Management Education in Canada Kristin S. Williams, Albert J Mills, Heidi Weigand, 2025-05-23 Management Education in Canada Historical Reflections offers a fresh and critical look at the evolution of management education in Canada Nearly 25 years after the seminal work Capitalizing Knowledge by Barbara Austin this edited collection revisits and expands upon the debates that shaped the field while introducing new perspectives and overlooked histories Featuring ten scholarly essays from leading academics this volume explores a range of critical and historiographic approaches to management education highlighting the ways in which history is written privileged and at times neglected Through a variety of themes including the gendered experiences of female Ph D graduates Africentric and Indigenous leadership approaches and the role of globalization in shaping management curricula the book prompts readers to reflect on the past present and future of management education in Canada Chapters cover topics such as the influence of the Administrative Sciences Association of Canada the underrepresentation of French language business education and the critical interrogation of management textbooks Together these chapters offer a rich and comprehensive analysis of the cultural institutional and intellectual forces shaping the discipline This volume will engage scholars educators and students in business schools faculties of management and those interested in the broader history of higher education as well as anyone seeking to understand the historical development of management education in Canada It is an essential contribution to the ongoing conversation about what management education has been and what it could become Canadian Society in the Twenty-First Century, Fourth Edition Trevor W. Harrison, John W. Friesen, 2021-03-03 Confederation may have established Canada s nationhood in 1867 but the relationships framing Canada s modern existence go back much further Employing a unique socio historical perspective Canadian Society in the Twenty First Century examines three formative relationships that have shaped the country Canada and Quebec Canada and the United States and Canada and Indigenous nations Now in its fourth edition this engaging text offers students an overview of Canadian society through a series of connections rather than a collection of statistics Trevor W Harrison and John W Friesen weave together complex aspects of the nation s economic political and socio cultural development They guide readers to use this interdisciplinary framework to consider some of the tough questions that Canada is likely to face in adjusting to demands and challenges in the next few decades Reflecting the most current scholarship in the field this revised edition features new discussions on issues such as the current crisis of neo liberal globalization Canada s petroleum industry global warming the Wet suwet en dispute in 2020 and the COVID 19 pandemic Exploring the unique character of Canada today this text is a vibrant resource for sociology courses on Canadian society as well as courses in Canadian studies and Canadian history
