Sledgehammer Womens Imprisonment At The Millennium:

Analysing Women's Imprisonment Pat Carlen, Anne Worrall, 2013-01-11 In both the UK and the rest of the world there have been rapid increases in the numbers of women in prison which has led to an acceleration of interest in women's crimes and the social control of women and women's experience of both prison and the criminal justice system is very different to men's. This text is concerned to address the key issues relating to women's imprisonment contributing at the same time to an understanding of prison issues in general and the historical and contemporary politics of gender and penal justice. What are women's prisons for? What are they like? Why are lone mothers, ethnic minority and very poor women disproportionately represented in the women's prison population? Should babies be sent to prison with their mothers? These are amongst the issues with which this book is concerned. Analysing Women's Imprisonment is written as an introductory text to the subject aiming to guide students of penology carefully through the main historical and contemporary discourses on women's imprisonment. Each chapter has a clear summary, concepts to know, essay questions and recommendations for further reading and will help students prepare confidently for seminars, course examinations and project work. Vulnerable

Victimizations Phil Mulvey, Shelly L. Clevenger, 2023-09-06 This edited volume showcases research on vulnerable victimizations or more specifically on individuals and/or populations that due to their status have less power in society, are socially controlled in unique ways in the criminal legal system or are members of marginalized groups with specialized considerations surrounding their victimization experiences such as LGBTQIA individuals, immigrants, incarcerated persons, children and females. The scholarship focuses on the overall victimization experience and at the same time is also centered on the victimization experiences of historically ignored and/or marginalized groups. Victimization of vulnerable individuals in the United States is increasing at a moment when marginalized groups continue to confront legislative and policy reforms that would undermine their liberty. It is as important now as it has ever been for the field of victimology to consider those who historically may not have the loudest or any voice to spotlight and investigate their experiences. Vulnerable Victimizations will be a key resource for academics, researchers and advanced students of Victimology, Criminology and Criminal Justice. The chapters included in this book were originally published in Victims Offenders. Fifty Key Thinkers in Criminology Keith Hayward, Shadd Maruna, Jayne Mooney, 2009-12-04 Fifty Key Thinkers in Criminology brings the history of criminological thought alive through a collection of fascinating life stories. The book covers a range of historical and contemporary thinkers from around the world offering a stimulating combination of biographical fact with historical and cultural context. A rich mix of life and times detail and theoretical reflection is designed to generate further discussion on some of the key contributions that have shaped the field of criminology. Featured profiles include Cesare Beccaria, Nils Christie, Albert Cohen, Carol Smart, W. E. B. DuBois, John Braithwaite. Fifty Key Thinkers in Criminology is an accessible and informative guide that includes helpful cross referencing and suggestions for further reading. It is of value to all students of criminology and of interest to those in related disciplines such as sociology and criminal justice Spaces of Care Loraine Gelsthorpe, Perveez Mody, Brian Sloan, 2020-04-16 The collection examines the ways in which the emerging interdisciplinary study of care provokes a reassessment of the connections and disjuncture between care and governance ethics and public personal and professional identities Evolving from a project coordinated by the Cambridge Socio Legal Group Spaces of Care brings together leading international scholars to articulate what we may consider to be a useful analytic of care Lawyers anthropologists sociologists and criminologists reflect on specific aspects of conceptualising caring relations in spaces These spaces include communities of care and abandonment self care and kinship care spaces as gaps in care the meanings of marketised care and the ways in which care is constructed and constrained in different ways in venues such as homes prisons workplaces and virtual spaces Common themes include temporality historical specificity and the dynamics of care across time and place subjectivity including different experiences of care the economies of care including the commodification of care public and private manifestations of care privatised care disruptions of care which generate vulnerabilities with regard to continuities of care eligibility those deemed to be deserving and undeserving of care relationalities of care collective and individual agency in caring relations kinship care and technologies and imaginaries of care as in new notions of care forged by those in online virtual worlds such as Second Life A Criminological Imagination Pat Carlen, 2017-07-05 A Criminological Imagination contains a selection of key articles from Pat Carlen's research studies of magistrates courts and women's imprisonment together with a range of other articles on social control discourse analysis ideology punishment criminology and critique They are all informed by an assumption that while criminal justice must remain imaginary in societies based upon unequal and exploitative social relations one task of a criminological imagination might be to suggest why this is so and how things could be otherwise This is an invaluable collection for anyone interested in crime justice and injustice and the social political and academic contexts in which knowledge of them is constructed Punishment and Social Control Stanley Cohen, 2017-07-05 While crime law and punishment are subjects that have everyday meanings not very far from their academic representations social control is one of those terms that appear in the sociological discourse without any corresponding everyday usage This concept has a rather mixed lineage After September 11 has become a slogan that conveys all things to all people but carries some very specific implications on interrogation and civil liberties for the future of punishment and social control The editors hold that the already pliable boundaries between ordinary and political crime will become more unstable national and global considerations will come closer together domestic crime control policies will be more influenced by interests of national security measures to prevent and control international terrorism will cast their reach wider to financial structures and ideological support the movements of immigrants refugees and asylum seekers will be curtailed and criminalized taken for granted human rights and civil liberties will be restricted In the midst of these dramatic social changes hardly anyone will notice the academic field of punishment and social control being drawn closer to political matters Criminology is neither a pure academic discipline nor a profession that offers an applied body of knowledge to solve the crime problem Its historical lineage has left an insistent tension between the drive to understand and the drive to be relevant While the scope and orientation of this new second edition remain the same in recognition of the continued growth and diversity of interest in punishment and social control new chapters have been added and several original chapters have been updated and revised

