Solitaire A Narrative:

Solitaire Aimee Liu, 2016-05-03 Solitaire is the groundbreaking memoir of a young woman growing up in the 1970s and her triumph over anorexia nervosa Proceedings of the World Anthropology Congress 2023 (WAC 2023) Tulishree Pradhan, Deepak Kumar Behera, Savarimuthu Gregory, Pooran Chand Joshi, Madhuri Meelee, Maria Stoicheva, 2023-12-29 This is an open access book The World Anthropology Congress 2023 intends to explore multiple avenues for global peace and harmony for sustainable development of humankind particularly of the indigenous Adivasi and tribal people of the world It is now well understood that Anthropology as a discipline can lend a powerful voice to non hegemonic and marginalized cultural perspectives on both Global Peace and Development for ensuring social justice to the tribal and autochthones people Since Global Peace and Development are multi layered processes and Anthropology promotes the tradition of multifaceted thinking that ranges from the local to the global and traverses the space in bet ween the discipline can unveil new dimensions in promoting lasting peace and sustained human development Further accumulated scientific evidence proves that many non violent societies co existed peacefully as a norm throughout the prehistoric period of the human existence This indicates that human co existence and peace were not mere words but concepts that are integral to the texts of Anthropology Therefore deliberations in this Congress will contribute to the processes of Peace and Development of human society at different levels The proposed World Anthropology Congress 2023 will continue this line of enquiry by playing a crucial role in creating a more contemporary and relevant debate on indigeneity social justice and global peace Bedrock and Paradox David M. Pozza, 2006 Rarely does an author so thoroughly entertain and anger his readers as Edward Abbey does This book focuses on Abbey s aesthetic and philosophy of paradox as they are reflected in his writings and explores his literary technique of blurring traditional genres regarding fiction and nonfiction Until now no study has sufficiently treated the full complexity of Abbey s writing throughout his career making this particular work not only original but important Struggles for Representation Phyllis Rauch Klotman, Janet K. Cutler, 1999 Struggles for Representation examines over 300 non fiction films by more than 150 African American film videomakers and includes an extensive filmography bibliography and excerpts from interviews with film videomakers In eleven original essays contributors explore the extraordinary scope of these aesthetic and social documents and chart a previously undiscovered territory documentaries that examine the aesthetic economic historical political and social forces that shape the lives of black Americans as seen from their perspectives Until now scholars and critics have concentrated on black fiction film and on mainstream non fiction films neglecting the groundbreaking body of black non fiction productions that offer privileged views of American life Yet these rich and varied works in film video and new electronic media convey vast stores of knowledge and experience Although most documentary cannot hope to match fiction film s mass appeal it is unrivaled in its ability to portray searing indelible impressions of black life including concrete views of significant events and moving portraits of charismatic individuals Documentary footage brings audiences the moments when civil rights protestors were attacked by state troopers it provides the sights and sounds of Malcom X delivering an electrifying speech Betty Carter performing a heart wrenching song and Langston Hughes strolling on a beach Uniting all of this work is the struggle for representation that characterizes each film an urgent desire to convey black life in ways that counter the uninformed and often distorted representations of mass media film and television productions African American documentaries have long been associated with struggles for social and political empowerment for many film videomakers documentary is a compelling mode with which to present an alternative more authentic narrative of black experiences and an effective critique of mainstream discourse Thus many socially and politically committed film videomakers view documentary as a tool with which to interrogate and reinvent history their works fill gaps correct errors and expose distortions in order to provide counter narratives of African American experience Contributors include Paul Arthur Houston A Baker Jr Mark F Baker Pearl Bowser Janet K Cutler Manthia Diawara Elizabeth Amelia Hadley Phyllis R Klotman Tommy Lee Lott Erika Muhammad Valerie Smith and Clyde Taylor

Ambivalence Ian Kinane,2021-04-08 Previously considered an avowed nationalist this book explores how Ian Fleming's writings and his representational politics contain an implicit resistance to imperial rhetoric Through an examination of Fleming's Jamaica set novels Live and Let Die Dr No and The Man with the Golden Gun as well as the later film adaptations of these novels Ian Kinane reveals Fleming's deep ambivalence to British decolonisation and to wider Anglo Caribbean relations Offered here is a crucial insight into the public imagination during the birth of modern British multiculturalism that encompasses broader links between Fleming's writings on race and the representation of early British Jamaican cultural relations By exploring the effects of racial representation in these popular works Kinane connects the novels to more contemporary concerns regarding migration and the ways in which the misrepresentation of cultures races and peoples has led to fraught and contentious global geo political relations as figured in the fictional icon James Bond Narrative Design:
