Dana (Classic Reprint) James Harrison Wilson, 2018-01-05 Excerpt from The Life of Charles A Dana Having met Charles A Dana first in the spring of 1863 during the Vicksburg campaign it was my good fortune to serve with him in the field during three of the most memorable campaigns of the Civil War and for a short period under him as a bureau officer of the War Department Our duties threw us much together and of all the men I ever met he was the most delightful companion Overflowing with the knowledge of art science and literature and widely acquainted as he was with the leading men and movements of the times his conversation was a constant delight and a constant instruction Blessed with a vigorous constitution and an insatiable desire for information he never once by day or night or in the presence of danger however great declined to accompany me on an expedition or an adventure Naturally this companionship begot both a confidence and an intimacy that I am glad to say lasted to the end of his career and are my warrant for becoming his biographer About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Life of Charles A. Dana, by James Harrison Wilson,... James Harrison Wilson (Gal.), 1907 The Sun Shines for All Janet E. Steele, 1993-09-01 Through a blend of social and media history the author explores America's transition from a production oriented society to a culture of consumption Because of Dana's strong aversion to the consumerism that accompanied industrial capitalism the Sun became both the conscience and the advocate for New York's working class In the words of Joseph Pulitzer Dana transformed the Sun into the most piquant entertaining and without exception the best newspaper in the world Vicksburg's Long Shadow Christopher Waldrep, 2005 During the hottest days of the summer of 1863 while the nation's attention was focused on a small town in Pennsylvania known as Gettysburg another momentous battle was being fought along the banks of the Mississippi In the longest single campaign of the war the siege of Vicksburg left 19 000 dead and wounded on both sides gave the Union Army control of the Mississippi and left the Confederacy cut in half In this highly anticipated new work Christopher Waldrep takes a fresh look at how the Vicksburg campaign was fought and remembered He begins with a gripping account of the battle deftly recounting the experiences of African American troops fighting for the Union Waldrep shows how as the scars of battle faded the memory of the war was shaped both by the Northerners who controlled the battlefield and by the legacies of race and slavery that played out over the decades that followed The Era of the Civil War--1820-1876 Louise A. Arnold-Friend, US Army Military History Institute, 1982 [The Emergence of the Korean Art Collector and the Korean Art Market Charlotte Horlyck, 2024-08-29 Articulating the shifting interests in Korean art and offering new ways of conceiving the biases that initiated and impacted its collecting this book traces the rise of the modern Korean art market from its formative period in the 1870s through to its peak and subsequent decline in the 1930s The discussion centres on the collecting of Kory celadon ceramics as they formed the focal point of commercial exchanges of Korean artefacts and explores how their acquisition and ownership formed part of the complex power relationship that played out between the Koreans Japanese Americans and Europeans Drawing on a wide range of primary sources the volume analyses collectors acquisition practices arguing that their fascination with ceramics from the Kory kingdom 918 1392 was shaped not only by the aesthetic appeal of the objects but also by biased perceptions of the Korean peninsula its history and people The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history social history cultural history Korean studies collection studies museum studies Korean history and Asian studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Biography by Americans, 1658-1936 Edward H. O'Neill, 2016-11-11 This volume is the most comprehensive bibliography of purely biographical material written by Americans It covers every possible field of life but by design excludes autobiographies diaries and journals The Era of the Civil War--1820-1876 US Army Military History Research Collection, 1974 The Ruling Elite Deanna Spingola, 2011-04-14 Lincoln's war the North's attack on the South took the life of 622 000 citizens and altered the government's structure Marx and Engels watched the war from afar and applauded his efforts The media and our government controlled schools have presented a deceptive view of every historical event and have whitewashed the most scandalous political leaders and vilified leaders who have worked in the best interests of the people Following Lincoln's precedent setting war we have been repeatedly lied into wars Currently our young men and women shed their blood in foreign lands while well connected corporations make massive profits rebuilding the infrastructure that other corporations have demolished Meanwhile our politicians possessing inside knowledge grow richer through their investments and the bribes they accept from deep pocketed lobbyists They have not listened to their constituents for decades CIA thugs in behalf of the corporations commit terrorist acts in other countries which the U S government and media blame on the so called insurgents In 2010 the Pentagon paid the following to the top five out of 100 1 Lockheed Martin Corp 16 700 588 328 2 Northrop Grumman Corp 11 145 533 497 3 Boeing Co 10 462 626 196 4 Raytheon Co 6 727 232 555 5 Science Applications International Corp 5 474 482 583 Yet throughout the country vital infrastructure is crumbling and politicians are selling taxpayer funded public properties to private interests as a profitable venture The new owners exploit the public by raising service rates while diminishing the services
