The Life And Times Of Cj Dennis:

The Life and Times of C.J. Dennis Alec Hugh Chisholm, Barry Watts, 1982 Includes substantial extracts from The world of The sentimental bloke compiled by Barry Watts 'Boredom is the Enemy' Amanda Laugesen, 2016-04-15 War is often characterised as one percent terror 99 per cent boredom Whilst much ink has been spilt on the one per cent relatively little work has been directed toward the other 99 per cent of a soldier's time As such this book will be welcomed by those seeking a fuller understanding of what makes soldiers endure war and how they cope with prolonged periods of inaction It explores the issue of military boredom and investigates how soldiers spent their time when not engaged in battle work or training through a study of their creative imaginative and intellectual lives It examines the efforts of military authorities to provide solutions to military boredom and the problem of discipline and morale through the provisioning of entertainment and education but more importantly explores the ways in which soldiers responded to such efforts arguing that soldiers used entertainment and education in ways that suited them The focus in the book is on Australians and their experiences primarily during the First World War but with subsequent chapters taking the story through the Second World War to the Vietnam War This focus on a single national group allows questions to be raised about what might or might not be exceptional about the experiences of a particular national group and the ways national identity can shape an individual's relationship and engagement with education and entertainment It can also suggest the continuities and changes in these experiences through the course of three wars The story of Australians at war illuminates a much broader story of the experience of war and people's responses to war in the twentieth century The ALS Guide to Australian Writers Martin Duwell, Laurie Hergenhan, 1992 Alphabetically organised chronological listing of the primary works of each author as well as selected critical biographical and historical articles and reviews and interviews Material is drawn from the series Annual Bibliographies of Studies in Australian Literature published in Australian Literary Studies between 1964 and 1991

Capital Kristin Otto, 2009 In 1901 the Australian colonies came together to form a new nation which for the next twenty six years was governed from Melbourne It was a small city a place where people knew each other not just the people who mattered but those who didn't yet where small changes loomed large and the import of big changes could scarcely be imagined Yet in the extraordinary first quarter of the twentieth century the world lurched headlong into a new era And this overgrown town in all but name the nation's capital oversaw the birth of modern Australia In Capital Kristin Otto describes how it happened She looks at the developments that shaped the world we know today from the story of Helena Rubinstein and the invention of the cosmetics industry to the world's first feature film to confectionery king Mac Robertson packaging pioneer and author of the city's first motor car fatality And she traces with the lightest of touches the web of influence friendship and sheer coincidence that held it all together For anyone who knows Melbourne Capital will be a fascinating conversation with an old friend For anyone who doesn't it will be a compelling introduction to a new one Wild Reciter

Peter Kirkpatrick,2024-12-03 Just over a century ago poetry was all the rage in Australia Newspapers and magazines published it entertainers and elocutionists performed it on stages across the country and ordinary Australians recited it in schools local halls and suburban parlours Yet this communal experience of poetry has now largely disappeared In The Wild Reciter Peter Kirkpatrick examines how this change occurred by exploring the shifting relationships between poetry and popular culture and in particular the arrival of new media taking the reader from penny readings and vaudeville to slam and Instapoetry Many extraordinary yet wholly forgotten works are brought to light while some well known poems and their authors receive a critical makeover The Man from Snowy River encounters the Wild West Lesbia Harford turns singer songwriter Kenneth Slessor finds his groove Yevgeny Yevtushenko blows up the Adelaide Festival rock music inspires both John Laws and the Generation of 68 Dorothy Porter resorts to crime fiction and Clive James abandons media fame for poetic glory This pioneering study reimagines the history of Australian verse to arrive at a more expansive notion of poetry An Unsentimental Bloke Philip Butterss,2014 The Expository Times James Hastings,Ann Wilson Hastings,Edward Hastings,1916 Australian Literary Studies ,1989 Adelaide: a literary city Philip Butterss,2013-12-20 Adelaide Law Review News About Us Advisory Committee For Readers Submitting Proposals Links Contact Adelaide a literary city Download PDFRead Online Direct Adelaide a literary city edited by Philip Butterss 33 00 2013 Paperback 978 1 922064 63 9 280 pp FREE 2013 Ebook PDF 978 1 922064 64 6 280 pp From the tentative beginnings of European settlement to today s flourishing writing scene Adelaide has always been a literary city Novelists poets and playwrights have lived here readers have pored over books sharing them and discussing them literary celebrities have visited and sometimes stayed writers have encouraged each other and fought with each other Adelaide is literary too in the sense of having been written about sometimes with love sometimes with scorn Literature has been important not only to the city s cultural life but to its identity to the way it has been seen and most importantly to the way it has seen itself From before 1836 to 1914 Elizabeth Kwan,1987 European impressions of Aborigines at contact with Kurna Ngarinyeri conflict on stock routes and killing of survivors of ship Maria chronology of Aboriginal history land rights mining Aboriginal lands effects of Maralinga tests Aboriginal participation in education biographies of Kudnarto Gladys Elphick Rhonda Dadleh David Unaipon Lois ODonoghue The Expository Times ,1916 Living in South Australia: After 1914 Elizabeth Kwan,1987 The Wee Dog and Other Essays Alan Durward Mickle,1922 The Argonaut ,1916 Joan Lindsay Brenda Niall,2025-02-04 One of Australia s foremost biographers examines the life of Joan Lindsay the author of one of Australia s most enduring novels Picnic at Hanging Rock Other Times Andrew Male,1997 Andrew Male takes a journey through the life and times of Max Fatchen in this affectionate and surprising work Along the way he reproduces some of Max s best writing including unpublished treasures D.H.
