Skinswaps Writings From An Unbound Europe:

Ljubljana Robin McKelvie, Jenny McKelvie, 2007 The guide covers the whole range of attractions in this historic city as well as giving full details of practicalities Slovenia Jenny McKelvie, Robin McKelvie, 2008-08-13 The Bradt guide explores off the beaten track Slovenia and includes visits to wine growing regions hiking in the Julian Alps the caves of the Karst region white water rafting and skiing Slovenia Robin McKelvie, Jenny McKelvie, 2005 A full length guide to this little known corner of Europe once part of the larger republic of Yugoslavia but now an independent country in its own right In addition to full practical information and extensive coverage of the capital Ljubljana the Bradt guide explores those areas off the beaten track including wine growing regions Border State Emil Tode, 2000-05 At home in neither his native land nor his adopted country the unnamed narrator writes from a border state that transcends national boundaries his letter this novel is a precise description of that state of a consciousness forged by poverty and oppression Driven by the need to confess the narrator recounts the circumstances surrounding his murder of his wealth lover His confession serves as a painfully sharp rendering of what it means to straddle the lines between East and West rich and poor and light and dark From publisher description The Silk, the Shears and Marina; Or, About Biography Irena Vrkljan, 1999-02-17 Winner of the Ksaver and Gajski Prize These are the first two volumes of the Croatian poet and novelist Irena Vrkljan's lyrical autobiography Although each novel illuminates the other they also stand alone as original and independent works of art In The Silk the Shears Vrkljan traces the symbolic and moral significance of her life and her vision of the fate of women in her mother's time and in her own Marina continues the intense analysis of the poetic self using the life of Marina Tsvetaeva to meditate on the processes behind biography Materada Fulvio Tomizza, Russell Scott Valentino, 2000 Francesco Koslovic even his name straddles two cultures And during the spring of 1955 in the village of Materada on the Istrian Peninsula his two worlds are coming apart Materada the first volume of Fulvio Tomizza's celebrated Istrian Trilogy depicts the Istrian exodus of the hundreds of thousands who had once thrived in a rich ethnic mixture of Italians and Slavs Complicating Koslovic's own departure is his attempt to keep the land that he and his brother have worked all their lives A picture of a disappearing way of life a tale of feud and displacement and imbued with the tastes tales and songs of his native Istria Koslovic's story is a testament to the intertwined ethnic roots of Balkan history The Fortress Meša Selimović, 1999 The Fortress is one of the most significant and fascinating novels to come out of the former Yugoslavia Ahmet Shabo returns home to eighteenth century Sarajevo from the war in Russia numbed by the death in battle or suicide of nearly his entire military unit In time he overcomes the anguish of war only to find that he has emerged a reflective and contemplative man in a society that does not value and will not tolerate the subversive implications of these qualities Conversation with Spinoza Goce Smilevski, 2006-05-12 Prizing ideas above all else radical thinker Baruch Spinoza left little behind in the way of personal facts and furnishings But what of the tug of necessity the urgings of the flesh to which this genius philosopher and grinder of lenses might have been no more immune than the next man or the next character as Baruch Spinoza becomes in this intriguing novel by the remarkable young Macedonian author Goce Smilevski. Smilevski's novel brings the thinker Spinoza and his inner life into conversation with the outer, all too real facts of his life and his day from his connection to the Jewish community of Amsterdam, his excommunication in 1656 and the emergence of his philosophical system to his troubling feelings for his fourteen-year-old Latin teacher Clara Maria van den Enden and later his disciple Johannes Casearius. From this conversation there emerges a compelling and complex portrait of the life of an idea and of a man who tries to live that idea. Bait David Albahari, 2001-06-20 David Albahari is one of the most prominent writers to emerge from the former Yugoslavia in the last twenty years. His serious understated explorations of the self have influenced many writers of his native land's younger generation. The narrator of Bait has just exiled himself to Canada after the collapse of Yugoslavia and the death of his mother. As he listens to a series of audio tapes recorded by the mother years before, the narrator ponders her life and their relationship while simultaneously trying to come to terms with a new life of his own, one of exile and the confusion of a new language and culture. Bait is an exquisitely crafted novel that exhibits the wit and raw honesty Albahari's readers have long admired. The Second Book Muharem Bazdulj, 2005 A collection of linked stories featuring historical and fictional characters.
