Sociology In Central And Eastern Europe Transformation At The Dawn Of A New Millenium:

Sociology and Post-Socialist Transformations in Eastern Europe Borut Roncevic, Tamara Besednjak

Valič, 2024-11-28 The volume offers a unique and comprehensive reflection on the role of sociology and sociologists in the transformation of post socialist Eastern European societies It provides detailed insight on the status of sociology in Eastern Europe its institutional development specifics of national sociological traditions the controversial and ambiguous relationship with the political system and importantly state of the art knowledge about the role of sociology as a discipline and sociologists as academics educators public intellectuals experts politicians or civil society activists in three decades of transformation The volume follows a cultural political economy approach and provides a series of national case studies that analyse the role of sociology in re imagining Eastern European societies This topical volume is of interest to a wide interdisciplinary readership in the social sciences especially students and researchers working on Eastern Europe and on post socialist societies

Sociology in Central and Eastern Europe Mike Keen, Janusz Mucha, 2003-05-30 In this unique collection more than 20 sociologists assembled from across Central and Eastern Europe chronicle the impact political transformation has had upon sociology during the last decade of the 20th century Contributors investigate the general patterns this process has taken across the region as well as the differences from one country to the next Also examined is the extent to which sociology has contributed to or participated in the transformation i e helped the societies of Central and Eastern Europe identify understand and respond to the challenges and opportunities offered by it Of particular interest is the extensive bibliography of sociological research in Central and Eastern Europe carried out during this period of transition

Internationalisation of Social Sciences in Central and Eastern Europe Ilona Pálné Kovács, Dagmar

Kutsar, 2012-08-06 Internationalisation of Social Sciences in Central and Eastern Europe explores the way in which social sciences in comparison with other sciences in Europe have been divided by the political orders of West and East As part of the field of science policies in Europe this book contributes to the creation of a new understanding of the European academic landscape of social sciences with particular focus on CEE countries In its investigation of the emergence of social sciences in Central and Eastern Europe following the collapse of the totalitarian systems this book discusses how the internationalisation of the social sciences and the convergence between Western and Eastern social scientific life is hindered by factors including funding academic contacts and curriculum development The issues addressed within the text serve to prompt the realisation that coherence in European social sciences can be reached only if new academic traditions and cultures are developed and science policies harmonised This book is essential reading for undergraduate and graduate students of European Integration CEE or Transitional Studies and any courses related to science policies It is also relevant to science administrators and policy makers at national and European level

The ISA Handbook of Diverse Sociological Traditions Sujata Patel, 2010 This latest edition to the ISA handbook series actively engages with the many traditions of sociology in the world Twenty nine chapters from prominent international contributors discuss challenge and re conceptualize the global discipline of sociology evaluating the diversities within and between sociological traditions of many regions and nation states They assess all aspects of the discipline ideas and theories scholars and scholarship practices and traditions ruptures and continuities through an international perspective Its goal is to become a text for debating the contours of international sociology A History of Macedonian Sociology Naum Trajanovski, 2024-05-06 This book is the first English language monograph about the institutional development of sociology in North Macedonia It maps and discusses the contexts goals and merits of the pioneering attempts for sociological research in the interwar period early post war educational and publishing politics the institutionalization of sociology in socialist Macedonia in the course of the 1960s its cross national exchanges as well as its major trajectories and debates up until the present days Against the backgrounds of the political and intellectual histories of Yugoslav and post Yugoslav Macedonia it argues that the development of the sociological activities themes and arguments is entwined with the Macedonian nation and state building Autobiographies of Transformation Mike Keen, Janusz Mucha, 2013-05-24 In this ground breaking work Mucha and Keen complete their trilogy on the history of sociology in Central and Eastern Europe in the post Communist era with the autobiographies of ten sociological witnesses Sociology in Hungary Victor Karády, Péter Tibor Nagy, 2019-07-29 This book is the first English language study of the social intellectual and institutional history of sociology and the social sciences in Hungary Starting with the emergence of the discipline in the early 20th century Karády and Nagy chart its development throughout various transformations of Hungarian society from the liberal Dual Monarchy through the respective Christian and Stalinist regimes and culminating in the modern scholarly field today Drawing on large scale prosopographical materials the authors use empirically based socio historical analysis to measure the impact of successive and radical regime changes on the country s intellectual life This will be an important and original point of reference for scholars and students of historical sociology and Eastern European intellectual history Sociology in Poland Marta Bucholc, 2016-07-12 This ground breaking book provides a compelling account of the social sciences in post war Central and Eastern Europe The first English language monograph to analyse the history of sociology in Poland up to the present day it maps transformations in the discipline against political and social change Related in an accessible and engaging manner it offers a comprehensive examination of sociology as a part of Polish society and culture after 1945 It can also be used as an introduction to the subject and a guide to further reading Part of the influential Sociology Transformed series Sociology in Poland will interest social and political scientists historians and policymakers Censorship in Czech and Hungarian Academic Publishing, 1969-89 Libora Oates-Indruchová, 2020-05-14 How did writers convey ideas under the politically repressive conditions of state socialism Did the perennial strategies to outwit the censors foster creativity or did unintentional self censorship lead to the detriment of thought Drawing on oral history and primary source material from the Editorial Board of the Czechoslovak Academy of Sciences and state science policy documents Libora Oates

Indruchov explores to what extent scholarly publishing in state socialist Czechoslovakia and Hungary was affected by censorship and how writers responded to intellectual unfreedom. Divided into four main parts looking at the institutional context of censorship, the full trajectory of a manuscript from idea to publication, the author and their relationship to the text and language, this book provides a fascinating insight into the ambivalent beneficial and detrimental effects of censorship on scholarly work from the Prague Spring of 1968 to the Velvet Revolution of 1989. Censorship in Czech and Hungarian Academic Publishing 1969-89 also brings the historical censorship of state socialism into the present, reflecting on the cultural significance of scholarly publishing in the light of current debates on the neoliberal academy and the future of the humanities.

Sociology in the Czech Republic Marek Skovajsa, Jan Balon, 2017-08-10. This book offers the first comprehensive overview in English of the history of sociology in what is today the Czech Republic. Divided into six chapters, it traces the institutional development of the discipline from the late 19th century until the present, with an emphasis on the periods most favorable for sociology's institutionalization: the interwar years, the 1960s, and the post-1989 era. The narrative places the institutions, persons, and ideas that have been central to the discipline into the broader social and political context. Marek Skovajsa and Jan Balon show that sociology in the Czech Republic has been wedded to the dominant political projects of each successive historical period: nation and state building until after WWII, the communist experiment in 1948-1989, liberal democratic reconstruction after 1989, and internationalization after 2000. This work will appeal to social scientists and to a general readership interested in Czech culture and society.
