The Light Accepted 125 Years Of Wellington College:

The Light Accepted Arthur Wynyard Beasley, 1992 A Life of J.C. Beaglehole T. H. Beaglehole, 2006 But this scholarly achievement was in many ways matched by the part he played in the intellectual and cultural life of New Zealand in his time. A prolific writer and critic he became committed to making New Zealand a more lively and civilised place to live and through his work at Victoria University his teaching his involvement with the New Zealand Council for Civil Liberties and the New Zealand Historic Places Trust among many such organisations his influence was far reaching. Drawing on J C Beaglehole's own writing especially his sparkling unpublished letters the author has woven together all the aspects of his father's life into an immensely readable narrative. The two chapters on Beaglehole's work on James Cook create a picture of the historical scholar at work and give the book an international significance. BOOK JACKET William H. Pickering Douglas James Mudgway, 2007 From humble beginnings in a remote country town in New Zealand William Pickering became an icon for America's response to the Sputnik challenge alongside Wernher von Braun and James Van Allen Man for All Seasons David Grant, 2012-03-01 A major biography of Ken Douglas the most powerful union leader in modern New Zealand history. Ken Douglas was raised in a hardworking tough talking union focussed Wellington family and got into union politics as a very young working man. Hard nosed pragmatic and never scared of a scrap he rose through the ranks got deeper into left wing ideology and activity with his membership of the Socialist Unity Party and ultimately became head of the FOL and the most powerful unionist in the land. Depending on your politics he was one of the most respected or the most hated men in the country. Ironical then that in later years he was appointed to some of the country's most important boards. In this powerful biography David Grant who had unprecedented access to Douglas explores the facets of this remarkable man who was there during the union movement's most powerful days and watched its emasculation. It is a unique portrait of a unique New Zealander whose life has been this country's times Who's who in New Zealand Max Lambert, 1991 Who's who in New Zealand , 1991 Appendix to the Journal of the House of the Representatives New Zealand.
