Et surtout tais-toi Amélie Debaye, 2011 Stars and Stardom in French Cinema Ginette Vincendeau, 2000-11-01 French cinema is second only to Hollywood in the number of its movie stars who have emerged to achieve international fame France is in fact arguably the only country other than the United States to have an international star system Yet these glamorous and charismatic stars differ from their US counterparts in that they maintain more freedom to control their own images and often straddle both mainstream and auteur cinema Ginette Vincendeau a leading authority on French cinema analyzes the phenomenon of French film stardom and provides brilliant in-depth studies of the major popular stars of the French cinema Max Linder Jean Gabin Brigitte Bardot Jeanne Moreau Louis de Funès Jean Paul Belmondo Alain Delon Catherine Deneuve Gérard Philipe and Juliette Binoche This volume analyzes these stars' images and performance styles in the context of the French film industry but also in relation to national culture and society In the country where Brigitte Bardot and Catherine Deneuve have modeled for Marianne the effigy of the Republic and left wing politicians have held up Jean Gabin as a role model Vincendeau examines the unusual relationship between French film stars and national identity Ginette Vincendeau is professor of film studies at the University of Warwick She is the author and editor of a number of books on cinema

Counterpractice Rakhee Balaram, 2022-03-08 Counterpractice highlights a generation of women who used art to define a culture of experimental thought and practice during the period of the French women's movement or Mouvement de Libération des Femmes 1970-81 It considers women's art in relation to some of the most exciting thinkers to have emerged from the French literature and philosophy of the 1970s Hélène Cixous Luce Irigaray and Julia Kristeva forcing a timely reconsideration of the full spectrum of revolutionary practices by women in the years following the events of May 68 Lavishly illustrated with over 200 images the book also features an illuminating foreword by art historian Griselda Pollock

Alain Delon Nick Rees-Roberts, Darren Waldron, 2015-08-27 Few European male actors have been as iconic and influential for generations of filmgoers as Alain Delon Emblematic of a modern European masculinity Delon's appeal spanned cultures and continents From his breakthrough as the first on screen Tom Ripley in Purple Noon in 1960 through two legendary performances in Rocco and His Brothers and The Leopard in the early 1960s to his roles in some of Jean Pierre Melville's most celebrated films noirs Delon came to embody the flair and stylishness of the European thriller as one of France's most recognizable film stars This collection examines the star's career image and persona Not only focusing on his spectacular early performances the book also considers less well documented aspects of Delon's long career such as his time in Hollywood his work as director producer and screenwriter his musical collaborations his TV appearances and his enduring role as a fashion icon in the 21st century Whether the object of reverence or ridicule of desire or disdain Delon remains a unique figure who continues to court controversy and fascination more than five decades after he first achieved international fame

Craggs, 2019-05-03 First published in 1998 music scored for film has only relatively recently received the critical attention which it merits Many composers in the twentieth century have written works for films or documentaries a number feeling that this aspect of their output has been undervalued This dictionary complements other studies which have appeared in recent years which look at the technical and theoretical issues concerned with film music composition Arranged alphabetically by composer the volume comprises over 500 entries covering all nationalities Each entry includes very brief biographical information on the composer followed by a list of the films with dates for which he or she has composed Details of recordings are also given The dictionary's international coverage ensures that it will become a standard reference work for all those interested in the history of twentieth century music and the development of film

The Cinematic Enfant Terrible Karolina Westling, 2025-06-26 The Cinematic Enfant Terrible is a groundbreaking study of rule breakers in French cinema The book approaches the concept of the enfant terrible in the literal sense of the term young people labelled terrible awful by the adult generation It explores a rich cinematic tradition from Jean Vigo's Zéro de conduite 1933 and François Truffaut's Les quatre cents coups 1959 to Catherine Breillat's 36 fillette 1988 and Ladj Ly's Les Misérables 2019 The book encompasses the cinematic enfants terribles across age groups and genders addressing the differences between unruly boys and rebellious teenage girls The early post war focus on juvenile delinquency and sexual provocations diversifies into filles fatales and angry girls but also precarious boys and parents terribles The book charts the evolution of the enfant terrible concept from a negative label to a sympathetically viewed figure of anti authoritarian resistance reflecting the changing position of children within the family in post war France The films address the ethical paradox of democratic upbringing the dilemma of raising children to become obedient individuals with a mind of their own The asymmetrical relationship between children and parents is seen as a tacit family contract that highlights the importance of an intergenerational perspective for the understanding of generational conflicts Rebellious children and teenagers on screen are seen in the light of wider social transformations The book clarifies the interplay between individual protests and cultural currents such as existentialism feminism and ethnic conflicts This book will be of interest to scholars and students of French culture and cinema childhood and youth studies gender studies and cultural studies
