The Poetry of Men's Lives Fred S. Moramarco, Al Zolynas, 2004 Alive with the wisdom artistry and emotion of more than 250 poets from nearly one hundred countries this anthology celebrates the multifaceted experience of contemporary manhood The lives into which these poems invite us reveal the influences of culture heredity personal experience values beliefs wishes desires loves and betrayals Men are notoriously reluctant to open up and discuss these things and yet when they do as in these poems they tell us about their families lovers relationships political and religious beliefs sexuality and childhoods There is much to learn here about who men are and how they see their worlds Collects close to three hundred poems in English or English translation by more than 250 poets Nearly one hundred countries are represented from Asia the Middle East Europe Africa South America Central America and the Caribbean North America and Oceania including Australia and New Zealand Organized in topical sections Boyhood and Youth Families Identities Cultural Personal Male Men and Women Myth Archetypes and Spirituality Politics War and Revolution Sex and Sexuality Poets and Poetry Artists and Art Brothers Friends Mentors and Rivals Work Sports and Games Aging Illness and Death

Edward Said Adel Iskandar, Adel Iskander, Hakem Rustom, 2010 This indispensable volume a comprehensive and wide ranging resource on Edward Said s life and work spans his broad legacy both within and beyond the academy The book brings together contributions from 31 luminaries to engage Said s provocative ideas

Bending the Bow Frank M Chipasula, 2009-08-05 From the ancient Egyptian inventors of the love lyric to contemporary poets Bending the Bow An Anthology of African Love Poetry gathers together both written and sung love poetry from Africa This anthology is a work of literary archaeology that lays bare a genre of African poetry that has been overshadowed by political poetry Frank Chipasula has assembled a historically and geographically comprehensive wealth of African love poetry that spans more than three thousand years By collecting a continent s celebrations and explorations of the nature of love he expands African literature into the sublime territory of the heart Bending the Bow traces the development of African love poetry from antiquity to modernity while establishing a cross millennial dialogue The anonymously written love poems from Pharaonic Egypt that open the anthology both predate Biblical love poetry and reveal the longevity of written love poetry in Africa The middle section is devoted to sung love poetry from all regions of the continent These great works serve as the foundation for modern poetry and testify to love poetry s omnipresence in Africa The final section showcasing forty eight modern African poets celebrates the genre s continuing vitality Among those represented are Muyaka bin Hajji and Shaaban Robert two major Swahili poets Gabriel Okara the innovative though underrated Nigerian poet L opold S dar Senghor the first president of Senegal and a founder of the Negritude Movement in francophone African literature Rashidah Ismaili from Benin Flavien Ranaivo from Madagascar and Gabeba Baderoon from South Africa Ranging from the subtly suggestive to the openly erotic this collection highlights love s endurance in a world too often riven by contention Bending the Bow bears testimony to poetry s role as conciliator while opening up a new area of study for scholars and students

Reclaiming the Human Sciences and Humanities Through African Perspectives Helen Lauer, Kofi Anyidoho, 2012 This compilation was inspired by an international symposium held on the Legon campus in

September 2003 Hosted by the CODESRIA African Humanities Institute Programme the symposium had the theme Canonical Works and Continuing Innovation in African Arts Humanities

Africa Eustace Palmer, 2021-07-01 Africa An Introduction invites you into Africa a continent rich with culture and history with diverse populations stretching from the dense tropical rain forest of the Congo basin right up to the Sahara Desert in the north and down to the Mediterranean climates of the far south Containing fifty five countries and covering over 20 percent of the world s landmass Africa is the birthplace of humanity yet the image of Africa in the West is often negative that of a continent riddled with endemic problems This accessible and engaging guide to the African continent guides the reader through the history geography and politics of Africa It ranges from the impact of slavery and imperialism through to the rise of African nationalism and the achievement of independence and up to the present moment Key topics covered include literature art technology religion the condition of African women health education and the mounting environmental concerns faced by African people As Africa moves beyond the painful legacies of slavery and imperialism this book provides an engaging uplifting and accessible introduction to a rapidly modernizing and diverse continent Suitable for high school and undergraduate students studying Africa this book will also serve as the perfect introduction for anyone looking to understand the history of Africa and the Africa of today

Maya Angelou Mary Jane Lupton, 2016-01-18 This book presents the extraordinary life and writings of Maya Angelou It examines the changing viewpoints in her six autobiographies within the context of women s and African American autobiographies with specific reference to the slave narrative and to contemporary fiction and film Maya Angelou The Iconic Self examines this iconic artist s work as an autobiographer offering an up to date assessment of Angelou s contributions to American literature and to American and international culture This is the only book to interpret Angelou s autobiographies as unique experiments in the history of black narrative It attests to Angelou s creativity in transforming the typical single volume autobiography into a six volume personal and cultural adventure that tells the truth but reads like fiction The narratives cover the years from the Great Depression 1941 to the days following the assassinations of Malcolm X 1965 and Martin Luther King 1968 emphasizing Angelou s roles as mother daughter granddaughter wife and friend This revised edition also presents information about Maya Angelou s funeral and her continuing legacy since her death in 2014 The depth and scope of the book s observations regarding Angelou s autobiographies will be of great interest to readers seeking an analysis of the interconnections among Angelou s writings as well as serve students taking courses in women s studies or black culture studies

