The Life of a Text Philip Lutgendorf, 1991 The range of Manas performance traditions captured here is immense What is wonderful and remarkable is that each is presented vividly with careful ethnographic detail so that they become living traditions to the reader Susan Wadley Syracuse University      Banaras Winand M. Space-Body-Ritual Reena Tiwari, 2010-05-12 Set against the contemporary thinking of the city as a spectacle Space Body Ritual Performativity in the City establishes everyday life in the city as a ground for authentic experience Reena Tiwari emphasizes the city as a space of lived experience an intricately layered space giving people a poetic experience responding to their memories and desires She also explores the conflict between two ideas the idea of the city as text to be read and understood from a distance and the city as body where the body after writing the text through its performance achieves the capacity to read and understand it Space Body Ritual demonstrates that the abstract seeing embedded in the city as a text is underwritten by the idea of power operating at deeper levels in the city This hidden power is the power of the user's body in space Furthermore Tiwari proposes that an understanding of the city as body through lived experience through rhythm analysis where rhythms of everyday and extra everyday practices are understood leads to the design of an environment that is evocative and is able to generate a bodily response from the user To understand the rhythms it becomes essential to know the way users inhabit understand and map or present the city spaces by their bodies Space Body Ritual will compel its readership to think of the parameters of spatial design as cultural generator      Performed Imaginaries Richard Schechner, 2014-11-27 In this collection of essays performance studies scholar and artist Richard Schechner brings his unique perspective to bear upon some of the key themes of society in the 21st century Schechner connects the avantgarde and terror the counter cultural movement of the 1960s 70s and the Occupy movement self wounding art popular culture and ritual the Ramlila cycle play of India and the way imagination structures reality the corporate world and conservative artists Schechner asks artists to redeploy Nehru's Third World as a movement not of nations but of like minded culture workers who must propose counter performances to war violence and the globalized corporate empire With characteristic brio Schechner urges us to play for keeps Playing deeply is a way of finding and embodying new knowledge he writes Performed Imaginaries ranges through some of the key moves within Schechner's oeuvre and challenges today's experimental artists activists and scholars to generate a new third world of performance      Sexuality, Obscenity and Community C. Gupta, 2002-05-30 Through analysis of an impressive array of low and high Hindu literatures particularly pamphlets tracts newspapers and archival data Gupta explores the emerging discourse of gender and sexuality which was essential to the development of notions of Hindu communality and nationalism in the colonial period The book offers an exceptionally nuanced account of Hindi gender politics      Everyday Hinduism Joyce Burkhalter Flueckiger, 2015-02-23 This innovative introductory textbook explores the central practices and beliefs of Hinduism through contemporary everyday practice Introduces and

East Indian Music in the West Indies Peter Lamarche Manuel, Trinidadian sitarist composer and music authority Mangal Patasar once remarked and tan singing You take a capsule from India leave it here for a hundred years and this is what you get Patasar was referring to what may be the most sophisticated and distinctive art form cultivated among the one and a half million East Indians whose ancestors migrated as indentured laborers from colonial India to the West Indies between 1845 and 1917 Known in Trinidad and Guyana as tan singing or local classical music and in Suriname as baithak gana sitting music tan singing has evolved in to a unique idiom embodying the rich poetic and musical heritage brought from India as modified by a diaspora group largely cut off from its ancestral homeland In recent decades however tan singing has been declining regarded as quaint and crude by younger generations raised on MTV Hindi film music and disco At the same time Indo Caribbeans have been participating in their countries economic political and cultural lives to a far greater extent than previously Accompanying this participation has been a lively cultural revival encompassing both an enhanced assertion of Indianness and a spirit of innovative syncretism One of the most well known products of this process is chutney a dynamic music and dance phenomenon that is simultaneously a folk revival and a pop hybrid In Trinidad it has also been the vehicle for a controversial form of female empowerment and an agent of a new more inclusive conception of national identity Thus East Indian Music in the West Indies is a portrait of a diaspora community in motion It documents the social and cultural development of a people without history a people who have sometimes been dismissed as foreigners who merely perpetuate the culture of the homeland rather than becoming truly Caribbean Professor Manuel shows how inaccurate this characterization is On the one hand in the form of tan singing it examines the distinctiveness of traditional Indo Caribbean musical culture On the other in the form of chutney it examines the new assertiveness and syncretism of Indo Caribbean popular music Students of Indo Caribbean music and curious world music fans alike will be fascinated by Professor Manuel s guided tour through the complex and exciting world of Indo Caribbean musical culture
