Toews,2004-07-11 Romans was written by Paul apostle of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles As an apostle Paul spent his life traveling the Mediterranean area preaching the gospel and establishing churches In the course of his missionary career Paul wrote numerous letters to the churches he had established as a way to pastor them in his absence Romans is the longest and most complex of Paul s letters John E Toews explores why Paul writes to remind the Roman churches of God s purpose for both Jew and Gentile and to reconcile Jewish Christian and Jewish Gentile church relationships

Long, 2019-05-29 Galatians is one of the earliest of the Pauline letters and is therefore among the first documents written by Christians in the first century Paul's letter to the Galatians deals with the first real controversy in the early church the status of Jews and gentiles in this present age and the application of the Law of Moses to gentiles Paul argues passionately that gentiles are not converting to Judaism and therefore should not be expected to keep the Law Gentiles who accept Jesus as Savior are free in Christ not under the bondage of the Law Galatians also deals with an important pastoral issue in the early church as well If gentiles are not under the Law are they free to behave any way they like Does Paul's gospel mean that gentiles can continue to live like pagans and still be right with God For Paul the believer's status as an adopted child of God enables them to serve God freely as dearly loved children Galatians Freedom through God's Grace is commentary for laypeople Bible teachers and pastors who want to grasp how the original readers of Galatians would have understood Paul's letter and how this important ancient letter speaks to Christians living in similar situations in the twenty-first century

Bowens, Scot McKnight, Joseph B. Modica, 2023-12-20 Romans is the most influential New Testament book in the history of Christian theology it has shaped Christian theology how the gospel is framed and how the Christian life is understood Preaching Romans for many pastors is the climactic text for a preaching career There are perspectives e.g. reformed new apocalyptic participationist among others on Romans but not all of them are known by most and too many of them not known at all We want to help rectify this by giving voice to those who have been too often voiceless A Treatise on the Law of Insurance of Every Kind Joseph Asbury Joyce, 1917 The Sentimental Life of International Law Gerry Simpson, 2021 The Sentimental Life of International Law is about our age-old longing for a decent international society and the ways of seeing being and speaking that might help us achieve that aim This book asks how international lawyers might engage in a professional practice that has become to adapt a title of Janet Malcolm's both difficult and impossible It suggests that international lawyers are disabled by the governing idioms of international lawyering and proposes that they may be re-enabled by speaking different sorts of international law or by speaking international law in different sorts of ways In this methodologically diverse and unusually personal account Gerry Simpson brings to the surface international law's hidden literary prose and offers a critical and redemptive account of the field He does so in a series of chapters on international law's bathetic underpinnings its friendly relations the neurotic foundations of its underlying social