A Spirit of Dialogue Christopher N. Okonkwo, 2008 A groundbreaking study A Spirit of Dialogue examines through extensive interdisciplinary research theory and close reading the intricate reconstructions extensions and resonances of the West African myth of spirit children the Born to Die in contemporary African American neo slave narratives Arguing that the myth called Ogba je in Igbo language and b k in Yoruba has had over thirty years of uncharted presence in African American literature Okonkwo advances a compelling case absent in extant scholarship He traces Ogba je the Born to Die s appearance in African American texts to a convergence of factors They include but are not limited to the impact of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart the 1960s emergence of the contemporary neo slave narrative the 1960s and 1970s black consciousness Black Power movement and the cultural agenda gendered politics and centripetal philosophy of the Black Arts movement's nationalist aesthetic African American identity questions of the post civil rights and the multicultural eras and the thematic shifts as well as the African diaspora orientation of African American fiction of the post nationalist aesthetic period A Spirit of Dialogue focuses on the sometimes neglected and understudied works of four canonical African American writers Octavia E Butler's Wild Seed and Mind of My Mind Tananarive Due's The Between John Edgar Wideman's The Cattle Killing and Toni Morrison's Sula and Beloved Okonkwo demonstrates persuasively how the mythic spirit child informs the content and form of these novels offering Butler Due Wideman and Morrison a non occidental code by which to engage collectively with the various issues integral to the history experience of African descended people The paradigm functions then as the nexus of a life affirmative dialogue among the six novels as well as between them and other works of African religious and literary imagination particularly Things Fall Apart and Ben Okri's The Famished Road Housing, Class and Gender in Modern British Writing, 1880-2012 Emily Cuming, 2016-08-24 The author demonstrates how depictions of domestic space tell stories of class gender social belonging and exclusion

Wole Soyinka: Literature, Activism, and African Transformation

Bola Dauda, Toyin Falola, 2021-09-09 This timely and expansive biography of Wole Soyinka the Nigerian writer Nobel laureate and social activist shows how the author's early years influence his life's work and how his writing in turn informs his political engagement Three sections spanning his life major texts and place in history connect Soyinka's legacy with global issues beyond the borders of his own country and indeed beyond the African continent Covering his encounters with the widespread rise of kleptocratic rule and international corporate corruption his reflection on the human condition of the North South divide and the consequences of postcolonialism this comprehensive biography locates Wole Soyinka as a global figure whose life and works have made him a subject of conversation in the public sphere as well as one of Africa's most successful and popular authors Looking at the different forms of Soyinka's work plays novels and memoirs among others this volume argues that Soyinka used writing to inform mobilize and sometimes incite civil action in a decades long attempt at literary social engineering

Teaching African Literature Today Ernest Emenyonu, 2011 Focuses on theoretical and pedagogical approaches to the teaching of African literature on both sides of the Atlantic and beyond The publication of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart in 1958 drew universal attention not only to contemporary African creative imagination but also established the art of the modern African novel In 1986 Wole Soyinka became the first African to win the Nobel Prize for Literature and opened the gate for other African writers By the close of the 20th century African literature had gained world wide acceptance and legitimacy in the academy and featured on the literature curriculum of schools and colleges across the globe This special issue of African Literature Today examines the diverse experiences of teachers of African literature across regional racial cultural and national boundaries It explores such issues as student responses productive pedagogical innovations the impact of modern technology case studies of online teaching teaching criticism of African literature and teaching African literature in an age of multiculturalism It is intended as an invaluable teacher's handbook and essential student companion for the effective study of African literature How Literary Worlds Are Shaped Bo

Pettersson,2016-09-12 Literary studies still lack an extensive comparative analysis of different kinds of literature including ancient and non Western How Literary Worlds Are Shaped A Comparative Poetics of Literary Imagination aims to provide such a study Literature it claims is based on individual and shared human imagination which creates literary worlds that blend the real and the fantastic mimesis and genre often modulated by different kinds of unreliability The main building blocks of literary worlds are their oral visual and written modes and three themes challenge perception and relation They are blended and inflected in different ways by combinations of narratives and figures indirection thwarted aspirations meta usages hypothetical action as well as hierarchies and blends of genres and text types Moreover literary worlds are not only constructed by humans but also shape their lives and reinforce their sense of wonder Finally ten reasons are given in order to show how this comparative view can be of use in literary studies In sum How Literary Worlds Are Shaped is the first study to present a wide ranging and detailed comparative account of the makings of literary worlds A Concise Companion to

Postwar British and Irish Poetry Nigel Alderman,C. D. Blanton,2014-02-03 This volume introduces students to the most important figures movements and trends in post war British and Irish poetry An historical overview and critical introduction to the poetry published in Britain and Ireland over the last half century Introduces students to figures including Philip Larkin Ted Hughes Seamus Heaney and Andrew Motion Takes an integrative approach emphasizing the complex negotiations between the British and Irish poetic traditions and pulling together competing tendencies and positions Written by critics from Britain Ireland and the United States Includes suggestions for further reading and a chronology detailing the most important writers volumes and events The Hebrew Bible, Nationalism and the Origins of Anti-Judaism David

Aberbach,2022-10-31 In the attempts to unify divided peoples on the basis of a shared past both historical and mythical this book illumines aspects of cultural nationalism common since the Middle Ages As an edited work the Bible includes texts mostly depicting long gone historical eras extending over several centuries Following on from Aberbach's previous work National Poetry Empires and War this book argues that works of this nature notably the Mujo Halil songs in Albania the Irish stories of Cuchulain the songs of the Nibelungen in Germany or the Finnish legends collected in The Kalevala have an ancient precedent in the Hebrew Bible to which national literatures often allude and refer a subject largely neglected in biblical studies The self critical element in the Hebrew Bible common in later national literature is examined as the basis of later anti Semitism as the Bible was not confined to Jews but was adopted in translation by many other national groups With several dozen original translations from the Hebrew this book highlights how the Bible influenced and was distorted by later national cultures Written without jargon this book is intended for the general reader but is also an important contribution to the study of the Bible nationalism and Jewish history Cameroon Ben West,2008 This guide explores the geographical diversities of Lake Chad in the north Mount Cameroon in the west and the dense rainforests of the south
