Soft Voice Of The Serpent Other Storie:

Animals and Women Carol J. Adams, Josephine Donovan, 1995-11-14 Animals and Women is a collection of pioneering essays that explores the theoretical connections between feminism and animal defense. Offering a feminist perspective on the status of animals, this unique volume argues persuasively that both the social construction and oppressions of women are inextricably connected to the ways in which we comprehend and abuse other species. Furthermore, it demonstrates that such a focus does not distract from the struggle for women's rights but rather contributes to it. This wide-ranging multidisciplinary anthology presents original material from scholars in a variety of fields as well as a rare early article by Virginia Woolf. Exploring the leading edge of the species/gender boundary, it addresses such issues as the relationship between abortion rights and animal rights, the connection between woman-battering and animal abuse, and the speciesist basis for much sexist language. Also considered are the ways in which animals have been regarded by science literature and the environmentalist movement. A striking meditation on women and wolves is presented, as is an examination of sexual harassment and the taxonomy of hunters and hunting. Finally, this compelling collection suggests that the subordination and degradation of women is a prototype for other forms of abuse and that to deny this connection is to participate in the continued mistreatment of animals and women.

The Soft Voice of the Serpent and Other Stories Nadine Gordimer, 1964

Conversations with Nadine Gordimer Nadine Gordimer, 1990 Talks with the prize-winning author of Beethoven was One Sixteenth Black and Other Stories. July's People, The Pickup, and many other books.

Jump and Other Stories Nadine Gordimer, 2012-03-15 In this collection of sixteen stories, Gordimer brings unforgettable characters from every corner of society to life: a child refugee fleeing civil war in Mozambique, a black activist's deserted wife longing for better times, a rich safari party indulging themselves while lionesses circle their lodge. Jump is a vivid, disturbing, and rewarding portrait of life in South Africa under apartheid.

Shadows Harold Scheub, 2009 selected not only African oral and written stories but also tales from around the world. Preface p. 11.

Betrays of the Body Politic Andrew V. Ettin, 1993 He examines the connection between the personal and the political, showing that Gordimer has always seen the two as inseparable and that her understanding of this relationship has developed profoundly during her career. Though the book is not biographical, it explores more fully than any preceding publication Gordimer's attitudes toward feminism and her connections with her Jewish background, thereby expanding our comprehension of her social context. Ettin includes a succinct overview of her career and devotes each of six chapters to a major theme, tracing and analyzing the themes as they recur in selected stories, novels, essays, and interview reflections, and as they have emerged in relation to circumstances of her own life. The author sees Gordimer's work as a tool, not of propaganda but of understanding, a means of sharpening our perceptions of one another's lives.

Short Story Index Dorothy Elizabeth Cook, Estelle A. Fidell, 1953 An index to 9,575 stories in 549 collections.

Human Rights and Nadine Gordimer's Fiction Mateti Prabhakar, Kanugula Ram Mohan, 2024-07-02 The book explores the complex problem of apartheid racial segregation in South African society and the struggle against the colour bar represented in the fictional world of Nadine Gordimer the Nobel Laureate of the South African Letters It shows how Gordimer a crusader for the human rights of black people has launched a lifetime battle against the apartheid regime s unjust and heartless censorship of creative writing and freedom of speech in South Africa by virtue of fictionalizing her human rights activism thereby teaching humanity It demonstrates how black people are denied their basic human rights from the cradle to the grave by the white chauvinistic apartheid regime This volume is a space for scholars writers and activists to debate issues related to race class and human rights

The Short Story Charles May, 2013-10-14 The short story is one of the most difficult types of prose to write and one of the most pleasurable to read From Boccaccio s Decameron to The Collected Stories of Reynolds Price Charles May gives us an understanding of the history and structure of this demanding form of fiction Beginning with a general history of the genre he moves on to focus on the nineteenth century when the modern short story began to come into focus From there he moves on to later nineteenth century realism and early twentieth century formalism and finally to the modern renaissance of the form that shows no signs of abating A chronology of significant events works and figures from the genre s history notes and references and an extensive bibliographic essay with recommended reading round out the volume
