Parties Strong Leaders highlights and examines variation in how members of party factions choose to work together She shows that leaders of divided parties are well positioned to overcome and even draw strength from their divided ranks when the collaborative efforts of their coalitions competing factions are evenly matched By contrast their capacity to get what they want is more limited when one faction has out collaborated its competition Presenting detailed case studies of some of the most storied leaders of the postwar Congress including Speakers Sam Rayburn and Nancy Pelosi Bloch Rubin analyzes the factional configuration each leader encountered and explains why it mattered for their exercise of power