Handbook on Prisons Yvonne Jewkes,Ben Crewe,Jamie Bennett,2016-02-23 The second edition of the Handbook on Prisons provides a completely revised and updated collection of essays on a wide range of topics concerning prisons and imprisonment Bringing together three of the leading prison scholars in the UK as editors this new volume builds on the success of the first edition and reveals the range and depth of prison scholarship around the world The Handbook contains chapters written not only by those who have established and developed prison research but also features contributions from ex prisoners prison governors and ex governors prison inspectors and others who have worked with prisoners in a wide range of professional capacities This second edition includes several completely new chapters on topics as diverse as prison design technology in prisons the high security estate therapeutic communities prisons and desistance supermax and solitary confinement plus a brand new section on international perspectives The Handbook aims to convey the reality of imprisonment and to reflect the main issues and debates surrounding prisons and prisoners while also providing novel ways of thinking about familiar penal problems and enhancing our theoretical understanding of imprisonment The Handbook on Prisons Second edition is a key text for students taking courses in prisons penology criminal justice criminology and related subjects and is also an essential reference for academics and practitioners working in the prison service or in related agencies who need up to date knowledge of thinking on prisons and imprisonment

Criminology Eamonn Carrabine,2009 This fully revised textbook ground in original research is a clear and insightful introduction to the key topics studied in undergraduate criminology courses Accessible and user friendly it is essential reading for all criminology students

Women's Imprisonment and the Case for Abolition Linda Moore,Phil Scraton,Azrini Wahidin,2017-11-20 In 2007 the Corston Report recommended a far reaching radical women centred approach to women s imprisonment in England and Wales It suggested a fundamental re thinking about how services to support women in conflict with the law are delivered in custody and in the community recommending the development and implementation of a decarceration strategy This argued for appropriate treatment programmes in the community reserving prison for only those women who commit serious and violent offences Ten years on what progress has been made What is the relationship between Corston s vision and a more radical abolitionist agenda Drawing on a range of international scholarship this book contributes to the critical discourse on the penal system human rights and social injustice revealing the consequences of imprisonment on the lives of women and their families A decade on from Corston s publication it critically reviews her report revealing the slow progress in meeting the reforms it proposed Identifying the significant barriers to change it questions the failure to reverse the unrelenting growth of the women's prison population or to transform state responses to women's offending. Reflecting the global expansion of women's imprisonment particularly marked in advanced democratic societies, the chapters include comparative contributions from jurisdictions where Corston's recommendations have relevance. It concludes with a critical appraisal of reformism and the case for penal abolition. Essential for applied and theory courses on prisons, punishment and penology, social justice and the criminology of human rights, gender and crime and feminist criminology.

Gender, Crime and Victimisation Pamela Davies, 2010-11-15

Gender Crime and Victimisation is a thoughtful and thought provoking book exploring gender patterns in both offending and victimisation. It offers a thorough examination of how these patterns in society are variously established and represented, researched, explained and responded to by policy makers and criminal justice agencies. Bringing together key theory, research and policy developments, the book combines perspectives on the study of criminology with those of victimology and gender studies, drawing particularly on the influence of feminism. It analyses processes of criminalisation and social control and their structural biases. It explores fears, anxieties and worries about crime as well as particular vulnerabilities to crime. The book employs a range of learning devices to support the student reader, including:

- o Chapter overviews
- o Case studies and examples
- o Study questions
- o Further reading at the end of each chapter
- o A comprehensive glossary

Comprehensive and robust Gender Crime and Victimisation provides a stimulating and topical overview that will appeal to undergraduates.

Sledgehammer Womens Imprisonment At The Millennium: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Sledgehammer Womens Imprisonment At The Millennium : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Sledgehammer Womens Imprisonment At The Millennium : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
