Solovyov Anthology:

A Solovyov Anthology Vladimir Sergeyevich Solovyov, 1950 The purpose of the present anthology is to give such a selection of extracts from Solovyov's works as would enable the reader to form a general impression of the entire range of Solovyov's ideas throughout the course of his spiritual development only the more specialized works on metaphysics epistemology and theories of ethics have been left out of account The extracts are arranged in systematic order according to the main subjects but most sections contain instances of Solovyov's work at different periods of his life A Solovyov Anthology S L Frank, 2013-04-20 A Solovyov Anthology Vladimir Sergeevic Solov'ev, S. Young, 2012-07-30 In the nineteenth and early twentieth century a controversial school of Russian religious and scientific thinkers emerged united in the conviction that humanity was entering a new stage of evolution and must assume a new active managerial role in the cosmos The ideas of the Cosmists have in recent decades been rediscovered and embraced by many Russian intellectuals In the first account in English of this fascinating tradition George M Young offers a dynamic and wide ranging examination of the lives and ideas of the Russian Cosmists A History of Russian Philosophy V. V. Zenkovsky, 2003 A Solovyov Anthology. Arranged by S. L. Frank. Translated from the Russian by Natalie Duddington Vladimir Sergeyevich Solovyov, 1950 The Noetics of Nature Bruce V. Foltz, 2013-11-11 Contemplative or noetic knowledge has traditionally been seen as the highest mode of understanding a view that persists both in many non Western cultures and in Eastern Christianity where theoria physike or the illumined understanding of creation that follows the purification of the heart is seen to provide deeper insights into nature than the discursive rationality modernity has used to dominate and conquer it Working from texts in Eastern Orthodox philosophy and theology not widely known in the West as well as a variety of sources including mystics such as the Sufi Ibn Arabi poets such as Basho Traherne Blake Hlderlin and Hopkins and nature writers such as Muir Thoreau and Dillard The Noetics of Nature challenges both the primacy of the natural sciences in environmental thought and the conventional view first advanced by Lynn White Jr that Christian theology is somehow responsible for the environmental crisis Instead Foltz concludes that the ancient Christian view of creation as iconic its holy beauty manifesting the divine energies and constituting a primal mode of divine revelation offers the best prospect for the radical reversal that is needed in our relation to the natural environment With All the Fullness of God Jared Ortiz, 2021-01-12 Christians confess that Christ came to save us from sin and death But what did he save us for One beautiful and compelling answer to this question is that God saved us for union with him so that we might become partakers of the divine nature 1 Pet 2 4 what the Christian tradition has called deification This term refers to a particular vision of salvation which claims that God wants to share his own divine life with us uniting us to himself and transforming us into his likeness While often thought to be either a heretical notion or the provenance of Eastern Orthodoxy this book shows that deification is an integral part of Catholicism Orthodoxy and many Protestant denominations Drawing on the resources of their own Christian heritages eleven scholars share the riches of their respective traditions on the doctrine of deification In this book scholars and pastor scholars from diverse Christian expressions write for both a scholarly and lay audience about what God created us to be adopted children of God who are called even now to be filled with all the fullness of God Eph 3 19
