

SOJOURNER

Black Gay Voices in the Age of AIDS

When we listen to the litany of names of those we've lost to AIDS, to racist and homophobic violence, to poverty, the temptation is to yield to despair. The voices in this book call us back from the edge of sorrow. They sing of the pain of loving in a world not favourable to their survival. They open up the sadness so we hear the echoes of despair and hope. The road to life these men are travelling is a new one, full of terror and science; and what they are discovering is humanity. The world of literature would not be complete without the brothers who speak here.

—Jewelle Gomez, author
The Gilda Stories

Never before has a chorus of voices sung so boldly, so courageously, and so mightily. Never before have these letters, stories, poems - these words - needed to be heard and heeded more in this time of wandering in the wilderness of HIV. Stirring our very souls, our Black brothers are doing more than merely making their mark - they are forging a new American consciousness of anger, of faith and of love. There can be no book published this year more important.

—Randall Kenan, author
Let The Dead Bury Their Dead

Riding the rollercoaster of emotions that is Sojourner, I relive the day of my diagnosis and my decision to not only go public but, girlfriend, to do so with the nerve to love myself. I wrap myself in the support that rings loudly throughout the voices of Sojourner and celebrate the fight of my beautiful brothers.
