Solitary Blue:

A Solitary Blue Cynthia Voigt, 2001-12-12 A Newbery Honor winning installment of the Cynthia Voigt's classic Tillerman series Jeff Greene was only seven when he came home from school to find a note from his mother She felt that the world needed her more than her grown up son did For someone who believed she could see the world's problems so clearly she was blind to the heartache and difficulties she pushed upon her son leaving him with his reserved undemonstrative father So when years later she invites Jeff to spend summers with her in Charleston Jeff is captivated by her free spirit and warmth and a happiness he's been missing fills him But Jeff's second visit ends with a devastating betrayal and an aching feeling of loneliness In life there can be emotional pits so deep that seemingly nothing will grow but if he digs a little deeper Jeff might just come out on the other side Critical Reading Activities for the Works of Cynthia Voigt Catherine DePino, 2000 A Solitary Blue Cynthia Voigt, 1983 Solitary Blue Cynthia Voigt, 2003-07-01 When Jeff feels that he has been betrayed by his mother he attempts to close the gap between him and his father Solitary Blue Cynthia Voigt, 1991 Jeff's mother who deserted the family years before re enters his life and widens the gap between Jeff and his father a gap that only truth love and friendship can heal Songs of the Rockies Charles Edwin Hewes, 1914 Inventory United States. Agricultural Research Service. Plant Science Research Division, Smith Blue Camille T. Dungy, 2011-05-18 In Smith Blue Camille T. Dungy offers a survival guide for the modern heart as she takes on twenty first century questions of love loss and nature From a myriad of lenses these poems examine the human capability for perseverance in the wake of heartbreak the loss of beloved heroes and landscapes and our determination in the face of everyday struggles Dungy explores the dual nature of our presence on the planet juxtaposing the devastation caused by human habitation with our own vulnerability to the capricious whims of our environment In doing so she reveals with fury and tenderness the countless ways in which we both create and are victims of catastrophe This searing collection delves into the most intimate transformations wrought by our ever shifting personal cultural and physical terrains each fraught with both disillusionment and hope In the end Dungy demonstrates how we are all intertwined regardless of race or species living and loving as best we are able in the shadows of both man made and natural follies Flight It is the day after the leaves when buckeyes like a thousand thousand pendulums clock trees and squirrels fat in their winter fur chuckle hours chortle days It is the time for the parting of our ways You slid into the summer of my sleeping crept into my lonely hours ate the music of my dreams You filled yourself with the treated sweet I offered then shut your rolling eyes and stole my sleep Came morning and me awake Came morning Awake I walked twelve miles to the six gun shop On the way there I saw a bird of prayer all furled up by the river I called to it It would not unfold On the way home I killed it It is the time of the waking cold when buckeyes like a thousand thousand metronomes tock time and you fat on my summer sleep titter toward me walk away It is the time for the parting of our days Childhood and Innocence in American Culture James M. Curtis, 2023-08-01 This collection argues that the romanticized conflation of childhood and innocence in American culture has been on a steady decline at least since the 1960s largely due to postmodern critiques of overarching narratives involving both the child and the innocence of childhood Additionally this collection highlights and analyzes examples of children s literature and culture throughout the 20th century and into the 21st which pointedly defy traditional idealized notions of childhood Such an analysis serves to reiterate the idea that the romanticized notion of childhood which has pervaded American culture for over two centuries is little more than a cultural construction that bears little to no resemblance to the actual lived experience of American children
