voice combines a wry wit and vulnerability as she navigates the road between reality and fiction Dora named after Eudora Welty is an indiscriminate book junkie whose life has fallen apart her career her marriage and finally her self esteem All she has left is her love of literature and the book benders she relied on as a child Ever since her larger than life father wandered away and her book loving alcoholic mother was left with two young daughters Dora and her sister Virginia have clung to each other enduring a childhood filled with literary pilgrimages instead of summer vacations Somewhere along the way Virginia made the leap into the real world But Dora isn't quite there yet Now she's coping with a painful separation from her husband scraping the bottom of a dwindling inheritance and attracted to a seductive book seller who seems to embody all that literature has to offer intelligent ideas romance and an escape from her problems Joining Dora in her odyssey is an elderly society hair brusher a heartbroken young girl a hilarious off the wall female teamster and Dora's mother now on the wagon trying to make amends Along the way Dora faces some powerful choices Between two irresistible men Between idleness and work And most of all between the joy of well chosen words and the untidiness of real people and real life The School Executive ,1921
