianity particularly in the context of widespread spiritual renewal To assist the reader preceding the series are two introductions that describe Edwards preaching style and method and provide an historical context for the series itself Prepared from the original manuscripts by the staff of the Jonathan Edwards Center at Yale University this series represents a significant addition to the available Edwards corpus that will be of interest to scholars religious leaders and general readers
