Decadent Enchantments Katherine Bergeron, 2023-04-28 The oldest written tradition of European music the art we know as Gregorian chant is seen from an entirely new perspective in Katherine Bergeron's engaging and literate study Bergeron traces the history of the Gregorian revival from its Romantic origins in a community of French monks at Solesmes whose founder hoped to rebuild the moral foundation of French culture on the ruins of the Benedictine order She draws out the parallels between this longing for a lost liturgy and the postrevolutionary quest for lost monuments that fueled the French Gothic revival a quest that produced the modern concept of restoration Bergeron follows the technological development of the Gregorian restoration over a seventy year period as it passed from the private performances of a monastic choir into the public commodities of printed books photographs and Gramophone records She discusses such issues as architectural restoration the modern history of typography the uncanny power of the photographic image and the authority of recorded sound She also shows the extent to which different media shaped the modern image of the ancient repertory an image that gave rise to conflicting notions not only of musical performance but of the very idea of music history The oldest written tradition of European music the art we know as Gregorian chant is seen from an entirely new perspective in Katherine Bergeron's engaging and literate study Bergeron traces the history of the Gregorian revival from its Romantic origin

A Sociological History of Christian Worship Martin D. Stringer, 2005-07-14 In this book the 2000 year history of Christian worship is viewed from a sociological perspective Martin Stringer develops the idea of discourse as a way of understanding the place of Christian worship within its many and diverse social contexts Beginning with the Biblical material the author provides a broad survey of changes over 2000 years of the Christian church together with a series of case studies that highlight particular elements of the worship or specific theoretical applications Stringer does not simply examine the mainstream traditions of Christian worship in Europe and Byzantium but also gives space to lesser known traditions in Armenia India Ethiopia and elsewhere Offering a contribution to the ongoing debate that breaks away from a purely textual or theological study of Christian worship this book provides a greater understanding of the place of worship in its social and cultural context
