Building Ruskin's Italy Stephen Kite, 2017-07-05 Based on extensive fieldwork and research into John Ruskin's still little interpreted archival material notebooks and drawings in the Ruskin Library Lancaster University UK and elsewhere Stephen Kite offers an unprecedented account of the evolution of Ruskin's architectural thinking and observation in the context of Italy where his watching of building achieved its greatest intensity Venice naturally figures large in a work that also examines other key sites including Verona Lucca Pisa Florence Milan and Monza here the fabrics are vividly read in their contexts against the rich evidence of Ruskin's diaries his pocket book sketches architectural worksheets drawings and daguerrotypes the early form of photography and the drafts and published editions of the texts Kite presents the complex story of Ruskin's visual thinking in architecture as a narrative of deepening interpretation and representation focusing on the humbler monuments of Italy He shows how Ruskin's early picturesque naturalism was transformed by the realisation that to understand the built realities confronting him in Italy demanded a closer engagement with the substance of the stones themselves reflecting Ruskin's sense of his task as a near archaeological gleaning and gathering of remains hidden in many a grass grown court and silent pathway and lightless canal

Towards Creative Imagination in Victorian Literature Aleksandra Piasecka, 2014-06-19 This book explores the concept of the creative imagination in Mid and Late Victorian England In these times of transition as the age of the Industrial Revolution was regarded aesthetic considerations became involved in the broader debate on the shape of the modern world Thus the approach to the artistic imagination was closely connected with the shifting beliefs concerning the essence of beauty and the role of religion not to mention attitudes towards nature and society These aspects defined the aims furthered

by painters and poets alike and set the direction for their artistic endeavours Five people have been chosen as representatives of their time in the discussion about artistic imagination John Ruskin William Morris Dante Gabriel Rossetti Walter Pater and Arthur Symonds Accordingly the material analysed to recreate the Victorian understanding of the artistic faculties is of different kinds and embraces not only critical essays Ruskin Pater Symonds but also belles lettres short stories Morris and poems Rossetti Symonds In this manner two positions complement each other namely the views of the theoreticians and those of practitioners The former attempted to discern and extract the quintessence of the artistic powers on the basis of their observations and reflections whereas the latter relied on their personal experiences in this respect

The Lancet ,1912 British Books in Print ,1924 Life and Letters of Sir Charles Hallé, Being an Autobiography '(1819-1860)' W. Correspond. A. Diaries Charles Hallé,1896 Works John Ruskin,1909 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1911 Newman University Church, Dublin Niamh Bhalla,2024-07-01 In 1854 John Henry Newman one of the foremost intellectual figures of the nineteenth century was officially installed as the rector of the first Catholic university in Ireland University Church constructed in 1855 6 was Newman s first objective when he agreed to the rectorship and it can be considered as a tangible manifestation of the idea behind the unprecedented Catholic university in Dublin the posing of an erudite Catholic alternative to post Enlightenment secularism and Protestant hegemony through a style based analogy to the early Church Despite physically embodying what Newman wished to achieve in and through his new university this early Christian style church which drew upon Roman and Byzantine basilicas has received little attention This book charts for the first time the significant place that the building occupies within the history of Victorian revivalist architecture Niamh Bhalla explores the meaningful connection between the church s context and the ambiguity of its early Christian style In the intersection of these two things a significant monument was created The study of University Church therefore provides an effective lens to understand more comprehensively the architectural revivalism that dominated the nineteenth century particularly the first stirrings of basilican and Byzantine revivalist architectures in the British Isles Praise for Newman University Church Dublin Newman University Church Dublin is an important contribution to the burgeoning study of historic architecture of the nineteenth century In studying the larger contexts of the church Niamh Bhalla illumines the aspirations of Cardinal Newman for the university that he directed and Catholicism in Ireland and the United Kingdom Robert S Nelson Yale University A riveting analysis of the University Church and its intellectual background Niamh Bhalla steers us effortlessly through the many strands of architectural and religious thought that lie behind Newman s church while revealing its seminal place in the history of the Byzantine revival Roger Stalley Trinity College Dublin The Bookseller ,1911 The Publishers Weekly ,1911 The Politics of Making Mark Swenarton,Igea Troiani,Helena Webster,2013-04-15 A unique collection of contemporary writings this book explores the politics involved in the making and experiencing of architecture and cities from a cross cultural and global perspective Taking a broad view of the word politics

the essays address a range of questions including What is the relationship between politics and the making of space What role has theory played in reinforcing or resisting political power What are the political difficulties associated with working relationships Do the products of our making construct our identity or liberate us A timely volume focusing on an interdisciplinary debate on the politics of making this is valuable reading for all students professionals and academics interested or working in architectural theory
