Sold Out Becoming Man Enough To Make A Difference:

Sold Out Bill McCartney,1998-12 From Promise Keepers founder Bill McCartney Sold Out is a roadmap describing how to live a disciplined life with eternal values in mind By tapping into God's transforming power men can become man enough to make a difference in this world Includes insights on marriage and relationships from his wife Lyndi McCartney The Spirit of the Game Paul Emory Putz,Assistant Director Truett Seminary's Faith & Sports Institute Paul Emory Putz,2024-10-02 Displays of religious faith have become commonplace on America's baseball diamonds basketball courts football fields and beyond How did religion become so entwined with big time sports in America The Spirit of the Game provides the answer to this question by offering a sweeping history of the Christian athlete movement in the United States and its impact on American religion and the religion of sports After Whiteness Mike Hill,2004 What comes after white becomes a minority in the United States Black Men Worshipping S. Boyd,2011-10-24 Black Men Worshipping analyzes the discursive spaces where Black masculinity is constructed performed and contested in American religion and culture It judiciously considers the anxiety that emerges from Black male negotiations with these constructions The Promise Keepers Bryan W. Brickner,1999-01-01 This informative book explores the ideological practices that construct the Promise Keepers movement while investigating the fundamentals of the Promise Keepers belief system Based upon non participant observations of events as well as in depth interviews The Promise Keepers Politics and Promises studies the movement from the inside providing a better understanding of this evangelical phenomenon Examining the group from its modest beginning in 1990 of seventy men joining together in prayer Bryan Brickner discusses the meaning of the movement in a social context This book will be invaluable to scholars of religion gender studies and political theory Divided by Faith Michael O. Emerson,Harry and Hazel Chavanne Fellow in Religion and Public Policy Michael O Emerson,William R Kenan Jr Professor of Sociology Christian Smith,2025-11-17 Divided by Faith has become an American classic This 25th anniversary edition includes new data analysis updated language updated references and a brand new concluding chapter The new chapter considers pertinent changes over the past quarter of a century and the validity of the Divided by Faith argument for current times Combining a substantial body of evidence with a sophisticated analysis the authors throw a sharp light on the oldest American dilemma Through a nationwide survey of 2 000 people and 200 face to face interviews the authors probed the grassroots of white evangelical America They found that despite recent efforts by the movement's leaders to address the problem of racial discrimination evangelicals themselves are preserving America's racial chasm In fact most white evangelicals see no systemic discrimination against African Americans or other groups However the authors contend that it is not active racism that prevents evangelicals from recognizing ongoing problems in American society Instead it is the evangelical movement's emphasis on individualism free will and personal relationships that make invisible the pervasive injustice that perpetuates racial inequality Most racial problems the subjects told the authors can be solved by the repentance and conversion of the sinful individuals at fault As a result of using the cultural tools of their faith white evangelicals are more divided from Christians of other racial backgrounds than are those in the general public And this reality has substantial implications for American life Racial justice and reconciliation remain far over the horizon
