Ridgway/ by Matthew B. Ridgway ; as Told to Harold H. Martin Matthew Bunker Ridgway, Harold H. Martin, 1956 The Professional Soldier Morris Janowitz, 2017-07-18 This book identifies three issues that confront civil-military relations to this day: how to judge the political consequences of military conduct; how to solve problems of international relations while using less force; and how to strengthen civilian control of the military while preserving professional military autonomy. Masters of Warfare Eric G. L. Pinzelli, 2022-12-02 In Masters of Warfare Eric G. L. Pinzelli presents a selection of fifty commanders whose military achievements, skill, or historical impact he believes to be underrated by modern opinion. He specifically does not include the household names the Gods of War as he calls them, such as Alexander, Julius Caesar, Wellington, Napoleon, Rommel, or Patton, that have been covered in countless biographies. Those chosen come from every period of recorded military history, from the sixth century BC to the Vietnam War. The selection rectifies the European-US bias of many such surveys, with Asian entries such as Bai Qi, Chinese Attila, Hunnic Subotai, Mongol Ieyasu, Tokugawa, Japanese and V. Nguyen. Vietnamese Naval commanders are also represented by the likes of Khayr al-Din, Barbarossa, Francis Drake, and Michiel de Ruyter. These 50 Masters of War are presented in a chronological order, easy to follow, with a concise overview of their life and career. Altogether, they present a fascinating survey of the developments and continuities in the art of command, but most importantly, their contribution to the evolution of weaponry, tactics, and strategy through the ages. Almanac of American Military History Spencer C. Tucker, 2012-11-21 This almanac provides a comprehensive chronological overview of all American military history, serving as the standard reference work of its type. Almanac of American Military History is yet another reference work from acclaimed historian Dr. Spencer C. Tucker and ABC-CLIO, offering an unprecedented resource for a wide range of students and researchers. A comprehensive four-volume title, this almanac traces all of American military history from the European voyages of discovery through 2011 chronicling the pivotal moments that have shaped the United States into the country it is today In addition to documenting key events this title presents biographies of more than 250 key individuals and provides information on more than 250 historically significant technologies and weapons systems A detailed glossary is included as are discussions of ranks and military awards and decorations Divided into conflict periods each chapter includes a detailed chronology reference entry sidebars statistical information primary source documents and a bibliography

Fearing the Worst Samuel F. Wells Jr.,2019-11-26 After World War II the escalating tensions of the Cold War shaped the international system Fearing the Worst explains how the Korean War fundamentally changed postwar competition between the United States and the Soviet Union into a militarized confrontation that would last decades Samuel F Wells Jr examines how military and political events interacted to escalate the conflict Decisions made by the Truman administration in the first six months of the Korean War drove both superpowers to intensify their defense buildup American leaders feared the worst case scenario that Stalin was prepared to start World War III and raced to build up strategic arms resulting in a struggle they did not seek out or intend Their decisions stemmed from incomplete interpretations of Soviet and Chinese goals especially the belief that China was a Kremlin puppet Yet Stalin Mao and Kim Il sung all had their own agendas about which the United States lacked reliable intelligence Drawing on newly available documents and memoirs including previously restricted archives in Russia China and North Korea Wells analyzes the key decision points that changed the course of the war He also provides vivid profiles of the central actors as well as important but lesser known figures Bringing together studies of military policy and diplomacy with the roles of technology intelligence and domestic politics in each of the principal nations Fearing the Worst offers a new account of the Korean War and its lasting legacy

The Army and the Joint Chiefs of Staff Edgar F. Raines,David Raymond Campbell,1986 Four Stars of Valor Phil Nordyke,2010-11-12 Hailing from the big cities and small towns of America these young men came together to serve their country and the greater good They were the 505th Parachute Infantry Regiment of the 82nd Airborne Division the All Americans Phil Nordyke their official historian draws on interviews with surviving veterans and oral history recordings as well as official archives and unpublished written accounts from more than three hundred veterans of the 505th PIR and their supporting units This is history as it was lived by the men of the 505th from their prewar coming of age in the regiment through the end of World War II when they marched in the Victory Parade up Fifth Avenue in New York to the postwar legacy of having been part of an elite parachute regiment with a record unsurpassed in the annals of combat
