scholars and thinkers of our time With the stated purpose of restoring ethics to its central role in Judaism Rabbi Joseph Telushkin offers hundreds of examples from the Torah the Talmud rabbinic commentaries and contemporary stories to illustrate how ethical teachings can affect our daily behavior The subjects dealt with are ones we all encounter They include judging other people fairly knowing when forgiveness is obligatory optional or forbidden balancing humility and self esteem avoiding speech that shames others restraining our impulses of envy hatred and revenge valuing truth but knowing when lying is permitted understanding why God is the ultimate basis of morality and appreciating the great benefits of Torah study Telushkin has arranged the book in the traditional style of Jewish codes with topical chapters and numbered paragraphs Statements of law are almost invariably followed by anecdotes illustrating how these principles have been or can be practiced in daily life The book can be read straight through to provide a solid grounding in Jewish values consulted as a reference when facing ethical dilemmas or studied in a group Vast in scope this volume distills more than three thousand years of Jewish laws and suggestions on how to improve one's character and become more honest decent and just It is a landmark work of scholarship that is sure to influence the lives of Jews for generations to come rich with questions to ponder and discuss but primarily a book to live by Family Participation Haggadah Zion, Noam, David Dishon, 1996 The Sacred Calling Rebecca Einstein Schorr, Alys Mendelson Graf, 2016-05-17 Women have been rabbis for over forty years No longer are women rabbis a unique phenomenon rather they are part of the fabric of Jewish life In this anthology rabbis and scholars from across the Jewish world reflect back on the historic significance of women in the rabbinate and explore issues related to both the professional and personal lives of women rabbis This collection examines the ways in which the reality of women in the rabbinate has impacted on all aspects of Jewish life including congregational culture liturgical development life cycle ritual the Jewish healing movement spirituality theology and more Published by CCAR Press a division of the Central Conference of American Rabbis A Code of Jewish Ethics: You shall be holy Joseph Telushkin, 2006 Presents the first major code of Jewish ethics to be written in English offering examples from the Torah the Talmud rabbinic commentaries and modern stories to show how ethical teachings can influence daily behavior The Kids' Catalog of Passover Barbara Rush, Cherie Karo Schwartz, 2000 Presents stories songs crafts recipes games and more related to various aspects of the celebration of the Jewish holiday of Passover Befriending The Beloved Disciple Adele Reinhartz, 2002-10-29 Adele Reinhartz has been studying and teaching the Gospel of John for many years Earlier she chose to ignore the love hate relationship that the book provokes in her a Jew and took refuge in an objective historical critical approach At this stage her relationship to the Gospel was not so much a friendship as a business relationship No longer willing to ignore the negative portrayal of Jews and Judaism in the text nor the insight that her own Jewish identity inevitably does play a role in her work as an exegete Reinhartz here explores the Fourth Gospel through the approach known as ethical criticism which is based on the metaphorical notion of the book as friend not an easy unquestioning companionship but the kind of honest relationship in which ethical considerations are addressed not avoided In a book as multilayered as the Gospel itself Reinhartz engages in 4 different readings of the Fourth Gospel compliant resistant sympathetic and engaged Each approach views the Beloved Disciple differently as mentor opponent colleague and as other In the course of each of these readings she elucidates the three narrative levels that interpenetrate the Gospel the historical the cosmological and the ecclesiological In the latter Reinhartz deals at length with the so called expulsion theory the dominant scholarly notion that the Johannine community which included believers of Jewish Gentile and Samaritan origins engaged in a prolonged and violent controversy with the local Jewish community culminating in a traumatic expulsion from the synagogue

You Shall Tell Your Children Liora Gubkin, 2007-11-05 Passover is among the most widely observed holidays for American Jews During this festival of redemption Jewish families retell the biblical story of Exodus using a ritual book known as a haggadah often weaving modern tales of oppression through the biblical narrative References to the Holocaust are some of the most common additions to contemporary haggadot However the parallel between ancient and modern oppression which seems obvious to some raises troubling questions for many others Is it possible to find any redemptive meaning in the Nazi genocide Are we adding value to this unforgivable moment in history Liora Gubkin critiques commemorations that violate memory by erasing the value of everyday life that was lost and collapse the diversity of responses both during the Shoah and afterward She recounts oral testimonies from Holocaust survivors cites references to the holiday in popular American culture and analyzes examples of actual haggadot Ultimately Gubkin concludes that it is possible and important to make a space for Holocaust commemoration all the time recognizing that haggadot must be constantly revisited and performed

Sowing the Seeds of Character Judd Kruger Levingston, 2009-06-08 A rabbi and educator shows how moral education can be crafted to address each of the three main branches of the moral life philosophy civics and ethics Sowing the Seeds of Character The Moral Education of Adolescents in Public and Private Schools is a book for all teachers and parents It rests on the premise that the moral education of students falls within the purview of schools whether they assume responsibility for it or not Regardless of the place of moral education in the formal curriculum all teachers serve as moral exemplars to their students for good or for ill Teachers of science social studies history and literature courses cannot help but inculcate moral sensibility and attitudes in their students by the ways in which they lead them to grapple with or glide over the moral implications of what they teach Judd Kruger Levingston draws many lessons and examples from his extensive research and teaching experience in Muslim Jewish Roman Catholic public Quaker and Chinese schools He argues that teachers should become proficient in directing role playing simulations of moral decision making as morally complex topics arise within the standard curriculum
