The Legendary Endowment Project Paperback:

The Legendary Endowment Project Gary Griffin, 1995-08 Books in Print, 1991 Arthur, Origins, Identities and the Legendary History of Britain Jean Blacker, 2024-03-18 Geoffrey of Monmouth's immensely popular Latin prose Historia regum Britanniae c 1138 followed by French verse translations Wace's Roman de Brut 1155 and anonymous versions including the Royal Brut the Munich Harley and Egerton Bruts 12th 14th c initiated Arthurian narratives of many genres throughout the ages alongside Welsh English and other traditions Arthur Origins Identities and the Legendary History of Britain addresses how Arthurian histories incorporating the British foundation myth responded to images of individual or collective identity and how those narratives contributed to those identities What cultural political or psychic needs did these Arthurian narratives meet and what might have been the origins of those needs And how did each text contribute to a larger picture of Arthur to the construction of a myth that still remains so compelling today Arthurian Figures of History and Legend Frank D. Reno, 2014-01-10 This biographical dictionary separates myth from history by differentiating and defining figures associated with Arthuriana Entries cover more than 400 legendary and historic figures and include extensive cross referencing maps illustrations and photographs An appendix provides a comprehensive character index of Sir Thomas Malory's Le Morte D Arthur The Texas Legacy Project David A. Todd, David Weisman, 2010-09-15 A city dweller's vacant lot A rancher's back forty A hiker's favorite park When the places that we love are threatened we can be stirred to action In Texas people of all stripes and backgrounds have fought hard to safeguard the places they hold dear To find and preserve these stories of courage and perseverance the Conservation History Association of Texas launched the Texas Legacy Project in 1998 traveling thousands of miles to conduct hundreds of interviews with people from all over the state These remarkable oral histories now reside in an incomparable online and physical archive of video audio text and other materials that record these extraordinary efforts by veteran conservationists and ordinary citizens to preserve the natural legacy of Texas This book holds stories from more than sixty people who represent a variety of causes communities and walks of life from a West Texas grocer fighting nuclear waste to an Austin lobbyist pressing for green energy Each speaks from the heart in personal reminiscences and first hand accounts of battles fought for land and wildlife for public health and for a voice in media and politics These impassioned accounts remind us of the importance of protecting and conserving the natural resources in our own backyards wherever they may be Records of the archive are available at the Briscoe Center for American History at the University of Texas at Austin Five dollars of the cost of this book goes to environmentally friendly materials and processes

The United States Newspaper Program Ruth C Carter, 2015-07-16 Originally published in 1986 Here is a valuable and engaging overview of the cataloging aspects of the United States Newspaper Program the most extensive and comprehensive original cataloging enterprise undertaken in America The importance of newspapers for purposes of historical research is obvious The USNP was a cooperative national effort among the states and the federal government to locate catalog and preserve on microfilm newspapers published in the United States from the eighteenth century to the present Running until 2007 the USNP was an essential program of preserving journalism history as well as records of historical events This book talks through the cataloging process in Pennsylvania as an example Master Register of Bicentennial Projects, February 1976 American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1976 New Harmony Then and Now Donald E. Pitzer,2011-11-03 In words and images this book surveys the history and contemporary everyday life in New Harmony Indiana Made from Bone Jonathan D. Hill,2010-10-01 Made from Bone is the first work to provide a complete set of English translations of narratives about the mythic past and its transformations from the indigenous Arawak speaking people of South America Among the Arawak speaking Waku nai of southernmost Venezuela storytellers refer to these narratives as words from the primordial times and they are set in an unfinished space time before there were any clear distinctions between humans and animals men and women day and night old and young and powerful and powerless The central character throughout these primordial times and the ensuing developments that open up the world of distinct peoples species and places is a trickster creator Made from Bone who survives a prolonged series of life threatening attacks and ultimately defeats all his adversaries Carefully recorded and transcribed by Jonathan D Hill these narratives offer scholars of South America and other areas the only ethnographically generated cosmogony of contemporary or ancient native peoples of South America Hill includes translations of key mythic narratives along with interpretive and ethnographic discussion that expands on the myths surrounding this fascinating and enigmatic character with broad appeal throughout various folkloric traditions Orange Coast Magazine ,1983-11 Orange Coast Magazine is the oldest continuously published lifestyle magazine in the region bringing together Orange County s most affluent coastal communities through smart fun and timely editorial content as well as compelling photographs and design Each issue features an award winning blend of celebrity and newsmaker profiles service journalism and authoritative articles on dining fashion home design and travel As Orange County s only paid subscription lifestyle magazine with circulation figures guaranteed by the Audit Bureau of Circulation Orange Coast is the definitive guidebook into the county s luxe lifestyle American Bicentennial Photography and Film Project, 1975 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare. Subcommittee on Employment, Poverty, and Migratory Labor,1976 The Crisis ,1979-11 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens English Dramatick Opera, 1661-1706 Andrew R. Walkling,2019-03-19 English Dramatick Opera 1661 1706 is the first comprehensive examination of the distinctively English form known as dramatick opera which appeared on the

