Text, translation, and commentary* Dariusz Kołodziejczyk, 2004 Mapping the Ottomans Palmira Brummett, 2015-05-19 Simple paradigms of Muslim Christian confrontation and the rise of Europe in the seventeenth century do not suffice to explain the ways in which European mapping envisioned the Turks in image and narrative Rather maps travel accounts compendia of knowledge and other texts created a picture of the Ottoman Empire through a complex layering of history ethnography and eyewitness testimony which juxtaposed current events to classical and biblical history counted space in terms of peoples routes and fortresses and used the land and seascapes of the map to assert ownership declare victory and embody imperial power s reach Enriched throughout by examples of Ottoman self mapping this book examines how Ottomans and their empire were mapped in the narrative and visual imagination of early modern Europe s Christian kingdoms The maps serve as centerpieces for discussions of early modern space time borders stages of travel information flows invocations of authority and cross cultural relations The Women Who Built the Ottoman World Muzaffer Özgüles, 2017-06-30 At the beginning of the eighteenth century the Ottoman Empire remained the grandest and most powerful of Middle Eastern empires One hitherto overlooked aspect of the Empire s remarkable cultural legacy was the role of powerful women often the head of the harem or wives or mothers of sultans These educated and discerning patrons left a great array of buildings across the Ottoman lands opulent lavish and powerful palaces and mausoleums but also essential works for ordinary citizens such as bridges and waterworks Muzaffer Özgüles here uses new primary scholarship and archaeological evidence to reveal the stories of these Imperial builders Gulnu Sultan for example the favourite of the imperial harem under Mehmed IV and mother to his sons was exceptionally pictured on horseback travelled widely across the Middle East and Balkans and commissioned architectural projects around the Empire Her buildings were personal projects designed to showcase Ottoman power and they were built from Constantinople to Mecca from modern day Ukraine to Algeria Özgüles seeks to re establish the importance of some of these buildings since lost and traces the history of those that remain The Women Who Built the Ottoman World is a valuable contribution to the architectural history of the Ottoman Empire and to the growing history of the women within it The Early Modern Ottomans Virginia H. Aksan, Daniel Goffman, 2007-07-26 Publisher description Ottoman-Polish Diplomatic Relations (15th-18th Century) Dariusz Kołodziejczyk, 2022-10-17 This volume deals with the history of the Ottoman Polish political and diplomatic relations and with the role and function of international treaties in early modern Europe especially in

The Ottoman and Mughal Empires Suraiya Faruqi, 2019-08-08 For many years Ottomanist historians have been accustomed to study the Ottoman Empire and or its constituent regions as entities insulated from the outside world except when it came to campaigns and conquests on the one hand and incorporation into the European dominated world economy on the other However now many scholars have come to accept that the Ottoman Empire was one of the not very numerous long lived world empires that have emerged in history This comparative social history compares the Ottoman to another of the great world empires that of the Mughals in the Indian subcontinent exploring source criticism diversities in the linguistic and religious fields as political problems and the fates of ordinary subjects including merchants artisans women and slaves
