monster spewed him forth unharmed He was found by compassionate passers by and grew up ignorant of his descent The government appointed him to the Office Of hangman As luck would have it he had to execute his own father By the law of the land the wife Of the dead man fell to the share of his executioner and Joshua was on the point Of adding to parricide another crime equally heinous He was saved by a miraculous Sign When he approached his mother milk owed from her breasts His suspicions were aroused and through the inquiries he set afoot regarding his origin the truth was made manifest About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Counter-figures: An Essay on Anti-metaphoric Resistance. Paul Celan's Poetry and Poetics at the Limits of Figuralität Pajari Räsänen, 2007

Encounters with Paul Celan's Poetry Pajari Räsänen, 2021-09-21 Encounters with Paul Celan s Poetry The Other s Time consists of encounters with poetry with its readers and with the other that poetry seeks to encounter What does it mean when Celan insists that every real encounter every true encounter happens in memory of the poetic encounter the secret of the encounter This book presents close readings of various poems often attempting textual and intellectual dialogue with philosophers who read Celan or who were

Pachomius Philip Rousseau, 1999-07-06 Pachomius who died in 346 has long been regarded as the founder of monasticism Available again Philip Rousseau's careful reading of the available texts reveals that Pachomius's pioneering enterprise has been consistently misread in light of later monastic practices Rousseau not only provides a fuller and more accurate portrait of this great teacher and spiritual director but also gives a new perspective on the development of monasticism In a new preface Rousseau reviews the scholarly developments that have modified his views and emphases since the book was published The result is to make Pachomius an even less assured pioneer a man likely to have been more involved in the village and urban society of his time than previously thought The Cave 3 Copper Scroll: A Symbolic

Journey Jesper Høgenhaven, 2020-07-13 In The Cave 3 Copper Scroll A Symbolic Journey Jesper Høgenhaven presents a reading of the Copper Scroll as a literary text For more than 60 years scholars have debated whether or not the treasures recorded here reflect historical realities This study argues that the dichotomy between facts and fiction is inadequate for a proper understanding of the Copper Scroll The document was designed to convey specific images to its readers thus staying true to the format of an instruction for retrieving hidden treasures Yet the evoked landscape is dense with symbolical associations and the journey through it reflects deliberate narrative patterns The scroll was written against the background of the social and political turmoil of Jewish Palestine in the 1st century CE and reflects contemporary concerns and interests

Seder Eliyahu Constanza Cordoni, 2018-08-21 The book is concerned with a so called ethical midrash Seder Eliyahu also known as Tanna debe Eliyahu a post talmudic work probably composed in the ninth century It provides a survey of the research on this late midrash followed by five studies of different aspects related to what is designated as the work's narratology These include a discussion of the problem of the apparent pseudo epigraphy of the work and of the multiple voices of the text a description of the various narrative types which the work itself as a whole of non narrative character makes use of a detailed treatment of Seder Eliyahu's parables and most characteristic first person narratives an extremely unusual form of narrative discourse in rabbinic literature as well as a final chapter dedicated to selected women stories in this late midrash As it emerges from the survey in chapter 1 such a narratologically informed study of Seder Eliyahu represents a new approach in the research on a work that is clearly the product of a time of transition in Jewish literature

The Tragedy of a Generation Joshua M. Karlip, 2013-07-15 The Tragedy of a Generation is the story of a failed ideal an autonomous Jewish nation in Europe It traces the origins of two influential strains of Jewish thought Yiddishism and Diaspora Nationalism and documents the waning hopes and painful reassessments of their leading representatives against the rising tide of Nazism and the Holocaust Conquering Character Sarah Lebharr Hall, 2010-03-08 While recent Old Testament scholarship has seen a steady rise in the prominence of narrative approaches to the text little such work has been done on the book of Joshua This book offers a narrative treatment of the conquest accounts with specific attention given to the characterization of Joshua The method employed is eclectic including poetic analysis structural study delimitation criticism comparative literary analysis and intertextual reading Joshua s characterization has received inadequate scholarly attention to date largely because he is seen as a pale character a mere stereotype in the biblical history This two dimensional reading often leads to the conclusion that Joshua is meant to represent another character in the history But this approach neglects the many aspects of Joshua s character that are unique and does not address the text s presentation of his flaws On the other hand some scholars have recently suggested that Joshua s character is significantly flawed This reading is similarly untenable as those features of Joshua s leadership that it portrays as faulty are in fact condoned not condemned by the text itself Close examination of the conquest narratives suggests that Joshua s character is both complex and reliable To the degree that Joshua functions as a paradigm in the subsequent histories this paradigm must be conceived more broadly than it has been in the past He is not merely a royal prophetic or priestly figure but exercises and often exemplifies the many different types of leadership that feature in the former prophets

Islam Translated Ronit Ricci,2011-05-01 The spread of Islam eastward into South and Southeast Asia was one of the most significant cultural shifts in world history As it expanded into these regions Islam was received by cultures vastly different from those in the Middle East incorporating them into a diverse global community that stretched from India to the Philippines In Islam Translated Ronit Ricci uses the Book of One Thousand Questions from its Arabic original to its adaptations into the Javanese Malay and Tamil languages between the sixteenth and twentieth centuries as a means to consider connections that linked Muslims across divides of distance and culture Examining the circulation of this Islamic text and its varied literary forms Ricci explores how processes of literary translation and religious conversion were historically interconnected forms of globalization mutually dependent and creatively reformulated within societies making the transition to Islam

Geography, Religion, Gods, and Saints in the Eastern Mediterranean Erica Ferg,2020-01-16 Geography Religion Gods and Saints in the Eastern Mediterranean explores the influence of geography on religion and highlights a largely unknown story of religious history in the Eastern Mediterranean In the Levant agricultural communities of Jews Christians and Muslims jointly venerated and largely shared three important saints or holy figures Jewish Elijah Christian St George and Muslim al Khi r These figures share peculiar characteristics such as associations with rain greenness fertility and storms Only in the Eastern Mediterranean are Elijah St George and al Khi r shared between religious communities or characterized by these same agricultural attributes attributes that also were shared by regional religious figures from earlier time periods such as the ancient Near Eastern Storm god Baal Hadad and Levantine Zeus This book tells the story of how that came to be and suggests that the figures share specific characteristics over a very long period of time because these motifs were shaped by the geography of the region Ultimately this book suggests that regional geography has influenced regional religion that Judaism Christianity and Islam are not historically or textually speaking separate religious traditions even if Jews Christians and Muslims are members of distinct religious communities and that shared religious practices between members of these and other local religious communities are not unusual. Instead, shared practices arose out of a common geographical environment and an interconnected religious heritage and are a natural historical feature of religion in the Eastern Mediterranean. This volume will be of interest to students of ancient Near Eastern religions: Judaism, Christianity, Islam, sainthood, agricultural communities in the ancient Near East, Middle Eastern religious and cultural history, and the relationships between geography and religion.