London stage in the mid 1670s and lasted until its displacement by Italian through composed opera in the first decade of the eighteenth century Andrew Walkling argues that while the musical elements of this form are crucial to its definition and history the origins of the genre lie principally in a tradition of spectacular stagecraft that first manifested itself in England in the mid 1660s as part of a hitherto unidentified dramatic sub genre to which Walkling gives the name spectacle tragedy Armed with this new understanding the book explores a number of historical and interpretive issues including the physical and rhetorical configurations of performative spectacle the administrative maneuverings of the two patent theatre companies the construction and deployment of the technologically advanced Dorset Garden Theatre in 1670 71 the critical response to generic technical and ideological developments in Restoration drama and the shifting balance between machine spectacle and song and dance entertainment throughout the later decades of the seventeenth century including in the dramatick operas of Henry Purcell This study combines the materials and methodologies of music history theatre history literary studies and bibliography to fashion an entirely new approach to the history of spectacular and musical drama on the English Restoration stage This book serves as a companion to the Routledge publication Masque and Opera in England 1656 1688 2017

Another Throat Ryan Sharp, 2024-10-29 The early twenty first century has seen a sharp rise in Black US poets employing the mask of persona often including and interrogating archival materials as they do so While some have observed this rise and noted its connection to historical figures Ryan Sharp explores it more deeply as a project based historical and poetic practice Sharp examines its sustained use of historical persona and capacity for conjuring Black speakers as a countermeasure against the archival silencing and misrepresentation of Black voices and histories a tactic he theorizes as poetic fabulation through the poetry of Elizabeth Alexander Cornelius Eady Adrian Matejka Patricia Smith Natasha Trethewey and Frank X Walker This poetic practice is not only about looking back but about critically and creatively re imagining the past to expand the possibilities for Black presents and futures Through his argument Sharp demonstrates how the unique aesthetic and rhetorical license afforded to poetry along with the interiority of persona empowers such historically minded projects to be concurrently invested in the curation of Black narratives and identities Daily Graphic

Yaw Boadu-Ayeboah, 2006-06-23 Costa Rica After Coffee Lowell Gudmundson, 2021-10-20 Costa Rica After Coffee explores the political social and economic place occupied by the coffee industry in contemporary Costa Rican history In this follow up to the 1986 classic Costa Rica Before Coffee Lowell Gudmundson delves deeply into archival sources alongside the individual histories of key coffee growing families to explore the development of the co op movement the rise of the gourmet coffee market and the societal transformations Costa Rica has undergone as a result of the coffee industry s powerful presence in the country While Costa Rican coffee farmers and co ops experienced a golden age in the 1970s and 1980s the emergence and expansion of a gourmet coffee market in the 1990s drastically reduced harvest volumes Meanwhile urbanization and improved education among the Costa Rican population threatened the continuance of family coffee farms because of the lack of both farmland and a successor generation of farmers As the last few decades have seen a rise in tourism and other industries within the country agricultural exports like coffee have ceased to occupy the same crucial space in the Costa Rican economy Gudmundson argues that the fulfillment of promises of reform from the co op era had the paradoxical effect of challenging the endurance of the coffee industry Longfellow Charles C. Calhoun,2005-06-15 In the first biography of Longfellow in almost fifty years Charles C Calhoun seeks to solve a mystery Why has one of America s most famous writers fallen into oblivion His answer to this question takes us through a life story that reads like a Victorian family saga and reveals the man who introduced Americans to the literatures of other countries while creating a gallery of American icons among them Paul Revere John and Priscilla Alden Miles Standish the Village Blacksmith Hiawatha and Evangeline

Midcentury Suspension Claire Seiler,2020-08-11 How did literary artists confront the middle of a century already defined by two global wars and newly faced with a nuclear future Midcentury Suspension argues that a sense of suspension a feeling of being between beginnings and endings recent horrors and opaque horizons shaped transatlantic literary forms and cultural expression in this singular moment Rooted in extensive archival research in literary print and public cultures of the Anglophone North Atlantic Claire Seiler s account of midcentury suspension ranges across key works of the late 1940s and early 1950s by authors such as W H Auden Samuel Beckett Elizabeth Bishop Elizabeth Bowen Ralph Ellison and Frank O Hara Seiler reveals how these writers cultivated modes of suspension that spoke to the felt texture of life at midcentury Running counter to the tendency to frame midcentury literature in the terms of modernism or of our contemporary Midcentury Suspension reorients twentieth century literary study around the epoch's fraught middle
