The Good Mother Myth Avital Norman Nathman, 2013-12-31

In an era of mommy blogs Pinterest and Facebook The Good Mother Myth dismantles the social media fed notion of what it means to be a good mother This collection of essays takes a realistic look at motherhood and provides a platform for real voices and raw stories each adding to the narrative of motherhood we don't tend to see in the headlines or on the news From tales of mind bending panic inducing overwhelm to a reflection on using weed instead of wine to deal with the terrible twos the honesty of the essays creates a community of mothers who refuse to feel like they're in competition with others or with the notion of the ideal mom they're just trying to find a way to make it work With a foreword by Christy Turlington Burns and a contributor list that includes Jessica Valenti Sharon Lerner Soraya Chemaly Amber Dusick and many more this remarkable collection seeks to debunk the myth and offer honest perspectives on what it means to be a mother

The Mother Wave Andrea O'Reilly, Fiona Joy Green, 2024-09-01

Matricentric feminism seeks to make motherhood the business of feminism by positioning mothers' needs and concerns as the starting point for a theory and political on and for the empowerment of women as mothers Based on the conviction that mothering is a verb it understands that becoming and being a mother is not limited to biological mothers or cisgender women but rather to anyone who does the work of mothering as a central part of their life The Mother Wave the first ever book on the topic compellingly explores how mothers need a matricentric mode of feminism organized from and for their particular identity and work as mothers and because mothers remain disempowered despite sixty years of feminism The anthology makes visible the power of matricentric feminism as it is theorized enacted and represented to realize and achieve the subversive potential of mothers and their contributions to feminist theory and activism Contributors share the impact and influence of matricentric feminism on families and children culture art literature education public policy social media and workplace practices through personal reflections scholarly essays memoir creative non-fiction poetry and photography The mother wave of matricentric feminism invites conversations with others and offers a praxis of feminism that aims to coexist overlap and intersect with others
