Georg Ebers, 2018-09-21 Reproduction of the original The Sisters by Georg Ebers The Sisters of Serapis (Historical Novel) Georg Ebers, 2021-05-07 The Sisters is a historical novel set in the 2nd century BC that features the story of the twin sisters Klea and Irene growing up within the precincts of the temple of Serapis and serving as its wards. This carefully crafted ebook is formatted for your eReader with a functional and detailed table of contents. In front of these early visitors to the temple walked a man with a long staff in his right hand, speaking to the two gentlemen who followed with the air of a professional guide who is accustomed to talk as if he were reading to his audience out of an invisible book, and whom the hearers are unwilling to interrupt with questions because they know that his knowledge scarcely extends beyond exactly what he says. Of his two remarkable looking hearers, one was wrapped in a long and splendid robe and wore a rich display of gold chains and rings, while the other wore nothing over his short chiton but a Roman toga thrown over his left shoulder.

The Roland Sisters and the Spirit Program Sunshine Rodgers, 2023-06-09 It's a sick world down there and it keeps getting darker and more wicked every year. Friends become enemies. Families are ruined. Marriages collapse. Pride, anger, bitterness, and jealousy dwell in human hearts like a perpetual disease. People now live in fear, ready to attack out of defense or pounce on the weak and are able to stomp on anyone who gets in their way. And that's how humans are taught, conditioned to think about only one thing: themselves. And it certainly takes some time to transform new arrivals into proper citizens of heaven. Before they can enjoy all that paradise has to offer, they need to learn how to appreciate relationships again, to forgive, to treat others with respect, and be healed from the past. And that's where I come in. Alfred Deston Case worker 296752 I m

June 7, 1883, Etc Marriage, 1883 Sisters Touching and Agreeing , Mirrors of Destruction Omer Bartov, 2000-08-24 Mirrors of Destruction examines the relationship between total war state organized genocide and the emergence of modern identity Here Omer Bartov demonstrates that in the twentieth century there have been intimate links between military conflict mass murder of civilian populations and the definition and categorization of groups and individuals These connections were most clearly manifested in the Holocaust as the Nazis attempted to exterminate European Jewry under cover of a brutal war and with the stated goal of creating a racially pure Aryan population and Germanic empire The Holocaust however can only be understood within the context of the century's predilection for applying massive and systematic methods of destruction to resolve conflicts over identity To provide the context for the Final Solution Bartov examines the changing relationships between Jews and non Jews in France and Germany from the outbreak of World War I to the present Rather than presenting a comprehensive history or a narrative from a single perspective Bartov views the past century through four interrelated prisms He begins with an analysis of the glorification of war and violence from its modern birth in the trenches of World War I to its horrifying culmination in the presentation of genocide by the SS as a glorious undertaking He then examines the pacifist reaction in interwar France to show how it contributed to a climate of collaboration with dictatorship and mass murder The book goes on to argue that much of the discourse on identity throughout the century has had to do with identifying and eliminating society's elusive enemies or enemies from within Bartov concludes with an investigation of modern apocalyptic visions showing how they have both encouraged mass destructions and opened a way for the reconstruction of individual and collective identities after a catastrophe Written with verve Mirrors of Destruction is rich in interpretations and theoretical tools and provides a new framework for understanding a central trait of modern history The Railway Conductor , 1908 Tales of the East: Compromising the Most Popular Romances of Oriental Origin Henry Weber, 1812
