Richard Parkes Cordock, Have you ever wondered what it takes to win an amateur football league In this book you ll hear the story of Oldman Athletic an ageing 6 a side football team who just like Leicester City were never supposed to become champions It should never have happened but it did Told through the eyes of their captain you ll read how Oldman went from bottom of the league to middle and then top You ll read about the decisions they made and the thinking behind each decision You ll read about the strategies and tactics they adopted and the things they did right in their title winning season compared to what they did wrong in previous campaigns This is more than just a football book it is a book about building a team and getting a group of individuals to come together who are worth more than the sum of their parts How Oldman Athletic Won the League is a must read for all football fans especially those who play amateur football but there are many lessons included in the book which are pertinent to business managers and leaders and managers and leaders from all walks of life who want to achieve something extraordinary with The Goose-step: A Study of American Education Upton Sinclair, 2023-11-20 The Goose step A Study of their team American Education is an investigation into the consequences of plutocratic capitalist control of American colleges and universities This engaging novel was published in 1923 by the American novelist and muckraking journalist Upton Sinclair

Stories of the Far North Jon Tuska,1998-01-01 The Northwestern story emerged full blown from the pen of Jack London and his The League of the Old Men is a fitting introduction to these rigorous action tales in which the inhospitable climate strips away civilized veneer and individuals must live or die by their cunning instinct and sometimes ruthlessness The bond between man and dog and the character flaws revealed under the stresses of extreme isolation are just two of the classic themes explored in these works The collection comes to a fitting climax of a century s worth of development with a new story by Tim Champlin commissioned for this volume Most of these stories were originally published in magazines and were heavily edited to meet space and style concerns Stories of the Far North restores each work to its original form uncut and as each author intended The Goose-step Upton Sinclair,1923 The Investigation of the Soldiers' Home at Leavenworth, Kans United States. and tactics of warfare and the intensity of the fighting on New Guinea it was logistically impossible for Overseas Leagues to organize for morale on that island for most of the war Being denied the morale and opportunity to participate in the Overseas Leagues compounded by the hunger to play and the awareness that baseball was being played all around them in the South Pacific in the end made them bitter and thereby made them better than they already were So they had to gut it out They played pick up games when they could in the rain using homemade equipment while getting shot at by snipers But finally near war s end on leave and visiting the wounded they forced a little match on the hospital diamond with a top Navy team on the Island of Manila Word of the embarrassing ass kicking of a top Navy team by a bunch of Army nobodies got all the way back to an all star major leaguer stationed in Hawaii and soon after he and his Navy All Stars Touring Team accompanied by a crew of Seabees arrived on New Guinea and carved a diamond out of that jungle and a game it was Report by His Majesty's Government to the Council of the League of Nations on the Administration of Togoland Under British Mandate Great Britain.
